"Let's Get Acquainted"

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT
Bob Whealy

After many trials and tribulations, we present--an annual. Really though, we believe this one is the best in years. We hope you enjoy and treasure it in the remembrance of many fine days at MHS.

CO-EDITORS OF THE ANNUAL
Connie Hexom and Charles Tolk

Since we can't personally take you through the "hard-worked-upon" pages of the annual, we have devoted much time and energy to choosing a character to do this enlightening duty. Without any further ado of introduction, we are quite proud that we can present, to you, our little CASPER.

Is There Any Further Discussion?"

PRESIDENT
Paul Bratager

Casper says, "Credit given where credit is due!" Surely to this faithful group who willingly give both time and effort in our behalf, much credit is due. Therefore, we join in saluting them for their work in making this a good year for MHS students and faculty.

Left to right. Standing: Delos Casey, Mrs. Gladys Long, Mrs. Lylla Jensen, Floyd Thompson. Seated: Leroy Ericsson, George Simpson, Veral Greene, Paul Bratager.

"The Will to Follow And The Art to Lead"

SUPERINTENDENT of SCHOOLS
Floyd Thompson

The pages of this annual tell the story of a year filled with worthwhile activities and pleasant memories. As we students review these days, we recognize the work which has been done by our administrators. We know that before we took our place in the class room and in the various activities much previous planning had been done in order that this might be one of our best school years. Instrumental in this organization and endeavor has been our new superintendent, Floyd Thompson. For this year and these achievements, we would like to extend our appreciation to Superintendent Thompson for work well done.

PRINCIPAL of MHS
A. G. Memmer

Mr. Memmer, not only as principal of MHS but also as a friend, is always willing to help any student who comes to him. It is his helpfulness and cooperation that has inspired many to continue with jobs that they would otherwise have given up. When students go into his office, Mr. Memmer will give up immediately what he is doing and give his attention to them. He understands the students and praises them for work well done. For this service given by you and for the encouragement we have received, we, the students, now wish to thank you, Mr. Memmer.

"MHS at Work"

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT
Bob Betz

The Student Council is composed of students from every class. The officers presiding are: President, B. Betz; Vice President, B. Whealy; Secretary, K. Hare; Treasurer, S. Hallowell; Advisor, A.G. Memmer.

The Student Council has many jobs outside of representing the student body in school affairs. This year the agenda was headed with the vast arrangements for Homecoming. Taking full charge of social hours and sponsoring some of them was a well-rounded program in itself. However, its sixteen members found time to inject the need of Polio when they officiated at the Polio Auction which brought a great deal of fun into a worthwhile project. The newly formed "Follies" was headed by the council and came through with flying colors to keep it on the agenda again next year. The council also sent delegates to the State Student Council Convention in Huron.

Standing: Left to right: D. Elmore, R. Terwilliger, D. Kaske, W. Hines, B. Campbell
M. Poppen, D. Welch, Mr. Memmer. Sitting: C. Tolk, C. Weber, S. Hallowell B.
Whealy, B. Betz, K. Hare.

MHS band put Madison on the map in the summer of '52. With financial backing from the citizens of Madison, the band participated in the Minneapolis Aquatennial. Winning a first in Minneapolis, the band was eligible to compete in the Chicagoland Music Festival. Again the Madison supporters provided the funds necessary for a Chicago trip. Winning third place in concert playing among the leading bands in the nation, sight-seeing tours, varied experiences and a good trip made the summer one to be long remembered by the band members. Prior to the Minneapolis events was the American Legion Convention where the band placed first in marching for the third consecutive year.

Winter activities have included playing at all pep meetings and home games, out-of-town games, Cancer Crusade Concert, and the Region II Music Contest where a first place rating was received by the band.

Music, music, and more music could be heard through the halls of MHS in preparation for the Annual Region II Contest April 9-10. Besides a grand showing in this contest, the vocal clubs presented a musical pageant for Christmas. Many small vocal groups have entertained at various local club meetings. In addition, the glee clubs and small groups participated in the Cancer Crusade Concert. The conclusion of this year's vocal activities was singing at the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

Many of the members of the vocal department worked on solos during the year. At the local elimination contest at MHS the following individuals won thereby becoming eligible to compete in the Region II Contest: M. Nettum, R. Westby, L. Swift, J. Martinson, G. Whitson, L. With the loss of Don Terwilliger by a swimming accident, the football season got off to a rough start. Although there was a veteran team, injury to key men, at times, slowed the team down. The team finished with one win and seven losses out of eight starts. Dan Kaske and Bob Betz were co-captains while Donald Diepholz and Bob Betz were selected as the outstanding men on the team.

The Madison Bulldogs, with six conference wins, tied with Huron for fifth place honors in ESD Conference play. The Dogs, playing their best in five years ended the season with a 50% average, winning ten out of twenty games. In the Sectional Tournament held at Brookings the Bulldogs were defeated by the Flandreau Fliers by a heart-breaking, last-second basket, but took third place by defeating the Flandreau Indians.

With eleven returning letter men to form the nucleus, Madison High School's track squad began to show its form in the Madison Invitational on April 11 by scoring 75 points to 43 for Mitchell, 41 for Flandreau Indians, and 28 for Flandreau. Duane Poppen, State high hurdle and low hurdle champion started the season with victories in both, besides winning the high jump and broad jump. Don Diepholz set new school records in both the shot put and discus. He threw the shot 49' 1 3/4" and the discus 139' 8".

At the Corn Palace Relays in Mitchell on April 17, Poppen won the high hurdle in the fine time of 15.5 sec. Diepholz got second in the discus and third in the shot and our mile relay placed a good third. On April 18, the Bulldogs won the Pierre Relays with a six man squad. Poppen, Diepholz, Whealy, Moran, Welch and G. Pierson combined their talents against a tough wind to bring Madison its first major track title in the history of the school. Other meets for the squad include the Aberdeen, Sioux City and Dakota Relays, Region, State and Conference meets.

Boys' State is held every year on the campus at Northern State Teachers College. The main purpose of this event is to let the boys run a mythical state government for one week.

In addition, there is the traditional baseball game at the baseball park, the night to visit the town, and the big banquet where the Governor of South Dakota gives his address. There is also recreation every day which includes such sports as basketball, baseball, tennis, and swimming. Completing their week at Boys' State, the boys find they have made many new friendships throughout the state of South Dakota.

Arf! Arf! October 8 and 9 and homecoming time! The theme chosen was "Stalking Victory" and fall colors reigned. The banquet was held in the Trinity Lutheran Church basement with Bob Betz, Student Body President, as toastmaster, and Lyle Laughlin and Superintendent Thompson as speakers. To conclude the entertainment, a humorous skit was given by twelve students. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Don Terwilliger and Donna Ring, as King and Queen of 1952. They reigned over Homecoming festivities. The evening ended amid the flames of the bonfire and the traditional snake dance.

Friday morning students worked on floats in a cloud of excitement and hurry. During the parade the floats judged as prize winners were FHA, most humorous; Twirling Club, most beautiful and the most original was taken by the Sophomore Home Room, I-Q. Students crowded into the State theater immediately after the parade for a movie! Reigning over the festivities, Donna and Don made their appearance in the royalty car before and after the big game. Pom Poms and cheering failed to help the Bulldogs, as they lost to Mitchell 13-0. The Homecoming Dance, held in honor of our King and Queen topped the entertainment for the weekend.

"The Imaginary Invalid", a three act comedy by Moliere, was chosen as the Senior Class play. Jerry Sullivan took the title role as Argan, a gentleman who believes himself to be a helpless invalid although he is in excellent health. Lynne Keough plays Tionette, Argan's maid, who is full of mischief and lives to torment him. Because of his Imaginary illness, Argan wants his beautiful daughter Angelique, played by Donna Ring, to marry a doctor's dull son, Bob Betz. Angelique who has fallen in love with Cleante, a handsome young man, portrayed by Henry Hauck, is distracted by the thought of marrying her father's choice. The plot unwinds as Beline, played by Connie Hexom, Argan's second wife, and Angelique with the aid of Tionette solve their problems at the expense of Argan. The play was presented in the school auditorium on November 12 and 13, 1952.

Other members of the cast were: S. Hallowell, B. Geisler, C. Wilde, D. Kaske, D. Diepholz, L. Groeneveld, and D. Terwilliger.

Mr. Slack, director of the play, was assisted by P. Mullaney. The following were committee-heads: stage manager, D. Satterlee; prop chairman, S. Krause and B. Klopff; lights, D. Poppen; make-up, S. Parker; and costumes, J. O'Connell.

"Silent Night"

The Christmas program, under the direction of Marion Schroeder, was presented in the High School Auditorium, December 16, 1952. The birth of Christ was commemorated through the Nativity scene, Scripture and music. Members of the Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club furnished the music and Martha Schrantz read the Scripture passages. The cast of the Christmas pageant was: Mary and Joseph, Mary Gutzman and Maurice Poppen; Wisemen, Wayne Olson, Don Smith and Jerry Lammers; Shepherds, James Gregerson, Pat Regan, and Bob Porter; Boy and Girl, Bob Hall and Barbara Mortenson.

Left to right: M. Schrantz, W. Olson, J. Lammers, B. Hall, D. Smith, M. Poppen, M. Gutzman, B. Porter, B. Mortenson, P. Regan, J. Gregerson. The background is made up of the mixed chorus.

Replacing the carnival this year is the new "Follies." Follies, according to Webster, are failures caused by lack of sense; but contrary to this definition, the "Class Capades of '53" which was the name given to the Follies, turned out to be a big success.

Jerry Lammers, who was Master of Ceremonies for the first "Class Capades," brought the audience through the various skits and individual acts. The Freshman Class led off with "Television Comes to Wentworth," which won for them the trophy given by the local Elks Club. The Sophomore Class presented "Mother was a Lady, Darn It!" The Senior Class presented "Lawd does Ya Understand?" Concluding the program for the evening was the Junior Class skit entitled "Emperor Jones." In between acts were presented by Mary Nettum, Wayne Olson, and a twirling team.

Other events adding to the success of the first Follies included boxing, dancing, and coronation. The Junior Class again was victorious in gaining the crown for their candidates, Dwight Pierson and Marlys Driveness, substituting for Janice Carter.

"I Remember Mama"

"But most of all--I Remember Mama." This line absolutely "brought the house down" as the Junior play came to a victorious close. On May 12 and 13 the cast became a very Norwegian family as mama portrayed by C. Caulkins, and S. Wiegman as Katrin put together with other members of the cast, J. Quist, S. Fader, B. Hall, C. Student Government Day, held May 5th, found MHS students putting the old proverb "Experience is the best teacher," into action as they took charge of the city government for one day. Judge Marble, from Flandreau, swore in the officials during the morning assembly, after which the students took over their civic duties. The conclusion of the day's activities, sponsored by the American Legion, was a banquet at Tomscha's with Judge Marble as guest speaker.

6. "This is old stuff to them."
7. "Hawaiian music!"
8. "It goes like this!"

"Hawaiian Nights" reigned as the theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom on May 9.

The banquet proved true to native style as island dinner music was played in the tropical setting. The festive dinner was served by under classmen taking the role of native guys and gals. Program music was furnished by the Junior class girls' trio, faculty members, Miss Schroeder and Mr Anderson, and Dick Stanford. The welcome and response were given by Maurice Poppen and Bob Whealey. Mr Brady gave the main address as he talked on the ideas he received from the letters Hawaii. The banquet was concluded to usher in the Prom at the Country Club. Music was furnished by Don Ellis and his orchestra.

"Off Again, on Again"

1. "Off we go!" (Where to? Nobody knows!?)
2. "Ah for relaxation!"
3. "De boys - on de loose."
4. "Now - lets have a B-I-G Smile."
5. "Are you com-m-m-ing?"
6. "Make it sweet girls."

"A riding we will go," and they did as the Senior Class set off on their annual Skip Day towards Sioux Falls and its busy metropolis industries. First on the list was a view of the rapids at Northern State Power, then a conducted tour through Morrells. A full morning was spent eating, and looking as Morrell workers went about their duties. The dinner bell ushered in a successful afternoon as MHS Seniors took a tour of the Crippled Children's Hospital. As supper time rolled around, The Cottage was flooded with orders of fried schrimp (aren't they the elite) and hamburgers and shoes.

During the evening, shows and varied amusements and entertainment concluded the busy day. The night, then not so young, saw MHS Seniors "home again--never more to roam."

"A Wonderful Climax"

"There's the music. All lined up? OK, lets go!" Solemnly the seniors entered the auditorium and took their places as the Baccalaureate services began Sunday, May 24. Rev. Gordon Roth delivered the message. Music, furnished by the high school music department, directed by Marian Schroeder included "Hark The Vesper Hymn Is Stealing" by the Girls' Glee Club and "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Seven Fold Amen" by the Mixed Chorus.

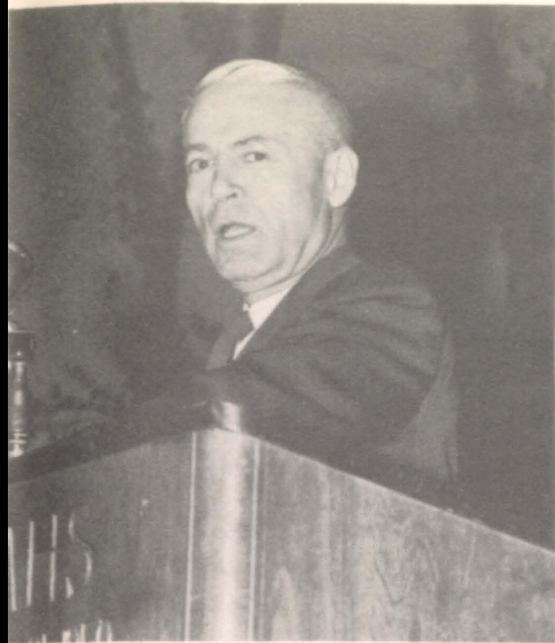

Rev. Gordon Roth, Minister of the Episcopal Church.

"A code for youth in an anxious age" was the keynote of Lyman Fort's address to the graduating seniors. The code Mr. Fort suggested as a governing influence for life's activities was: "Is it true? Is it right? Is it friendly? Is it helpful?"

Music, presentation of awards and diplomas, and congratulations concluded the activities of the "happy--but sad" day.

"So! Back Again?"

"Is Your Errand Done?"
