Principal's Message

RONALD BENTLEY
Principal

To the students of Madison High School:

As the process of education continues and knowledge is imparted, the challenge to "Do" becomes paramount. Every wrong is a challenge for the person with vision; every need is a task for someone.

Perhaps no program is greater than that of helping students to see the needs of society and to know their own abilities to meet these needs and to help them to develop the motivation that can make them great.

It has been said that education is not causing a person to know what he does not know, but causing a person to do what he does not do. Let's check and see how educated we are.

Granted great motivation, great deeds will follow.

Sincerely yours,

Our custodial staff, referred to by some as the nerve center of the school, deserves a vote of thanks and a round of applause for a job well done. This year the custodians were Stanley Cole, Herbert (Pinkie) Halter, and Gerhardt Wollmann. Carrol Leighton was also a custodian at Central until the latter part of the school year.

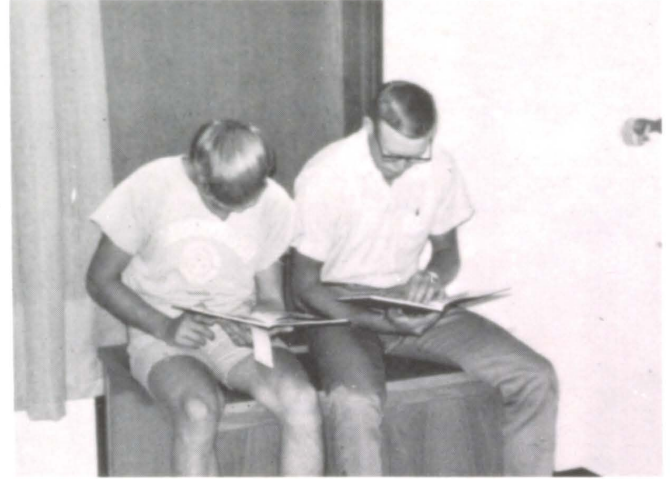

FALL

Flying Pens and Aching Fingers

Some Senior girls enjoy their last annual signing party.

Busy reading their annuals are Donavon Albertson and Gary Bruns.

Enjoying their first annuals are these freshmen students.

"Hey!! Who's got my annual?" was the familiar cry at the 1966 Annual Signing Party. The past year was relived in the few minutes of flying pens and aching fingers.

For the last time the graduating class of 1966, met with their classmates and teachers for a final goodbye before leaving on separate pathways of life.

One hallway, slightly crowded.

Can't you think of anything to say?

Have Country — Will Cross

Twenty-five boys from all four grades constituted this year's Cross Country Team. The Varsity had a dual record of three wins and four losses. They defeated Brookings, Watertown and Flandreau and were defeated by the Flandreau Indians, Clear Lake, Sioux Falls Washington and Sioux Falls Lincoln. The team finished fifth in the E. S. D. Conference meet, and twentieth in the state meet.

The Basic Ingredients

The 1966 Bulldog football team was a rewarding team, yet a disappointment in the win-lost column. There were some problems early in the season, plus injuries that contributed to the disappointing season. The bright spot was the improvement of the younger boys. A coach always has to second guess after the season on the successes and failures of his team. It seems that many things should have been different during the year, but the season has passed and we must look towards the future.

There are 118 boys signed up for football between the 9th and 12th grades. Eighteen senior boys are lost this year, which will hurt the chances for the ensuing year. The team has worked themselves up from the bottom of the conference to the top. It will take a lot of hard work and determination to keep this position.

Coaches Weisbecker and Walczyk are shown with captains Steve Sautley and Dan Skaff.

The student managers, for the year's varsity team, were, Ted Ellingson and Rick Schmidt.

Practicing for Perfection

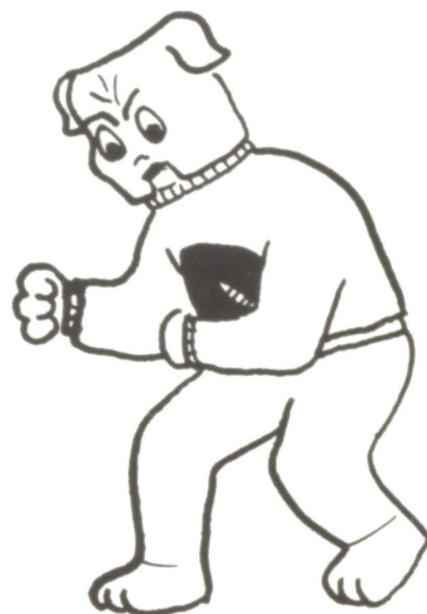

A good scrimmage prepares our team for future victories.

Gaining the ball requires quick action by the MHS team.

Tackling the dummy provides good practice for the football team.

Bullpups Make A Big Growl

Thirty-six boys constituted this year's freshman team. The team wound up with a 4 win 2 loss record. The wins were gained over Howard (12-7), Flandreau (26-6), Brookings (14-0), and Mitchell (28-20). The frosh were beaten by Watertown in the opening game 13-25 and midway through the season by Huron 13-26.

The sophomore football team finished the season with two wins over Flandreau and Viola. Both scores were 26-0. The team was beaten by Watertown (14-13), Mitchell (14-13), Brookings (32-13), and O'Gorman (18-12), and Huron (16-12).

Homecoming Floats Depict School Spirit

These F.F.A. boys pulled hard, and won the award for "Most Humorous."

One of the most important boosters of school spirit, at Homecoming time is the building of floats. Each homeroom built a float centered around the theme "School Spirit." Work on the floats began a week prior to the parade, and continued up to the very last minute before the parade.

Awards were given for "Most Humorous," "Most Original," and for "Most School Spirit."

The parade was held the afternoon before the football game. As usual, the weather refused to cooperate, but the parade was a success anyway.

The Senior Class bagged the award for "Most School Spirit" with their replica of our school's mascot.

The "Most Original" award went to the Freshman homeroom STR.-W. for their float entitled "De-feet the Kernels."

These Sophomores are working hard to meet the parade deadline.

We Prepare For Homecoming

Bill Ireland was master of ceremonies for the coronation held the night before the Homecoming parade and game. As usual, he entertained the audience with his great humor.

These posters showed the football team that the student body was behind them all the way. The cheerleaders spent many hours making these posters and they created much enthusiasm.

The cheerleaders pose by a poster showing the school mascot. They are: Beth Brown, Debbie Pearson, Linda Sorensen, Shalley O'Brien, GayLynn Taylor, and Peggy Olson.

The Chairmen for the 1966 Homecoming were Tricia Knox, and Peggy Anderson, assisted by Paul Jahr.

Shown here is the football team scrimmaging in preparation for the Homecoming game which was held on September 30.

Dancing and Dealing At Elks Parties

One Monday night a month the Elks Club gives great parties for Madison High and surrounding area students, to really start the week off right. Students can dance to popular tunes upstairs; or play cards, watch color television, or just socialize downstairs. Delicious lunches are served at the end of the evening, and everyone has a great time.

Interlakes Staff Re

Shown above are the 1966-67 INTERLAKES co-editors Barb Brown and Mona Rames, and adviser Mr. Richard Bortnem.

The 1967 INTERLAKES staff spent long hours and worked hard trying to make this year's INTERLAKES the best ever. The staff members experienced moments of laughter, anxiety, and extreme mental stress in producing this year's annual.

In the fall the adviser and several INTERLAKES staff members attended the annual South Dakota High School Press association Convention in Brookings to gain a better understanding of year-book production.

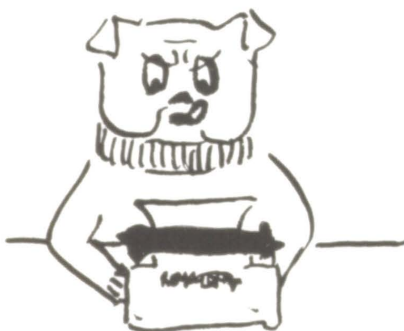

Under the expert direction of Mr. Richard Bortnem, the INTERLAKES staff produced a yearbook which, we hope, records and reflects the memorable events of the 1966-67 school year.

Dick Ericcson and Tom Greene did a fine job as photographers for the INTERLAKES.

The staff's artist, Becky Natwick, drew some of the bulldog cartoons in this year's INTERLAKES. Jackie Green, another talented artist, also drew many of the bulldog cartoons; but she is not pictured.

Barb Brown and Mona Rames are shown handing the finally finished pages to Mr. Bortnem.

cords MHS Year

Cynthia Fix, Patty Crosby, and Mary Collignon had the tedious job of indexing the names of the students and the faculty and telling on what pages their pictures appear in the INTERLAKES.

The Activities committee consisted of Mike Fitzgerald, Jack Whitethorn, Sarah Klinghagen, Scarlet Stanford, Leah Quam, and Vernice Hackett. Their job is to make up the pages reflecting the sports and the numerous organizations at Madison High.

The members of the Classes and Faculty section were, seated—Debbie Thompson, Doug Hoidal, Cheryl Mauf, Bobby Fatland. Standing—Beth Terry, Tom Cockle, Barb Lucas, LaRita Bagley. This committee's job is to complete the classes' section, do the faculty pages, and make up the senior write-ups.

Sandy Bunkers, Kandy Schulz, Cheryl Beyer, Jody Vickmark, Ione Myrmoe, and Tom Greene were responsible for the Special Events, including Homecoming, the Follies, Prom, and graduation.

MAROON editor Peggy Anderson and adviser Mr. Hiaring are shown getting the copies of the new paper ready for circulation.

Future Journalists ???

Shown below are the MAROON'S sports writers—Mark Salem, Don Zimmerman, and Dale Jahr.

The photographers for the MAROON were Dan Crippen and Tricia Knox.

Follies Fun For Everyone

Chosen to reign over the Follies were King Dennis Saufley and Queen Sonya Dragseth. The other candidates were Ted Weiland, Vaughn Hiaring, last year's queen Delonn Brekke, last year's king Ken Johnson, Jody Vickmark, Patty Bulfer, and Janet Eich. The crownbearers were Paul Stensrud and Christie Hovda.

Waiting to announce the next play is Dick Ericsson, master of ceremonies for the 1966 Follies.

The 1966-67 Follies, the purpose of which is to raise money for the MHS yearbook, was a great success. This year the Follies was held two nights with each of the classes representing a one-act play. This year the Elks traveling trophy went to the Juniors for their play, "Great Smokies," a hillbilly comedy.

Besides putting on a skit, each class tries to accumulate the most points by selling tickets and making pies and cakes. Some of the pies and cakes are judged for beauty and taste. Although the Seniors received a first place for their cakes and the Sophomores took first place in the pie contest, the Juniors sold the most tickets which helped them to win the contest and have their candidates reign over the Follies.

The king and queen, Dennis Saufley and Sonya Dragseth, were crowned by last year's royalty Ken Johnson and Delonn Brekke. The Follies ended with a dance held in the high school auditorium.

Anticipating the announcement of the Royalty are Jody Vickmark, Sonya Dragseth, Patty Bulfer and Janet Eich.

Juniors Display Talent and Bag Trophy

Mr. Melburn Halseth, exalted ruler of the Elks, presents the Elks traveling trophy for the winning play to the junior class candidates, Dennis Saufley and Sonya Dragseth.

Kathy Johnson and Val Simpson are overjoyed to find out that they are the same age.

Paw Schlepper (Rod Osterloh) and Widow Daisy Snodgrass (Linda Stephenson) suddenly realize that Hiram (Jerry Kirkeby) and Lizzie (GayLynn Taylor) are old enough to marry.

One-Act Plays Create Humor

Harry Stevens (Tom Kessler) asks Emmy Lou (Sandra Deremo) to marry him in the freshmen skit, "One Happy Family."

Henry, played by Roger Jensen in the freshman skit, is working diligently on his homework.

Discussing the death of grandfather in the senior skit, "The Dear Departed," are Mr. and Mrs. Slater, played by Dan Skaff and Lana Williams.

Shocked at finding out that Grandpa is still alive are Mr. and Mrs. Jordan (Alan Christie and Carol Ritscher). Grandpa was played by Jeff Severson.

Dreamily looking forward to their vacation is Nancy Curtis (Beth Terry) in the sophomore skit, "Standing Room Only."

Harry Curtis (Dale Ziebarth) and Jack Stevens (Dave Hanneman) are busy discussing the plans for a vacation trip.

The Pros and Cons Of It

"Where are we going this weekend?" was the excited cry of the debaters this year. Almost every week-end from the end of November to early March the debaters traveled from one end of the state to the other, arguing the topic "Resolved: that the U.S. foreign aid program should be limited to non-military assistance." With the team working hard and trying their best, they always kept this thought in their minds, "It doesn't matter whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game that counts".

Opportunities To Learn And To Help

The Madison High chapter of the Future Nurses Club provides its members with much experience and knowledge which they will use and benefit from in their future careers as nurses. This year the girls bought pinafores which they wore while giving their services to the community. The girls helped quite frequently at the Bethel Home. A highlight of this year's activities was a trip to the state hospital in Yankton.

The Library Club offers the opportunity for interested students to learn the basics of library work. They assist the librarians in reviewing books, ordering magazines, and decorating bulletin boards. The Library Club took a field trip to Sioux Falls to see the motion picture "Doctor Zhivago" and during National Library Week, April 16-22, they held a coffee hour for the faculty.

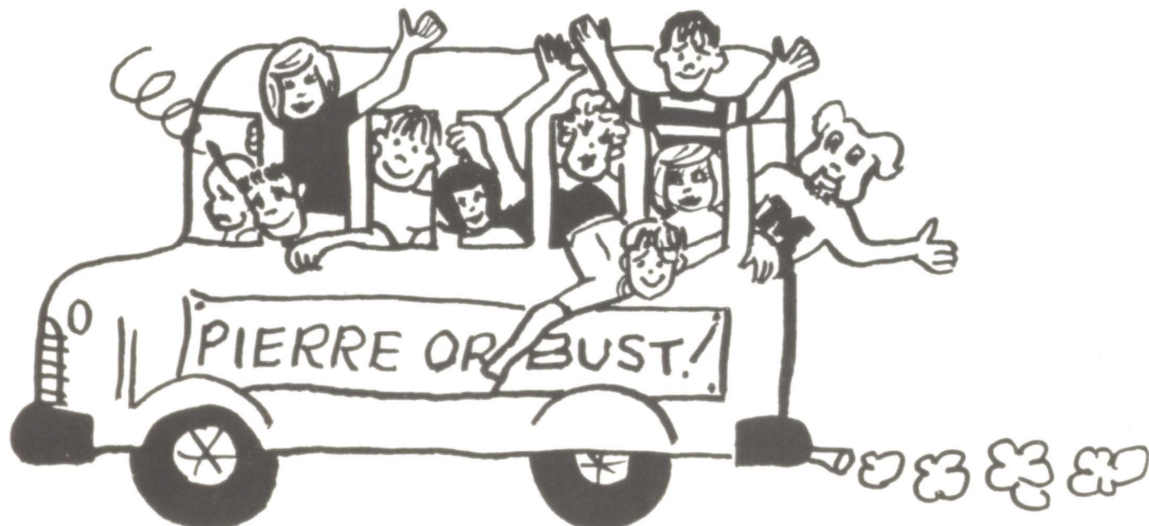

WINTER

On the Spot Learning

Mr. Reitzel's Senior government classes took a field trip to Pierre to watch the South Dakota State Legislature in session. The classes had been studying how the different levels of government operate and the trip helped the students to understand the subject. The Seniors also saw some of the other state offices and bureaus.

Enthusiasm and Effort

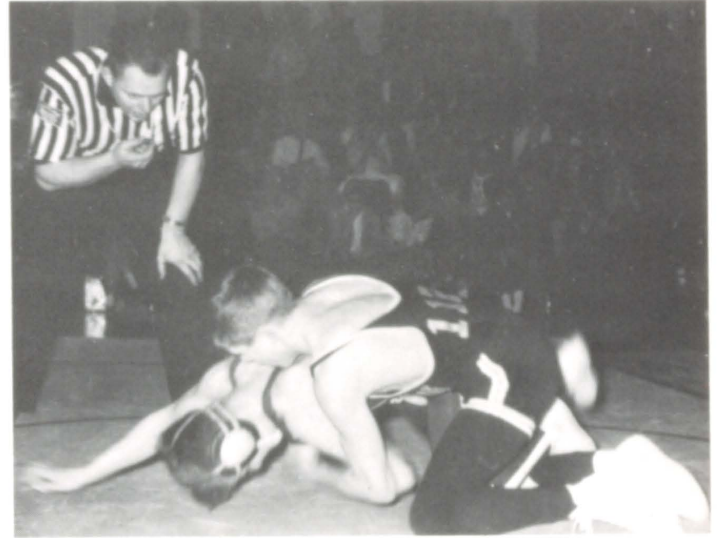

Rocky Shoenrock, the only Bulldog Wrestler to reach state competition, makes an effort to pin his man.

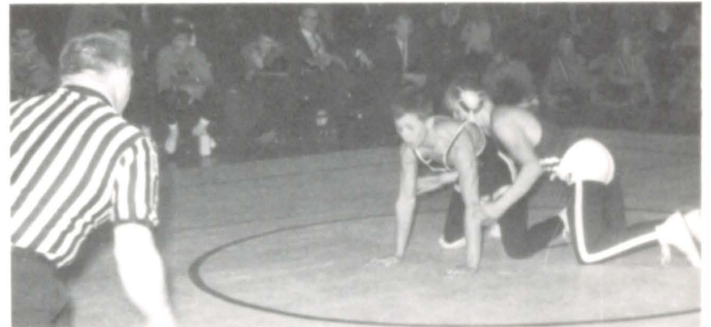

This year with a great number of returning wrestlers, the Madison team won a total of 67 Matches. They got off to a good start by winning their first match against the Flandreau Indians 34-20.

With a great improvement over the past two years, through the gained knowledge and experience, our wrestlers show promise for the years to come.

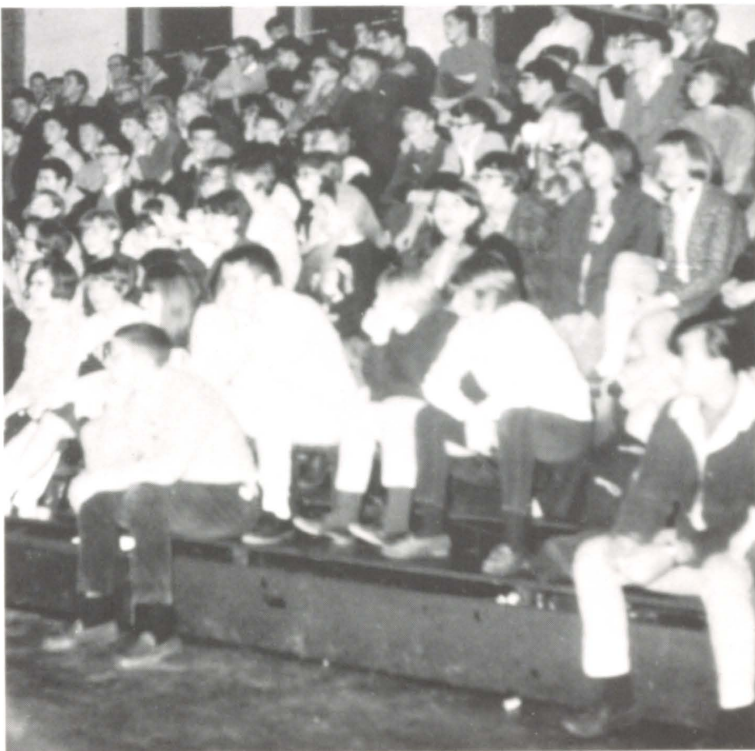

Rocky Shoenrock, the only wrestler to represent the school at the State "A" matches, won a many matches that helped to push our team to the position it held in the state.

Allan Crane goes for a pin under the watchful eyes of the ref.

At the ref's signal, Gary Kessler commences to wrestle.

Music Masters

The Madrigal group, a selection of talented students, has been active singing at a number of social events this year. It has also received a superior rating in the contest held this spring. The group includes: back row from left to right—Dan Skaff, Jerome Driscoll, Tom Thelen, Dick Amert, Paul Jahr. Middle row—Vaughn Hiaring, Gary Randall, Helen Jensen, Tricia Knox, Shalley O'Brien, and Don Amert. Front Row—Joan Olson, Mary Lou Olson, Susan Bulfur, Jackie Green, and Patsy Lindstrom.

The Senior Girls' Quartet consisted of: from top to bottom—Shalley O'Brien, Susan Bulfur, Julie Nesseth, and Mary Lou Olson.

The purpose of the Girl's Athletic Association is to provide extra-curricular activity for those girls who are interested in basketball, volleyball, softball, bowling and track events. By participating in these activities they earn points toward various awards of letters, pins and trophies. Each class forms their own teams and plays competitively in inter-class tournaments with trophies going to the winners in each activity.

Under The Mistletoe

QUEEN JOAN OLSON and her escort, LARRY MAROON, presided over the Ball.

THE QUEEN'S COURT: Delonn Brekke, Sandy Robson, Peg Christiansen, Queen Joan, Peg Galloway, Laurel Hiaring, and Helen Jensen. Helen was queen in 1966.

Each year the Future Homemakers of America sponsor an event to raise money for the state scholarship fund. This year a Mistletoe Ball was held on December 27. The queen candidates, who are all F.H.A. members, were decided upon by the Madison F.H.A. Chapter. The final decision was made by the student body. Mistress of Ceremonies, Mona Rames, announced the results at the Ball.

Mr. Johnson is practicing for his part as a villian in a small town play.

After finishing a unit in drama, the Speech II class presented a one-act play to the student body. The play was entitled "Jerry Breaks a Date."

Roses Are Red . . .

Among the students at Central there are many talents. These talents come in various forms. Some students have musical ability, others have athletic prowess, some are artistic, and there are many other talents. On this page a talent possessed by Centralites is given credit-writing. Many students are capable, and they all choose various styles and subjects. These three poems are all good examples of Central talent.

I WAS ALONE

by Val Simpson

I sat alone and I cried, as I thought of all the great and wonderful who have died.
And soon this dark sorrow cloud grew until I felt soon this wretched loneliness would snuff out my very life,
And then a light and I rejoiced.
I sat alone and cried and thought shall I never find a guide,
To show me where life's contentment lies?
And then a sign and I rejoiced.
I sat alone and cried as I remembered those who had lied
When they told me this world was wonderful,
And then a wonder and I rejoiced.
I sat alone and cried,
What thanks is great enough to give a Light, a Wonder, and a Guide?
And then a prayer and I rejoiced.

On Being Bored in Study Hall

by Tricia Knox

Life's spacious Castle
Leads us toward conformity,
It's drawbridge ever open
In an inviting smile
That reeks of stability
But covers a network of corruption.
The gullible patrons of simplicity
Are taken in voluntarily.
The individuals struggle,
For acquiescence does not
Satisfy their inventive minds.

Nothing More

by Marilu Tomscha

Sheltered by a simon-pure, sugar candied paradise where life was so lushiously simple, he continued to find his security in fabricated forms, never to venture out and relegate the invisible sheath that so lickerishly clawed at his being.

The shattering of this private and remote deception would only afford the corroding of his own tortured soul.

Until he realizes that his shell must crack he is only breathing for air—nothing more.

THE END

These We Enjoy

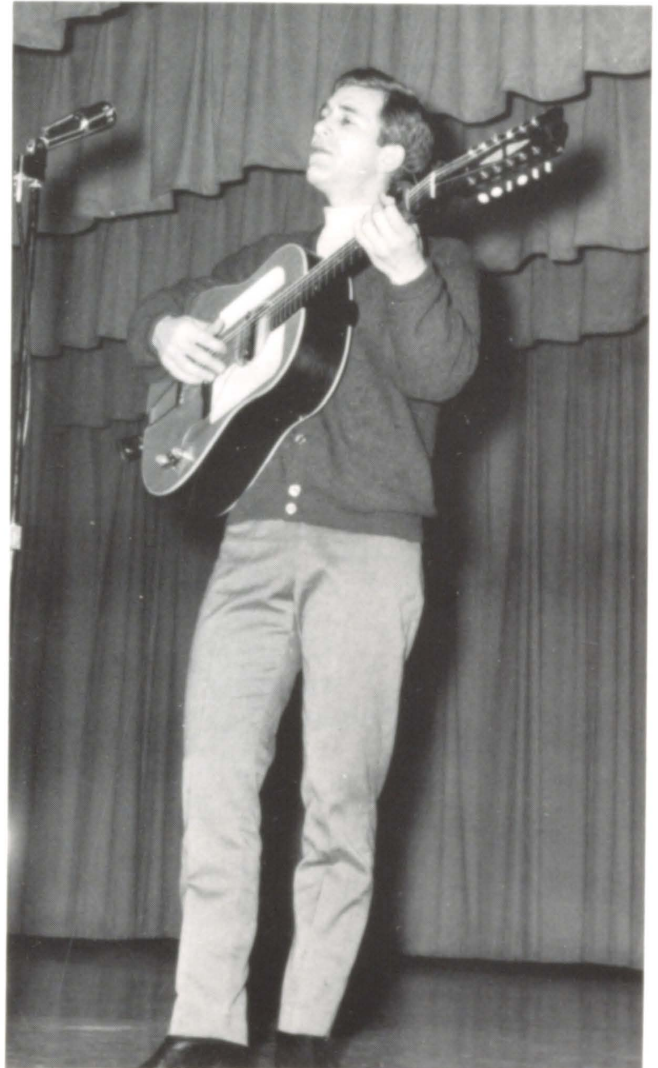

At one of our assemblies a gentleman from Chicago presented a reading entitled "A Man Without a Country" to the student body of Central.

Each year a certain number of planned assemblies are presented to the Central students. They range from science demonstrations to musical performances to comical episodes. These programs provide necessary and very welcome breaks for the students and the faculty. These various programs come to us through the University of Minnesota's planned assembly program, and they are all in very good taste. The students really enjoy and look forward to the special days when these assemblies are provided.

An entertainer, who had recently returned from a performing tour of Europe, entertained the student body by singing and playing familiar ballads.

A fine example of all of our well planned assemblies, a well received performer presents an interesting program during one of our assemblies.

Orators and Officers

This year's Student Council was very active and introduced a number of substantial changes to the student body. One of their many accomplishments was the setting up of a student commons area for those persons that made either the honor or merit roll.

All School Cast Presents

Fenwick's dignitaries pose with Gloriana before the crowd on the balcony of the castle in order to inspire the people of Grand Fenwick.

After convincing his superiors that he has not been in the bar, Bill Dirksen proceeds to describe the invaders that he has seen in the streets of New York.

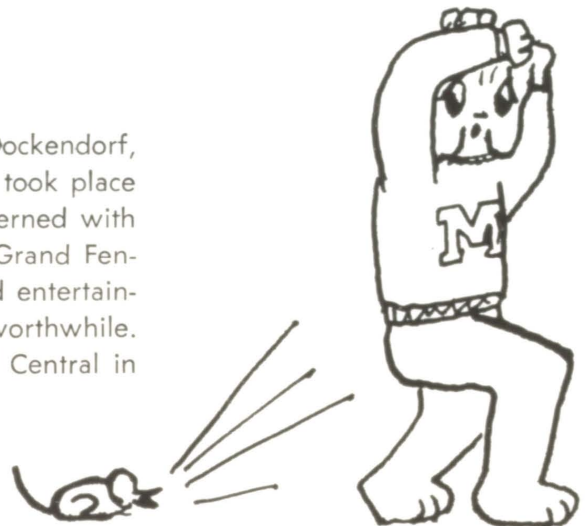

The soldiers of Grand Fenwick, awed by the sight of the skyscrapers and other buildings, stand at attention in the streets of New York.

The General, Mark David, is furious to think that anyone would interrupt him when he was on official business that affected the security of the entire nation.

This year the all school play cast, under the direction of Mr. Dockendorf, presented "The Mouse That Roared." This play was a satire that took place in a small European duchy, Grand Fenwick. The plot was concerned with the only form of income that Grand Fenwick possessed—Pinot Grand Fenwick, which is a type of wine. This play was both humorous and entertaining, but those who attended the play agreed that it was very worthwhile. Our thanks goes to Mr. Dockendorf for helping the students of Central in making this play possible.

"The Mouse That Roared"

Professor Kokintz, played by Randy Perkins, argues with the building air raid warden.

While escorting their prisoners to Grand Fenwick, the invasion party pauses to discuss their situation.

"Air raid!" shouts Count Mountjoy in an attempt to warn the citizens.

Mrs. Bascom pleads with Glorianna to hear her son's report on his invasion of the United States.

After two nights of performing, the cast and stage hands assemble boldly before the camera; while Mr. Dockendorf, the director, seems to be a little camera shy.

Patriotism and Leadership

The girls chosen to attend Girl State are juniors nominated by the faculty, with final selection made by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Linda Sorensen is Madison High's choice for the DAR Award this year. The DAR candidate is chosen by the faculty and the senior class.

NHS Initiates New Members

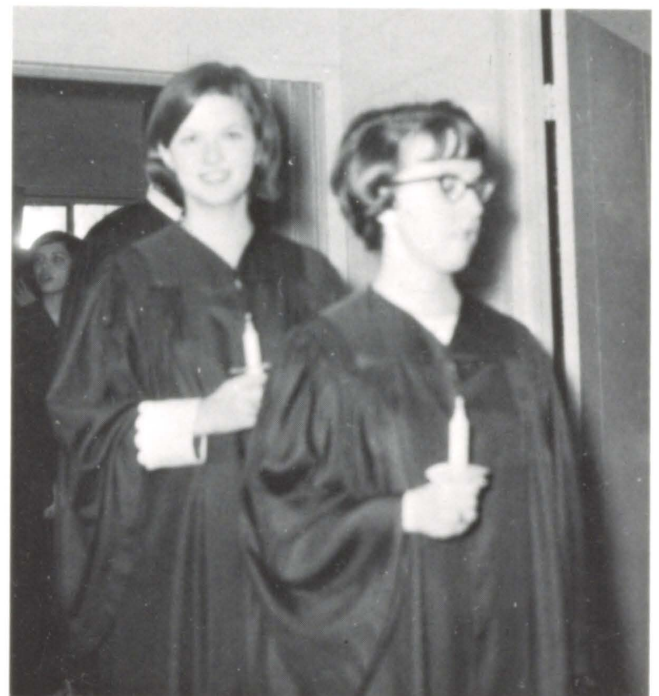

The members of the National Honor Society must rank in the upper per cent of their class scholastically. Their names are then placed on a ballot and voted on by the members of the faculty on the basis of honor, character, and leadership.

Mrs. Liddiard takes a breather from her task of organizing the initiation and banquet, so our photographer could snap her picture.

The proud parents of the new National Honors[®] Society members watch while their son or daughter is initiated into the National Honor Society.

Barb Brown and LaRita Bagley, two of the Seniors who are new members of the National Honor Society, are about to enter the banquet room.

Our Due Rewards

Peggy Galloway and Dick Ericsson received the Elks Leadership award.

Mr. James Blanchette, Post Commander of the American Legion, presented the American Legion Citizenship Award to Tricia Knox and Tom Thelen.

Kiwanis Freshman Scholarship Award: Kathy Klein; Student Council Sophomore Scholarship Award: Sue Amert; John Roling received the Student Council Junior Scholarship Award; the Florence Moose English Award was given to Ione Myrmoe; Mary Salem was given the Outstanding Speaker Award; the Mathematics Award was presented to Terry Wiese; Barb Williams was presented with the Rotary Scholarship Award.

Lina Crusan, Ken Johnson, and Ione Myrmoe received the Elks Scholarship Award.

At the same time he presented to the two band majorettes, Roxy Frager and Peg Galloway, a one hundred dollar check for their band trip to Washington, D.C.

Washington Or Bust!!

The Madison High School Band journeyed to Washington, D.C. in June. The group composed mostly of upperclassmen raised funds for the trip of thirteen days. In this photo the band performs between a baseball doubleheader in Baltimore.

Breathtaking views of Lincoln Memorial, Jefferson Memorial, and the Capitol can be seen from the top of Washington Monument. The band also visited Mt. Vernon, the Smithsonian Institute, White House, Arlington National Cemetery, and the F.B.I. Highlights of the trip included hearing the four military bands.

Sleeping was a favorite pastime while traveling.

Deep appreciation is owed to our director, Bill Ireland.

Each night brought the rush to bed.

Feriae Romanae

Rod Osterloh, Junior Class President, welcomed the Seniors to the Banquet.

Senior Class President Steve Saufley, gave the response.

Mr. Bentley takes a last minute look at his notes.

A toast by Mr. Cockle.

Roman Holiday

This scene helped to carry out the theme "Roman Holiday"

Mary Ann Doblar and Dennis Betz pose beside the fountain.

The 1967 Banquet and Prom was held May 6. The theme, "Roman Holiday", was carried out through the use of white Roman pillars, gold grapes, purple and gold streamers, and a sparkling fountain. A mural was used which depicted a Roman couple.

Music was provided by the "Chivons".

Many couples seemed enchanted by the music.

Fast numbers were still a favorite.

The Road Goodbye

Shalley O'Brien receives her diploma from Dr. Howard Wold. Prior to this, Milton Rich had given the graduation address and the top students in the Class of 1967 had been honored by Mr. Bentley.

The road I took was named Goodbye
The path looked strange. I wondered why
It left familiar things behind.
A hand caught mine . . . I paid no mind.

The stranger never once did say
Just what had brought him on my way.
On we went, and some afraid
I wished I hadn't come, but stayed.

All the friends that I once knew
Took a road named Goodbye too.
There were no two roads just the same
Though all were called Goodbye by name.

The road went on; we went on too,
And I was sad, for then I knew
That never could I be the same
Having walked down Goodbye Lane.

And though I couldn't understand
We walked together hand in hand.
We said no words, but just walked on,
I thought of things now past and gone.

I thought of games I'd lost and won,
I thought of all the things I'd done,
I thought of those I loved and cared,
Of times we'd had, of things we'd shared.

I thought of those I'd come to know.
Just knowing them—they'd helped me so.
I thought of things, of tears I'd shed . . .
Those same things now brought smiles instead.

The tasks I'd done, those left to do,
I wondered how I'd make it through
When something inside seems to say,
"The best you can from day to day."

The way was rough; I knew the score,
It never ends . . . there's always more.
But now I know that all in all
Each thing in its own place will fall.

I thought of all the happy days,
The sad ones now just seemed a haze,
And in a flash I came to see
How much the past had meant to me.

We walked along—I wondered where
The future led and what was there.
The past still echoed from behind
I was its, and it was mine.

But in my heart was still a fear,
And in my eye a shining tear;
Yet on my face there was a smile,
And we walked forward all the while.

I walked along the road, Goodbye.
I looked back once . . . I heaved a sigh.
Then I remembered at my side—
My silent, but my constant guide

The stranger's hand I felt in mine.
I looked into his face this time.
I asked his name—he turned just so,
He smiled and said, "I'm called Hello."

An increasing number of tennis players went out for the relatively new but exciting sport of Central. Being a new sport and different than any other we have had, our players brought home a surprising number of wins, showing that they may be new but not inexperienced. Tennis players compete against other ESD schools in both singles and doubles. Our team completed their season with three wins and three losses. We had three representatives at the state meet this year with Lonnie Ihler and Lenny Hockette in the doubles and Mike Sullivan in the singles, with Mike ending up in the semi-finals.

Jim Lohrman, with a steady hand, returns a serve.

Vacation Views

Peggy Olson's summer hours were spent behind the fountain at the Rexall store.

Bicycling is a good exercise and it is fun for everyone. This summer Laurel Hiaring and Scarlet stopped on a trip to the lake to say "Hello" to the photographer.

A typical day always includes a lot of loafing for these three boys.

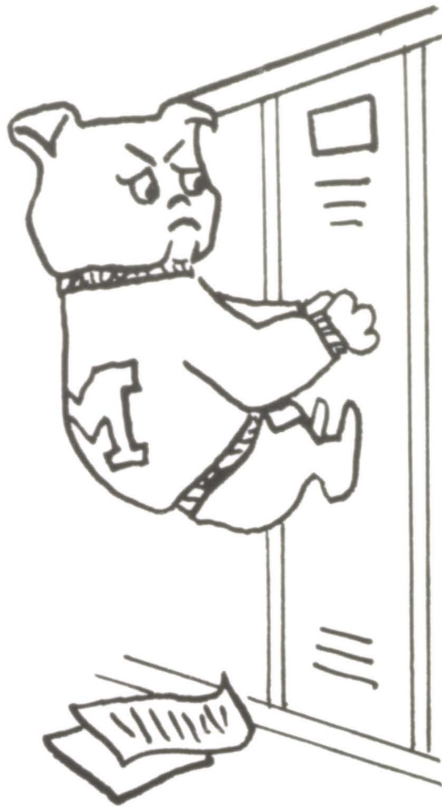

Brad Nielsen was one of several high school students to be employed at the swimming pool this summer.

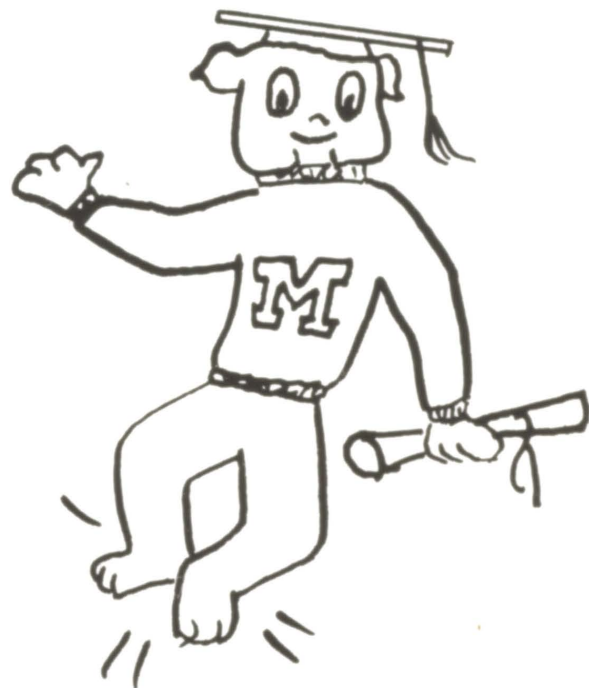

Janet and Judy take a break to rest and enjoy the summer.

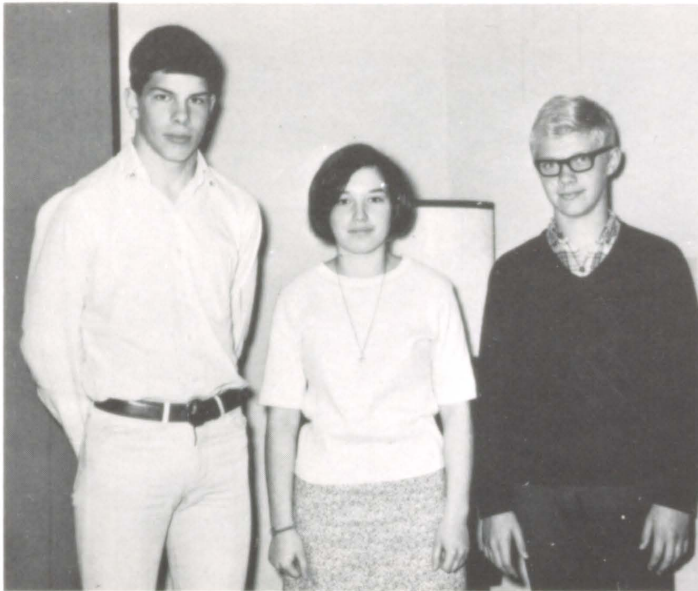

Summer is always a pleasant time of the year—at least to any student. It provides enough time to do just what you want, and this summer all the Central students seem to have done just that.

Fun, Future, Fulfillment

The Junior Class officers of 1966-67 are left to right: Beth Brown, Class Representative; for the student council; Rodney Osterloh, President; and Barbara Sterling, Vice President.

The Junior Class won distinction for the Class of '68 by winning top honors in the Follies, giving the Junior-Senior Prom for the Seniors, participating in the mock United Nations meeting for the School Fair, and helping with the graduation exercises.
