

On Saturday, October 3, 2020 at 1:00 pm there will be a christening ceremony of the east bound bridge on SD Hwy 50 over the James River. The bridge will be named in honor of Sergeant Allen D. Kokesh, Jr. of the SD Army National Guard. Sergeant Kokesh was killed in action while serving in Southwest Asia. The christening ceremony will be held on the grounds of the Yankton County Veterans Memorial, adjacent to the Yankton County Government Building. If you wish to attend this ceremony, please exercise proper precautions when it comes to social distancing and mask use.

Thank you!

