BUILDING TOWARD SUCCESS

We, the annual staff of 1955, have built this book on SUCCESS. To most of you, there are a few short years left of high school. Enjoy those years, but work toward your goals in life. Most of all, hold dear the memories that have enriched your school days.

To the seniors, who are about to embark on another type of education or career, we wish success.

Perhaps in later years, you will have forgotten some of the happenings of your school days. In your future success, we hope that this yearbook will bring back precious memories of the preparation you made in MHS for your ambitions.

The student body president is Jerome Lammers. Other officers are Jim Gregerson, vice-president; Gayle Arneson, secretary; and Albert Fuller, treasurer. Mr. Engelhorn is the advisor.

Jerome Lammers
Student Body President

In the spring of 1954, Jerome Lammers was elected by the student body to be their president for the coming 1954-55 school year.

Jerome has expertly fulfilled the responsibilities of this position. Acting as president of the student council, he performed many duties according to the wishes and needs of the student body. Being Master of Ceremonies at school functions was another well-done task of Jerry's.

"Hold that Tiger" cheers rang out as the Madison Bulldogs fought towards their first homecoming victory in nine years. The Bulldogs, under the direction of two new coaches, Mr. Cook and Mr. Hilton, completed the season with a second-place standing in the ESD conference.

Madison won, not because of a large team, but because of fine team spirit and cooperation on the part of each and every member of the team.

Madison was also well represented on the All-State team: Buehler, Manthey, and Terwilliger were our representatives. Mosher and Trousdale received honorable mention.

Coach Hilton; Co-Captains, R. Rumrill and R. Terwilliger; Coach Cook.

TRAINED MINDS

The M Club of this year seems to have outdone the M Clubs of the past. Besides sponsoring socials to raise money, they also sponsored the grade school tournament; tickets were sold to pay for the trophies and the referees. Every boy who has lettered is required to join the M Club in order to receive his letter.

With the money on hand, plus the proceeds from the social, the M Club bought a new $700 camera which they used to film most of the basketball and football games. The films were then played back to show the players their mistakes. The results of using this camera were shown in our ESD standings.

The 1954-55 Science Club was quite small but everyone is needed in the advancement of science, a great contribution to all society. Mr. Brady explains many scientific facts to Carl Trooien and John Hart. Splitting an atom is no problem to them. Perhaps their names may mean as much to us in the future as Einstein's or Salk's do now.

Advisor Mr. Brady, Carl Trooien, and John Hart.

1954-55 was another honor year for the MHS Band. The annual State Legion Convention, which was held in Sioux Falls, awarded Mr. Ireland the trophy for the best "B" class marching band. This was their fifth consecutive winning of this contest.

For the third consecutive year, Bill's band won the trophy for concert music at the Minneapolis Aquatennial. This enables the Madison Band to keep the beautiful Aquatennial flag. Another honor added to the Minneapolis festival was the winning of the parade. This brought our well-known band the Aqua-Grand Championship.

A trip through Fort Randall Dam was included with other small trips during the summer.

Members of the Clarinet Quartet which received a superior rating in the regional contest are: D. Grimstvedt, D. Frager, P. Gumz, and P. Regan.

A superior rating was given to the Saxophone ensemble. Back row: D. Rettedal, J. Green, M. Nelson, V. Johannsen. Front row: J. Hallenbeck, M. Jacobs, M. Odell, G. Von Behren.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

It is an unwarranted assumption that putting out a school newspaper is a snap. Long hours of gruelling toil go into every edition. The keywords are WORK, WORK, WORK!

For instance, once a month the co-editors of the Maroon, Gayle Arneson and Pat Regan, meet to plan the edition. This takes intelligence, perseverance, foresight, and chalk. Mr. Aadland is usually around to advise on the insignificant details.

Getting the news is one of the toughest jobs. News editors Janice Hallowell and her alert staff are constantly searching for news, looking everywhere, but let's face it--nothing interesting ever happens in this school and the staff has to settle for exciting stories like listing the honor roll or reporting on Thursday's assignment in typing.

Vigorous, manly exercise, bone-crushing blows, vicious body contact--that's the coverage handled by the Maroon sports writers. Wayne Hines and Pat Regan not only write about sports, they are active participants--real students of the game.

The staff's individual artists go to work preparing for the next issue. Dorothy Nesseth has to come up with her original cartoon ideas based on suave, cosmopolitan humor. Typist Donna Frager must give the machine its yearly cleaning and Carl Trooien has to work on unusual camera angles.

There's seldom anything unusual going on in Central, so feature writers Donna Schultz, Dana Grimstvedt (feature editor), and Marlys Wiegman are always searching in vain for the oddities, the peculiar, something different! No matter where they look, everything seems normal.

After the stories are all written and the type is set, the paper has to be made up. This intricate work is difficult for co-editor Gayle Arneson and make-up editor Bob Porter. Here is where careful planning comes in. Attention to detail and an eye for perfect balance are requisites here. Every story must fit into its niche. No hasty decisions here.

And another edition is off the presses. Next month things will be different!

4. Janice. "Some people, not you nor I, but some people, find great difficulty in saying good-bye when making a call or spending the evening."

Again M.H.S. had a successful year in declamation. Under the direction of Mrs. Groeneveld and Miss Krogmann, those who received superiors in the local contest were Sally Hope, dramatic; Mary Coonradt, oratory; Karen Anderson, poetry, and Janice Hallowell, humorous. At the district contest in Colman, Sally and Karen received superiors while Janice and Mary won excellents. Going to the regional in Brookings were Sally, who received an excellent, and Karen, who won superior. This rating entitled Karen to go to the state contest in Pierre, where she received an excellent.

Debaters at MHS gained practical experience by debating and discussing the problem, "Resolved that the Federal Government should initiate a policy of free trade among nations friendly to the United States." Tournaments were held at Worthington, Madison, and Huron with the Divisional at Vermillion.

STUDENTS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Mr. Smith familiarizes the students with the WNAX forum. Mr. Schmidt introduced the speakers and summed up the respective view points.

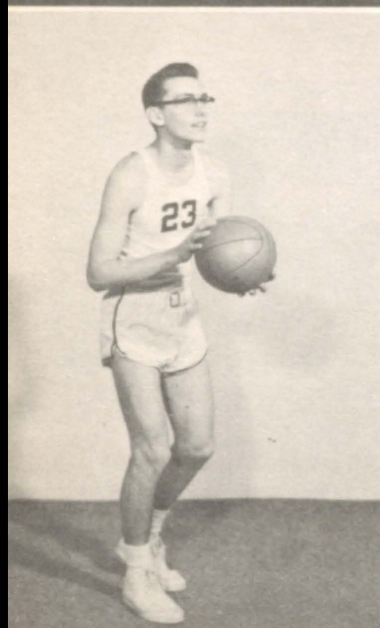

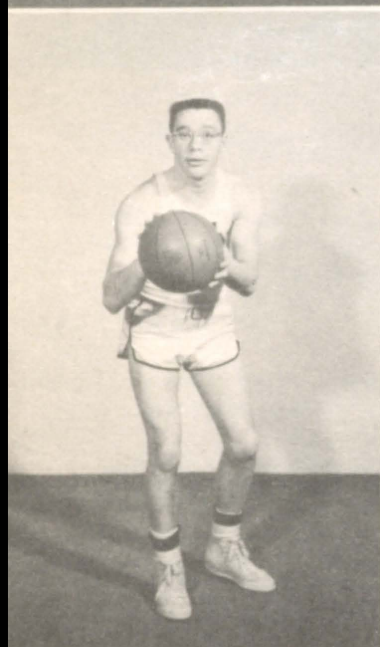

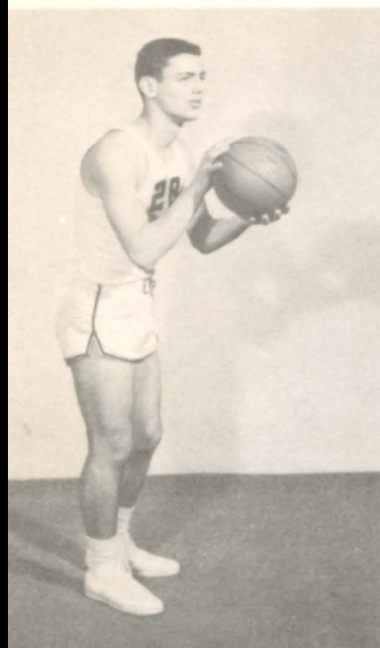

"How can the Student-Parent Relationship be Improved" was the topic for the sixth annual WNAX Forum at MHS. The panel members discussed the questions and presented possible solutions to the problem. After the presentation of the topic, the student body was given an opportunity to question the panel members.

Left to right. J. Lammers, M. Osborne, R. Terwilliger are prepared to discuss their ideas on "How can the student-parent relationship be improved?"

The Madison Bulldogs smoothed over the few rough games they had by ending the season tied with Aberdeen for second place in the ESD conference. Madison had eleven lettermen plus two new players playing for the "A" squad this year. The Bulldogs lost two games to Sioux Falls, one to Huron, and one to Watertown.

Throughout the entire season, the Bulldogs showed fine team spirit, cooperation, and sportsmanship. The student body should also be complimented on their school spirit and the support they gave their team.

Coaches: Mr. Cook, Mr. Hilton, Mr. Brady.

Student Managers: J. Hall, W. Mosher, C. Ericsson.

WE MAKE THE NOISE!

Left to right. The "A" cheerleaders: Marlys Wiegman, Barbara Halseth, Dana Grimstvedt, Kathleen Hare, and JoLynn Newcomb.

The "A" cheerleaders led the student body in yelling the Bulldogs on to Victory both in football and in basketball. They kept the school and team spirit high by holding pep fests, leading yells at the Homecoming bonfire, and helping to maintain good sportsmanship at games.

Loyally supporting the Bullpups were the peppy "B" squad cheerleaders! Following their team to out-of-town games and being on hand to boost spirit at home games enlivened the "B" team.

CANDID CONCLUSIONS

So that you the students won't forget your memorable years at MHS the annual staff plans, works, and edits a yearbook. We hope you will like the results of our efforts.

Work on the annual is started in early fall. The co-editors, Lavonne Harter and Kathleen Hare, together with the advisor, Miss Johnson, begin by planning each page. They select page headings, distribute events, and decide on space devoted to each thing. Their time-consuming job is not only to plan our annual, but also to serve as general supervisors.

After the planning is completed the photographer, Marilyn Nelson, goes to work. She is present at all events to get suitable shots. The photographer also has charge of picture reprints and enlargements.

Wayne Trousdale, business manager, has charge of taking subscriptions, distributing and collecting for class pictures, and distributing the annuals.

After the theme has been chosen and the planning is done, Connie Kraft, the art editor, starts to work on the division pages. This takes originality, painstaking effort, and time.

Then the actual page work gets under way. Our sports editor, Joan Johnson assisted by Pat Doyle, is on the spot at a track meet organizing first hand information for the annual. They check scores, games, and track meets for the records.

Next are the feature editors, Jane Johnson and Ramona Schinderling, enjoying a quiet, serene spot for their deep thinking. These girls are responsible for the "frills" of high school such as Homecoming and the Follies.

Typists for the annual are Lyle Johnson and JoAnn Seitz. Patience is an important characteristic of typists since all perfect copy is done by them.

Last, but not least are the loyal assistants, Gladys Von Behren, Mary Jean Kaiser, and Donna Erickson. These students help with various jobs and learn the procedure of yearbook construction. Assistants are preparing to be next year's section editors.

Left to right. Back row: V. Seitz, R. Sullivan, A. Amonson, R. Appelwick, W. Trousdale, H. Lucken, G. Rames, J. Lammers, R. Terwilliger, J. Manthey, D. Moran. Second row: R. Doyle, J. Hart, B. Rumrill, H. Hines, B. Mosher, G. Appelwick, C. Rounds, P. Doyle, R. Spinar, J. Lund. Front row: G. Pierson, R. Nangle, D. Foss, R. Weber, D. Vickmark, R. Rumrill, R. Campbell, W. Hines, K. Oldre, L. Lee.

The track squad has done very well this year. Besides having a large number of track men lettering, members of the track team set several new records in South Dakota and Minnesota. Records were broken in the Mile, 880 Yard Relay, Discus, High Jump, and 2-Mile Relay. The track squad also took several meets, one of the most important being the Pierre Relays.

The Freshmen should also be commended on the fine work they did. In addition to their part in the freshman meets, several of them also helped out the varsity.

Coaches, Mr. Cook, Mr. Hilton, and Mr. Brady, all assisted in training the track men.

Cross-country runners are: G. Pierson, J. Lammers, H. Lucken, D. Foss.

The cross-country team made up in spirit and fight what it lacked in number. The four members were stiff competition in every race they ran. In the state meet, Darrell Foss won second place and the team placed fifth.

KING ROBERT RUMRILL and QUEEN KATHLEEN HARE are "Sitting on Top of the World" in the senior class royalty float.

Central High students began their 1954 "Say It With Music" Homecoming by witnessing the Coronation.

A blue and silver theme furnished the background for Albert Fuller to pronounce ROBERT RUMRILL KING and KATHLEEN HARE QUEEN. The royal couple reigned over the entire Homecoming festivities beginning with the Coronation program.

The program featured the following: Master of Ceremonies, Dick Welch; Memories by 1954 graduate Jerry Sullivan; A flea-bitten act by Bob Sullivan; Tom Keough and Ramona Schinderling pantomiming the "Man on the Flying Trapeze"; Music by Dana Grimstvedt, Gayle Arneson and Marilyn Nelson. The program was ended by the Altar Sacrifice to the great god of victory.

Homecoming 1954 progressed rapidly....coronation, bonfire, and street dance. But this all happened on the first day! The important Friday, October 22, arrived at last! Everyone gets a thrill from a parade, and this parade was no exception. "Say It With Music" provided the theme for the extraordinary and elaborate floats.

Oh no, we haven't forgotten that we won our Homecoming game with Huron. Our Bulldogs crowned this year's festivities with a special glow after their triumph.

Both of these special days were topped by the Autumn Serenade dance. What a wonderful 1954 memory!

1. The Class of 1902 is depicted on a frosh float.
2. Jane and Joan Johnson ride on top of the annual staff's pink and black typewriter.
3. Marlys Nieman, Frances Baumeister, Arnette Zastrow, and Judy Kuckenbecker ride on the twirling float "Stairway to the Stars".
4. Doris Driveness, Kay Davin, and Pat Doyle depict Madison's high and mighty football team.
5. Autumn Serenade is the theme for the dance, which is last but not least.

YULETIDE CAROLS BEING SUNG BY A FIRE

As has become traditional at Central High, the Vocal Department added to the festivity of the Yuletide season with its Christmas Program.

"Once upon a time in the 'never-never-land' lived a little girl named Betty and her mother." Around this theme the Mixed Chorus and Glee Clubs, under the direction of Miss Schroeder, presented the program on Dec. 20.

1. The Girls' Glee Club added a serious note to the Christmas program with "Gloria" and "The Birthday of the King."
2. As their contribution to the program, MHS representatives to All-State Chorus sang a few of the Chorus numbers.
3. Little Betty Lou Peck listens attentively as the Mixed Chorus tells the story of "The Wizard of Oz" in song.
4. Patsy Callan, Jone Hallenbeck, Anita Bogue, and Judy Betz sing "My Teddy Bear" to Betty Lou and her mother, Kathleen Hare.
5. Sitting before the fireplace, Kathleen tells Betty Lou and "Teddy" just one more story before Betty goes to bed.
6. The Girls' Ensemble consisting of JoAnn Limmer, Bonnie Stemwedel, Alice Tidbloom, Kristy Nighbert, Sophie Shaheen, Carol Brown, and JoAnn Seitz contributed to the program with "Star of the East."

"Tattletale", a three act comedy, was presented February 7th and 9th in the high school auditorium. The individual junior and senior plays were discontinued in favor of an all school play. The play was double cast with both casts giving excellent performances. The large audience enjoyed the play immensely.

1. Mr. Blaine: "Every time I see Louella bouncing up and down on one of our moth-eaten benches, I hold my breath for fear she'll crash through."
2. Patty: "Get this broken typewriter out of here before anyone else comes in. Hurry!"
3. Louella: "I think I'll have a cherry on top of my whipped cream and nuts."
4. Isabel: "Here's what I think of you! Now, will you get out?"
5. Tod: "This is Ermintrude! Ermintrude in effigy. We're hanging her tonight in the town square."
6. Patty: "That's the spirit! Everybody ready?"
Crowd: "Yay!"
7. Artie: (Banging on wash tub and singing.) "Ermintrude will hang tonight, Ermintrude will hang!"

TOP HATS AND "TALES"—

1. Mary Jane Houske and Tom Wilde take us back to Grandmother's time with a demonstration of the Charleston.
2. Mrs. Sayre and Mrs. Thompson survey the cakes and pies before picking winners. The senior class took first prize in both cakes and pies.
3. Janice Mathieu, Beverly Waters, Donna Schultz, Vance Gregerson, Robert Wallace, Roy Terwilliger--Royalty candidates for 1955 Follies.
4. Mr. Burg presents the Follies trophy to the freshman class-president, Kemmie Oldre, as Jerry Lammers looks on.
5. As another Individual Act, Jeanette Neuman and her accordion take us down "South."
6. One of the Individual Acts features Cheryl Westergard warbling "Earth Angel."
7. High-stepping Marlys Nieman gave a twirling exhibition.

IN REVUE

MHS has done it again! Another successful Follies event was held March 1, thus enabling our Annual to go to press. The "Classcapades" is a student production staged to finance the yearbook. The skits are written, produced, and directed by the students themselves.

Since its beginning in 1953, the "Classcapades" has seen only Jerry Lammers as Master of Ceremonies. A senior now, Jerry has handled the MC spotlight very well for three successive years.

This year the boxing matches were featured on Monday of the previous week to allow time for the skits, coronation, and dancing to be held on one night.

1. Jone Hallenbeck and Norman Johnson, representing the freshman class, were crowned Follies Royalty for 1955.
2. Suspense filled the auditorium as the juniors placed "Atom Al" on trial.
3. Sophomore girls are in a state of depression because they don't have dates for the annual "Winter Slop Hop."
4. Laurie Lee and his attendants discover "Hearts of Stone" in the prize-winning freshman skit.
5. The seniors reproduce the typical trials and tribulations of dining out--especially in a popular Chinese cafe!

FACING OUR FUTURE

Career Day was held March 30. This annual event, held in Madison, is set aside for students from surrounding schools to hear speakers from various professions. Career Day gives students assistance in deciding on their future occupations.

1. The participants began the day by listening to the M.H.S. Band and Dr. Wold.
2. The many speakers are introduced by Superintendent Thompson.
3. Students were told qualifications for dentistry, law, and optometry.
4. Many girls were interested in music, speech work, and photography.
5. Army life appealed to the boys.
6. Time out for lunch in the Home Ec. room.
7. Speaker Dr. Wold advises students through the words from II Peter 1:10--"Therefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall."

TOWARD BETTER CITIZENSHIP

Student Government Day, sponsored by the American Legion, was held April 27 for the purpose of acquainting Madison High students with their form of city government. The ceremonies started with the swearing in of student officials by Judge Quist. The groups then proceeded to the city hall where Karl Williams, city manager, talked to them about the different types of city government and the duties each should perform in their office.

The conclusion of the day's activities was a banquet at Tomscha's with Judge Rice as the main speaker.

1. Swearing-in ceremony.
2. Commissioners meeting.
3. Assistant auditor--Kathleen Hare. Secretary to the auditor--Penny Gumz.
4. Government Day banquet at Tomscha's.

SPRING FERVOR

The 1955 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom were held April 30. An oriental theme furnished an exciting background for this event.

The banquet, put on by the juniors, was held in the St. Thomas gym. A quaint Japanese park scene, a flowering tree, and oriental drawings added a gay, spring touch to the banquet.

1. Every junior, senior, teacher, and school board member enjoyed the roast beef and cherry pie.

2. All were cast into an oriental mood by appropriate music played by Mary Jean Kaiser.

3. Karen Anderson, Priscilla Pirwitz, and Sally Hope dance in Japanese style.

4. Les Sathers, toastmaster, on behalf of the junior class, welcomed the seniors and other guests.

5. Senior class president, Jim Gregerson, thanks the juniors and all responsible for a very memorable occasion.

6. Mr. Verle Struwe gave a picturesque talk about a trip through the far East.

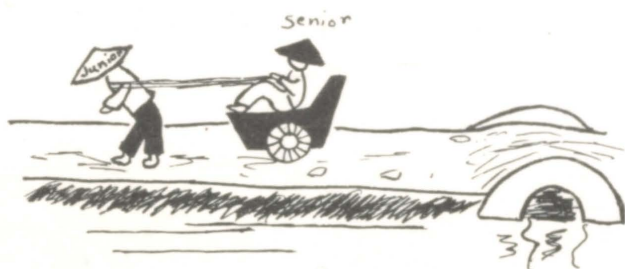

7. Bob Appelwick summed up the night by singing "Some Enchanted Evening."

Immediately following the banquet, the prom was held at the Golf Club House. Again the Oriental theme was carried out through Japanese lanterns hanging from the lights. Milt Askew's orchestra furnished the music for the couples as they danced. Cool breezes from the lake put a refreshing touch on an evening of gaiety and excitement.

1. Serving at the banquet and prom were boys, (Left to Right) V. Gregerson, H. Ewald, C. Ericsson, D. Hare, and K. Liddiard. Girls, A. Zastrow, B. Anderson, P. Mullaney, M. Kaiser, and D. Toik.

VACATION DAZE

Seniors during typical skip day activities, sunning and eating.

State Park provided plenty of space for fun and sun.

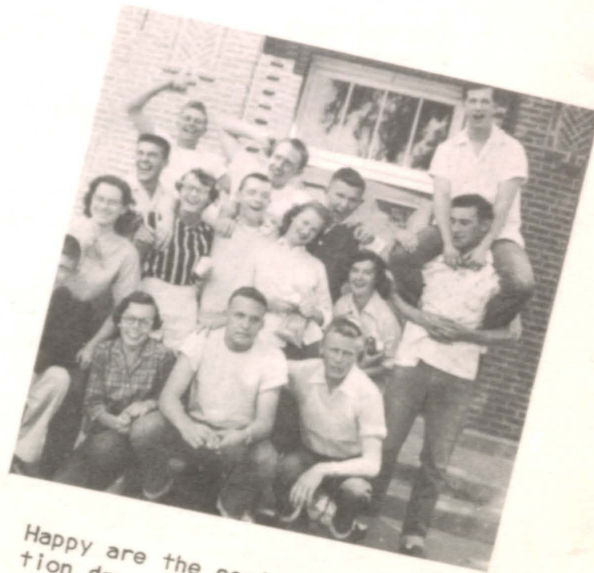

In previous years, the school sponsored the annual senior skip day. However, this year it was decided that the seniors would have a day's leave to do what they wished without being a responsibility of the school.

The morning of May 2 came with a bright sunny day. Seniors will always remember picnics, (food!) swimming, (sunburn!) sleep (aah!) and many other activities of the day, including trips to Sioux Falls or Vermillion.

C. Kraft, A. Johnson, L. Harter, and C. Westergard enjoy the beautiful scenery of the Sherman Park in Sioux Falls.

These summer days mean business for car-hops at Tomscha's Diner. Waitresses are left to right: J. Rundle, M. Jacobs, G. Doering, and V. Johannsen.

Happy are the seniors on vacation day. Back row: P. Regan, J. Gregerson, R. Olsbo, B. Mosher, B. Staley. Second row: M. Osborne, R. Gutzman, J. Hall, R. Schinderling, P. Gumz, and J. Manthey. First row: F. Buehler, D. Grimstvedt, B. Rumrill, and D. Foss.

School's out! That means, "Everything out of lockers." Junior girls are really cleaning! In the foreground are: M. Millet, K. Malthesen, J. Johnson, and D. Glatz.

LEISURE HOURS

1. The hallowed halls of ivy will be long remembered by each of us.
2. Everyone is smiling--why not? School's out!
3. A spring luncheon was given to the mothers of the Homemaking III class.

4. Joan Johnson says "Farewell!" She is enjoying the foliage near the school before summer vacation.
5. Seniors are relaxed before a long-awaited practice for commencement.
6. The FHA has an annual get-together, the Puff-Pant Prom. This year the Lyons' Chapter was invited to join the fun.

GOING ONCE! GOING TWICE!

The Polio Auction consisting of candy, baked goods, wearing apparel, and a few stray articles such as dogs, cats, broken guns, dates, pens, and pencils is held each year at Central High. The enthusiasm of the students was shown by the total receipts, $141.35.

Students slid to the edge of their seats as they bid excitedly for "goody" hats and "Ole" ties!

Auctioneers J. Hall and G. Pierson receive bids for a pie while R. Terwilliger, D. Welch, and W. Hines supply them with everything from puppies to pencils.

Terry Jensen pays Jane Johnson and Donna Frager for a super-duper cake.

LET'S LIVE A LITTLE, GALS!

On April 1, legendary characters from Pioneer Days rode out of the old west for a get-together at the Spinster Dance. Famous men and women such as Lewis and Clark, David and Emma Crocket, and many others checked their "six-shooters" at the door to do a little dancing.

Best-dressed pioneers at the Spinster Dance were: D. Frager, P. Gumz, L. Chapman, P. Regan, G. Rames, and W. Hines.

Goody Day was held the day following the Polio Auction. Wearing precious apparel purchased at the auction are: Left to right, A. Bogue, S. Whaley, P. Pirwitz, B. Mosher, M. Millet, S. Hope, B. Staley, M. Holle, V. Johannsen, M. Jacobs. Seated: D. Schultz, J. Spawn, B. Halseth, and J. Johnson.

Boys' State Representatives--Wayne Hines, Albert Fuller, and Herb Lucken.

Delegates to Boys' State, held at Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, participated in the traditional mythical state government.

In addition to the educational events, the boys attended a banquet with the governor of South Dakota as the speaker. A trip into town and a ballgame were also entertaining.

DAR--Gayle Arneson

Each year a high school girl is chosen from each school to participate in the Daughters of the American Revolution contest. Gayle was selected this year on the basis of honesty, dependability, leadership, and personality.

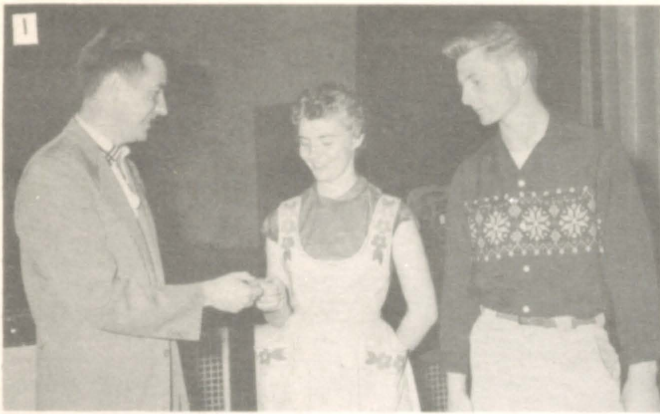

Girls' State Representatives--Nancy Amonson and Marilyn Nelson.

The representatives, sponsored by the American Legion Auxilliary attended Girls' State at Dakota Wesleyan College in Mitchell for a week with girls from all parts of the state. The girls spent an exciting week learning about city, county, and state governments. Campaign speeches, elections, receptions and recreation added to the fun.

Priscilla Pirwitz played the processional as the seniors marched into the auditorium to hear Reverend Ernest Nelson give the May 29 Baccalaureate services. His sermon on "How Free is Freedom?" enlightened the graduates as to their part in the community, nation, and all christianity. The Invocation and Scripture were followed by the "The Lord's Prayer," sung by the Girls' Glee Club. The Mixed Chorus sang "Heav'nly Light" and ended the benediction with "Seven Fold Amen."

The Reverend Ernest N. Nelson of the Trinity Lutheran Church gives the scripture. "Finally my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." Ephesians 6:10-18

EXAMPLES OF SUCCESS

Superintendent Floyd Thompson quotes the following advice for success:

Success is failure turned inside out--
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt--
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit--
It's when things seem worst that you musn't quit.

Carol Beyer, secretary to Mr. Thompson

It's serving, striving through strain and stress,
It's doing your noblest--that's Success.

Author unknown

Principal Homer Engelhorn forgets school duties as he returns to his family.

To the students he says:

Believe in yourself and step out unafraid.
By misgivings and doubt be not easily swayed.
You've the right to succeed; the precision of skill
Which betokens the great you can earn if you will!
The wisdom of ages is yours if you'll read.
But you've got to believe in yourself to succeed.
