Secretaries Keep Things Moving

MRS. KRACKE

JANICE CHRISTENSEN

The secretaries really had a time this year trying to keep things running efficiently. With our blizzarding weather plus absentees, they must be commended for their patience in their trying work. Always smiling, these people make the stop into the principal's office just a little more enjoyable.

Hard at work

A black and white photograph of a stormy night sky. A bright lightning bolt strikes the clouds on the right side. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds. In the foreground, the dark silhouette of a tree is visible on the left side. The overall mood is dramatic and atmospheric.

Fall

A Final Acknowledgement

With the closing of the doors, the Class of '69 leaves Madison High School with memories that will come back to them in the future. It was the desire of the Interlakes Staff of 1968-69 to record to the best of its ability the events of the year.

With this past year being the most successful and the busiest, it was a demanding job. The production of a yearbook is dependent on many people and to these people we would like to express our gratitude and sincere appreciation.

Mr. Rex Reetz, of Reetz Studio, for his valuable assistance and beautiful photographs.

Madison Daily Leader for the use of their photographs.

Mr. Merlin Hiaring for the use of his photographs.

We would also like to extend an exclusive acknowledgement to our advisor, Mr. Richard Bortnem, for his aid in the production of the Interlakes 1969.

Finally, to the Interlakes Staff, a thank you that is proportional to the quality of the 1969 Interlakes.

Man's Struggle in the World of Competition

1968 Homecoming Was

After weeks of hard work and planning by the chairmen and their committees, the Homecoming activities began. The Homecoming king and queen were chosen from candidates nominated by the Senior class. Kelly Meehan and Paula Alfson were crowned king and queen at the coronation on Thursday night. Dick Casey was the Master of Ceremonies and Mr. Tom Felker provided a spirited pep speech. The cheerleaders led cheers to help keep the spirit riding high; while the lovely girls sextet added just the right musical touch.

Everyone watches as Homecoming bonfire burns brightly.

Queen Paula Alfson and King Kelly Meehan stand in the glow of the roaring fire.

One of the highlights of Homecoming was the raging bonfire usually prepared by the Freshman class. Not to be forgotten was the rollicking snake dance, spirit-rousing pep rally, and fiery speeches from our king and queen and coaches. Everyone went home early to prepare for the big day and dream sweet dreams of victory.

Chairmen for 1968 Homecoming were Sue Amert and Laurie Prostrullo.

The girls sextet of Linda Hansen, Linda McCain, Mary Collignon, Jane Maxwell, Jean Simmons, and Carol Fleissner provide melodies for the coronation.

One of the Best!

Deb Saufley carries the basket of victory through the woods made up of Dave Hanneman, Georgia Hegdahl, Jeff Heinemeyer, Gary Kessler, Chuck Downs, Kathy Sunde, Roger Krueger, and Linda McCaine.

Homecoming festivities continued with pep skits presented by each of the classes. The JUNIOR skit won first place honors in the play competition. Cheers and a jello-eating contest rounded out the pep assembly in preparation for the big game. The Homecoming game was played against the Huron Tigers. Madison's favorite phrase for weeks before and after was "We Eat Tiger Meat." The Bulldogs put up a valiant fight with two touchdowns scored by Jack Kinsella. Although bravely fought the score stood in favor of the Tigers. The game was later followed by a lovely dance put on by the Pep Club. Marlis Roe and the Talismen provided the music as Homecoming week drew to a close on a happy but exhausted note.

Cheerleader Nancy Meyer tries to promote spirit between skits.

A blaze of loyalty for the team which burns brightly in victory and is fanned but not extinguished by the winds of defeat.

Sports and Gabby

Gabby Weise, who for many years broadcasted our games over KJAM radio, finished his last year as sports-caster at Madison. Needless to say he played a definite and important part in our high school athletics. His enthusiastic spirit and devout loyalty has set an example not only for our athletes but also for our community. We regret that we can give only our thanks to a man deserving much more.

Flowering Talent Shown

Villainous Dale Ziebarth has Betty Smitt and Chuck Downs "uptight."

Follies festivities began Thursday, Nov. 14, with four student-directed, one act plays. Candidates for king and queen were chosen from each class. Money raised from ticket sales is used to finance the Interlakes annual. The king and queen are determined by the amount of tickets that each class sells. Best play, actors, and actresses are chosen and receive a copy of the Interlakes.

Barb Jensen and Gary Blaze display graceful talent.

Jane Maxwell takes the audience through the evening as Mistress of Ceremonies.

Laurie Scully questions Dick Casey about his marital status.

Throughout Follies

Hero Mike Turner bashes the criminal as loving admirers Betty Smit, Chuck Downs, and Linda McCain look on.

Lovely Jeff Schemmel tries to convince housewife Vicki Reichert to buy his books.

A writer, portrayed by Kelly Sullivan, was seeking a secretary in the Sophomore one-act comedy, "Take A Letter." Qualifications which were both desirable and necessary in his secretary made this play very enjoyable.

Kelly Sullivan watches attentively as Sue Tyc reads back his dictation.

"Eh," the skit chosen by the Junior class, portrayed a deaf man, (Don Johnson), who wished for his daughter, (JoLynn Norton), to marry a deaf man played by Mark David. A hobo, Dick Casey, adds much laughter as he tries to outwit them both by posing as a deaf man. In the end, the truth is brought out and to JoLynn's joy she is given the blessing of her father to marry Mark, her true love.

The Madison High School grid season ended last fall with Madison in possession on the Watertown 20 yd. line. Watertown had scored in the final two minutes to go ahead 21-20. Madison roared back in a desperate attempt to pull it out of the fire and score their only victory in the Eastern South Dakota Conference. They couldn't beat the clock, however, and finished the season with a painful 2-7 won lost record. "But the spirit of that last effort of '67 has carried over to this year," Coach Dean Koster said.

The '68 season found 18 returning lettermen which provided an experienced core for a team of 38. Koster's Bulldogs sweated through 3 a day workouts for a week in August before school. From the season opener to the season's final game, their spirit never faltered. The Bulldog's were rated throughout the year among the top teams in the state. Madison's capable coaches consisted of head coach Dean Koster, aided by assistant coaches Jon Walczyk and Tom Hamlin. Coach Koster was voted "Most Valuable Coach" of the Year.

Most of our accomplishments during this past year have taken place during the wintry month of December. Our most popular activity was spending time at the Bethel Lutheran Home, where we made sandwiches, sang Xmas carols and visited with the residents. Later on we had Mrs. Roberts, an RN advisor, speak to us about a 3 yr. program in nursing. Also a film entitled "Space for the Mentally Retarded" was presented to us. Each year we take a field trip, this yr. we had the opportunity of attending the Future Nurses Convention in Wessington Springs, April 25-26. Mrs. Richard Sweet is the advisor.

Winter

School Doors Close as Winter Blizzards Rage

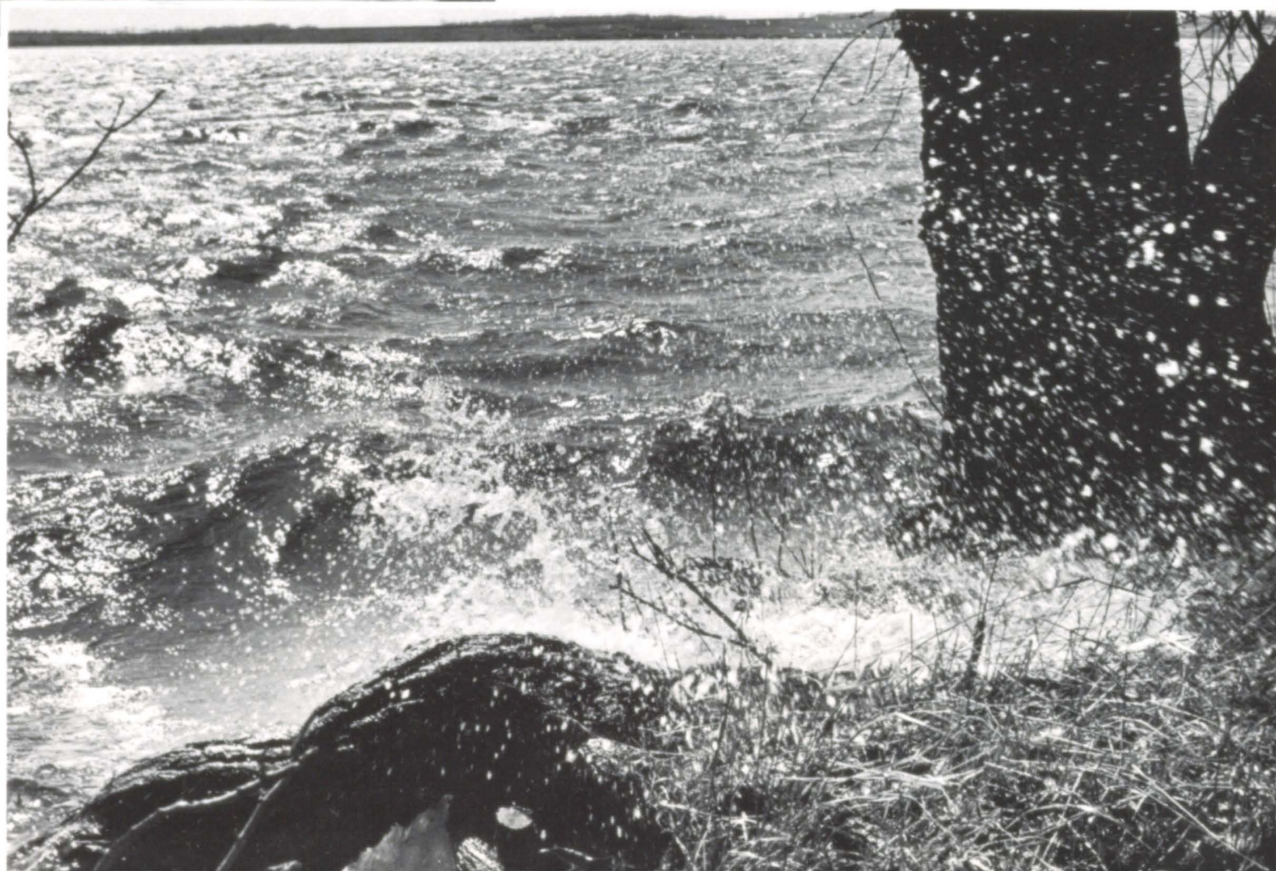

What students had hoped to be an exciting rest from the daily grind of school work turned out to be a boring period of waiting for the snowplow to come dig your road out.

Winter weary Madisonites were greeted with snow, snow, and still more snow as snowfall records were broken causing mere isolation for days. Sore-muscled snow shovelers went to their tasks while the weatherman kept promising another and another storm.

Absenteeism totaling 300-350 students caused school closing as the majority of the near 2,000 students, who were rural residents, were snowbound as snowdrifts changed shapes with the shifting winds. Easter vacation was wiped out with the exception of Good Friday. Saturday classes were held to catch up for lost days.

To everyone's surprise, spring finally came but with an added problem — as snow melted — floods occurred.

Bulldog Pep Boosters

The Pep Club was organized in 1966. The original purpose was to sponsor pep buses for out of town games. The project was well worth while. The club was active in the cheering section of wrestling matches, basketball and football games. The Pep Club provided for a trophy display to be set up in the library to display the various awards of the individual sports. The club is not only interested in athletics but also in every aspect of extracurricular and academic activity. It's main goal is to promote a strong feeling of school spirit among all MHS students. The club has possibilities of serving a real purpose and adding much to our school.

Working along with the Pep Club, the cheerleaders also put forth much effort to fire up the spectators at the sport events.

Captain
GEORGIA HEGDAHL

The football and basketball games will always be remembered as events full of excitement and enthusiasm. But who created that excitement and enthusiasm which seemed not quite so prevalent in the other sports contests? The cheerleaders created it with the help of the Pep Club and other enthusiastic Bulldog fans!

These cheerleaders led the student body during football and basketball assemblies. The girls took real pride in their jobs and did their very best to stimulate the fans into cheering for the home team. The cheerleaders purpose is to create school spirit, loyalty, interest, and sportsmanship in school sponsored activities. Although being a cheerleader often requires staying after school two to three days a week as well as summer practices, it is well worth the effort when all the students yell and the Bulldogs team goes on to victory.

Go Get 'Um

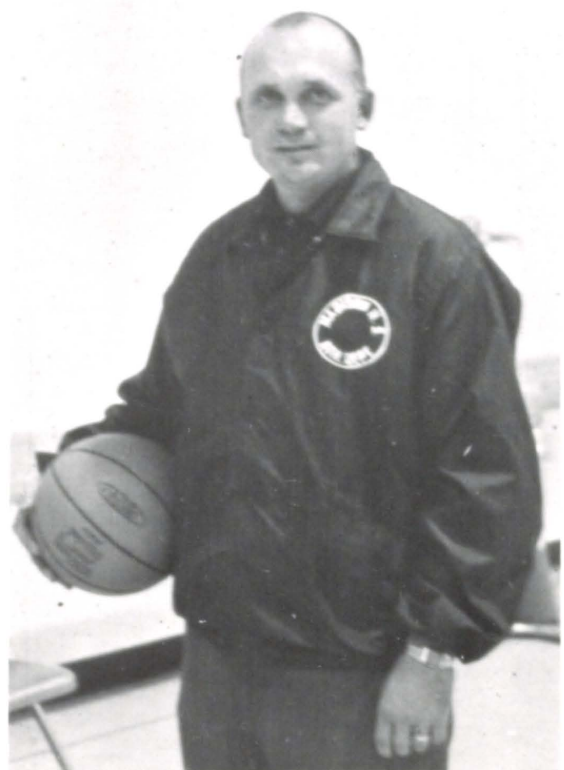

Co-captain Gary Keever does his own thing.

A temendous rebound by Dennis!

Another grab by the mighty Bulldogs.

Madison High's beloved Coach Cordts ends his basketball career with a fine record and numerous admirers.

Bullogs!

Five lettermen headed the list of returnees for Coach Cordts' cagers as the MHS Bulldogs began their basketball season. The lettermen, Bill Meehan, Ted Beach, Jack Kinsella, Jeff Page, and Dan Bruns, were the definite nucleus of the team. Junior giants, Gary Blase, Craig Wilbur, Den Mette, and Rog Jensen, were, as in Coach Cordts' words, "a foursome who holds the key to the Bulldogs success and notes."

The Bulldog season, which got off on the wrong foot, turned out to be one season of finger-biting thrillers. Even though we did have our ups and downs when we wanted to be tough, we were tough. This was proved when Madison won 73-71 over Aberdeen in a double over-time. Although we won by only one basket we out rebounded and shot a 58% advantage over the Eagles.

Senior sharpshooter, Bill Meehan, was the sparkplug of our season performance. Bill, who not only was named Best Athlete at MHS for the basketball season also earned a guard position on the All-State Basketball team. He led the state high school record in freethrows and total points made for the 68-69 season. One example of his worthiness for his honors was his unbelievable desperation shot from 25 ft. out with two seconds left on the clock to give MHS a 77-76 win over Pipestone.

Fourth quarter pressure mounts . . . the score is tied . . . only seconds to go . . . time out . . . "Let's go mighty Bulldogs" . . . the ball's in play . . . a pass under the basket . . . shoot, shoot . . . It's GOOD! . . . the horn . . . we win!

Bulldogs showed strength as a team unit against Flandreau in what could have been a close game but turned out to be a 71-52 uprising. This game, which no one believed could be topped, gave the cagers pride as they mutilated the Flandreau squad, who defeated our boys last year. An example of finger-biting thrillers was shown when the Golden Eagles of Aberdeen came out on top against Madison with a narrow 51-50. The two teams played see-saw until the final period when Madison fell behind 48-43. With some hard playing and deadeye shooting MHS gained points until the clock ran out. It looked like the end for the Bulldogs when the score showed 51-49 but the referees called a foul on Aberdeen and gave Jack Kinsella two shots. Kinsella misjudged the first one but snagged the second, unimportant final shot which left a final score of 51-50.

The Bulldogs earned a spot in District tourney finale with a hard-fought 77-71 win over the Flandreau Indians but a cold third quarter cost the cagers the loss to the highly regarded Brookings Bobcats, who became the 69 Champs. Thus ended the 68-69 basketball season for our boys. It is true to say that they played their best — win or lose.

MUSICAL SKY HIGH: The swinging musical "Sky High" was presented to the public on March 7th and 8th. The play was about the first skyscraper built in New York and about all the problems it presented. Jane Maxwell playing Merrilee Sommers and Dale Ziebarth playing Bob Winters, gave brilliant musical performances. Other leading characters were Linda Hansen as Roberta Moses, John Greene as Franklin Russle, and Bob Haggeman, Roger Jensen, Vernon Caulk, and Carol Fleissner played the agreeable mayor's committee. Various members of the concert choir played unison parts of people in the streets. Janet Hunter provided excellent piano accompaniment along with well-timed music from the stage band. Mr. Ted Hollan directed the entire musical as well as the stage band.

Wrestling Requires Energy, Enthusiasm, and Effort

The Madison High Wrestling team under the steady supervision of Coach Jon Walczyk and assistant Tom Hamlin covered a lot of mats this year. A victorious season opener led the way for a highly successful season when Madison defeated Flandreau 34-15.

The Bulldog team placed second in the Mitchell Tourney with Gayle Blanchette, Mike Turner, Greg Jung, Gary Kessler, Paul Sterling, and Kelly Meehan claiming championship titles and Rick Alfson, Gale Kasch, and Chuck Downs placing second. Gale Kasch was awarded the trophy for the quickest pin (32 sec.) and Kelly Meehan was awarded the most valuable wrestler trophy.

An outstanding match of the season occurred when Madison defeated Lennox by a score of 38-16, secured seven pins and claimed eight of the eleven takedowns during that meet.

The grapplers had a rewarding experience during District competition. Six Bulldogs took first and were named District Champs. The boys showed strength in numbers in the Regional meet held in Miller. Eight of the ten varsity wrestlers finished among the top four in each weight division. Gale Blanchette and Alan Crane took first in their weight classes. Madison placed second in team standings. With much potential and great team spirit, the grapplers faced the final highlight of the season – the State A Tournament. Gayle Blanchette was the only Bulldog to place in the State meet. The Bulldogs ended a good season with a total of 157 wins.

Matmen and Walczyk

The end of wrestling season also marked the end of Jon Walczyk's four year career as head wrestling coach at Madison. Having gained experience by wrestling throughout his high school and college years Mr. Walczyk was best qualified to fill the position as coach when the program began here in 1965. Mr. Walczyk will remain on the teaching staff instructing the Spanish and French classes. He will also be assistant football coach and is sure to be a spectator at the future wrestling matches. Mr. Walczyk's positive attitude toward winning has helped arouse school spirit throughout the year.

The "B" Wrestling team did pretty well this year. They gained a great deal of experience and know-how from their coaches Walczyk and Hamlin and also through competing with different schools. With this knowledge they are sure to do well next year. Jerry Richardson was selected as most improved wrestler of the season.

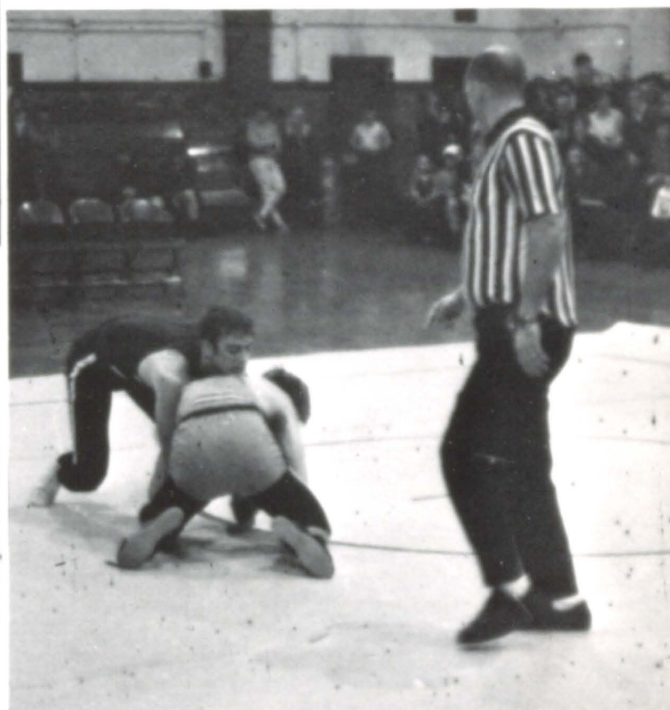

Known by their smiles the Wrestling Cheerleaders were seen promoting spirit throughout the Wrestling season. With plenty of pep and enthusiasm these girls urged the cheering section on and certainly had a part in our boys' successful season.

Maroon Staff Prints News

REGULAR MAROON STAFF MEMBERS

Having no formal journalism class this year, it has been difficult to find time to present the fundamentals of journalism techniques associated with the writing of articles for, and the publication of, the official Madison High School newspaper, The Maroon. Staff members, both experienced and inexperienced, have been quite receptive to suggestions and criticism at the regular weekly meetings.

A new innovation has been the change to a magazine style paper beginning with the April issue of this year. Continuance of this kind of a publication will depend on the acceptance of readers and the desires of the staff.

Linda Meehan, editor, has worked tirelessly to get all issues out by the deadline. Her experiences as a Girls' Stater journalist at Journalism City, summer 1968, has helped her put out a fine publication. The following staff members assisted Linda:

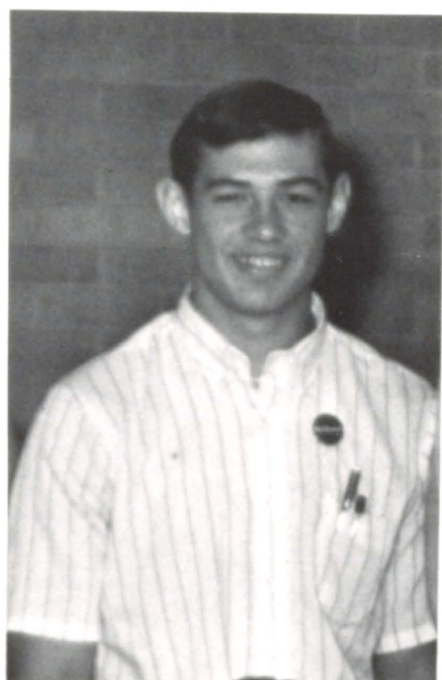

Photographers Dan Crippen, Lynn Severson
Cartoonists Jack Kinsella, Dale Mette
Sports Bill Meehan, Dan Crippen
Reporters Stephanie Siedschlaw, Lynn Severson,
 Jody Schnee, Sherrie Dirkson, Theresa Skaff, Linda Nelson, Mary
 Green, Nancy Sullivan, and Susan Ritscher.

TED WEILAND – Student Body President
1968-1969.

This year's Student Council, headed by Student Body President Ted Wieland, strove to bring closer communication between faculty and student body. They met regularly and discussed student opinions, interests, and desires. One successful achievement was sponsoring the Sadie Hawkins dance. The dance was by far the best hillbilly affair our school has ever had. Holding Wing Ding Week prior to the dance put everyone in a festive mood. Proceeds from the dance were donated to the March of Dimes. Other topics of interest the Council passed were exemption of seniors from finals and blue jeans considered as appropriate dress for school days. The Council was advised by Mr. Campbell and Mr. Reitzel. Officers for the year were Pres. – Ted Wieland, Vice-Pres. – Tess Skaff, Sec. – Gerry Draper, Treas. – Charlie Schultz, and Parliamentarian – Vern Caulk.

The Madison Chapter of the Future Farmers of America is one of the most active chapters in the state. Membership is open to boys in the Vocational Agriculture Department. The FFA participated in a great range of activities. These activities helped members gain knowledge of the expanding career of agriculture. The purpose of the FFA is to develop leadership and stimulate interest in Agriculture. To raise money the boys sold fruit, rat bait, electric fence insulators, zip code books, and sponsored a dance.

Participation is the word used to describe our FFA. At the State FFA Convention the Madison Chapter won the Pheasants Unlimited Award for their help in saving the pheasants during this year's blizzards. In the Funks 304 BU Challenge, Mr. Murphy, Larry Meehan, Dan Cole, and Dave Wingle went to Sioux Falls to receive a trophy after we had placed second in that contest.

Leadership was developed when we received an over-all rating of second at the State Judging Contest. Dan Cole, Dave Wingle, and Dave Roling won first, which enables them to represent South Dakota in the National Contest next fall in Kansas City. Other State awards went to the Farm Mechanics Team of Greg Pulford and Dick Galloway, who placed fifth, the Dairy products team of Orlynn Rienicke, Dennis DeBoer, and Ron Nelson who also placed fifth. In the Livestock Showmanship division Dennis Barrick received an honorable mention and Jeff Lechner received a superior. In the Stateland Judging Contest Robert Vanhove placed third and earned a place on the State team. He judged at the National Contest at Oklahoma City. He placed in the top twenty in a field of 264 contestants. Ron Nelson placed second in the District Public Speaking Contest and later went on to the State level.

Having completed such a successful year, our boys are eagerly looking forward to next year for a repeat performance. Officers for the 68-69 schoolyear are Pres. – Dave Roling, Vice-Pres. – Dan Cole, Secretary – Ron Nelson, Treasurer – Mike Downs, Reporter – Dave Wingle, Parliamentarian – Dennis DeBoer, and Sentinel – Dan Bruns.

Sweetheart Ball

This year's Sweetheart Ball was a heavenly affair. Besides the lovely pink and red decorations of Cupids Paradise, a charming royalty court presided. 1969 Sweetheart Queen Georgia Hegdahl and her escort Ken Larson reigned over the dance. Other members of the royal court were last year's queen Debbie Pearson and her escort Gary Randall and three princesses with their escorts: Laurie Lauck and Mark David, Janet Eich and Loren Struble, and Karen Langner and Alan Crane. Pandora's Box provided grooving tones to make it an enjoyable evening and a great success for the FHA girls who made it possible.

Gymnastics

This year a gymnastics club was organized at MHS. There were approximately twenty-five members in the club. They performed at halftime of a basketball game and at the Regional Tournament. The club not only provides a fun pastime for girls, but also promotes physical fitness. Next year in gymnastics we'll hope to see some new faces!

Debaters Pro It Up

1968-1969 was a great year for the MHS Debate squad, with both varsity and beginner's squads compiling 57% win-loss records. The highlight of the varsity's season was the district debate championship, when Al Tabor, Ben Longwill, Dan Crippen, and Rog Renner qualified for the State Debate competition. Gretchen Wollman and Ben Longwill qualified for the State Extemporaneous Speaking Contest. On the state level, Ben Longwill won third place.

The beginner's started the year's winning streak by securing the first trophy of this year at Sioux City, Iowa. The beginners also took first place honors at two conference meets and placed third in the B-Debate at the Karl E. Mundt Tournament. The end of this season saw two of the beginners 4-man teams tied for first place honors at a junior varsity tournament.

The debate banquet was held April 22. At that banquet, Coach Kathy Lewis placed the squads' mascot, a large green rat, in the keeping of the MHS Debate squad, hoping that it would bring them another great season.

Newly Initiated Members

Membership in the National Honor Society is based on character, scholarship, leadership, and service. To qualify for NHS one must have maintained a 3.4 grade or better for three consecutive semesters.

The highlight of the club's activities is the Initiation Banquet during which new members are accepted into the organization. Being a non-profit organization, the NHS members strive to improve themselves and others in the fields of scholarship, leadership, and service. Mrs. Liddiard is the advisor. Officers for the 68-69 school year are as follows:

President Charlie Shultz
Vice-President Roger Renner
Secretary Theresa Skaff

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization correlated with the Home Economics. Members must have one semester of Home Ec. to be a member.

The purposes of FHA are:

- To promote a growing appreciation for the joys and satisfactions of homemaking
- To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership
- To encourage democracy in home and community life
- To work for good home and family life for all
- To promote international good will
- To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life
- To provide wholesome individual and group recreation
- To further interest in Home Economics

1969 Class Favorites

Jack Kinsella
Susie Carr

The seniors marked the first graduating class to select favorites. Undoubtfully, they selected two students who are truly class favorites. This year Susie Carr was GAA president and a Homecoming candidate. Jack Kinsella was also a Homecoming candidate and participated in football and basketball.

Tom Dockendorf and Nancy Meyer represented the junior class favorites. Being selected as Follies candidates and becoming Follies Royalty were just a start for this couple. Sure to go far together, Nancy has participated in GAA, cheerleading and is the Interlakes editor while Tom belongs to National Honor Society and has taken part in football, basketball and track.

The Sophomore class couldn't have done a better job when they picked Deb Faehn and Don Larson as the '69 Sophomore Favorites. Always smiling, this couple is known for their warm personalities and friendliness. Deb participated in GAA, and was a Bullpup cheerleader while Don took part in football, basketball, and track. These two have certainly helped make the sophomore class powerful.

Track and Field Men Meet

Madison High's track team this year consisted of a power house of hard working, fast moving boys. Records fell and M.H.S. pride rose at every meet. We not only had terrific relay teams but individual events also ran high.

Madison's school records were broken in the 440 yard relay, 880 yard relay, two mile relay, broad jump, 880 yard run and the 440 yard dash.

We praise our track team for their efforts, great endeavors, and the many trophies they presented to Madison High School.

MHS Thespians Produce

Dick Casey, as Jonathan Brewster, is discovered as a wanted criminal by Officers Klein, Brophy, and Lieutenant Rooney as he tried to hide dead bodies in the Brewsters cedar chest.

This year the amateur thespians of Madison High produced the classic comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph Kesselring. This delightful play about two Brewster sisters and their surprising exploits has charmed audiences for over a quarter of a century and never seems to lose its appeal. The production, which was presented May 19 and 20, was directed by Mr. Dockendorf. The madcap events of insanity running through the family kept everyone laughing throughout the play.

Boys and Girls Staters

Each year the American Legion and cooperating individuals in Madison make it possible for six boys who rank in the upper one-third of the Junior class, to attend South Dakota Boys State Conference. Candidates are selected by the faculty on a basis of leadership as well as scholarship. To be selected as a candidate for Boys State a boy must have exhibited evidence of leadership in his school and community affairs. This year Boys State was held in Aberdeen.

South Dakota Girls State is an effort on the part of the American Legion Auxiliary to bring to the girls a knowledge of the fundamentals of American government through actual practice and control. During a week of extensive training in citizenship and government, young women learn that they have a responsibility in preserving the integrity of our nation, and that the future of America depends on the youth carrying forth the principals of government. Candidates for Girls State are selected by the members of the Madison American Legion Auxiliary on the basis of scholarship and leadership.

Girls State candidates Janet Hunter, Kathy Klien, and Deb Foley and alternates JoLynn Norton, Janet Eich, and Jean Turley.

Our Most Valuable Sportsmen

The four outstanding athletes honored in the sports of football, basketball, wrestling, and track were by far a great asset to making MHS a known power. They were selected by the boys who participated in the four sports.

Truly these athletes did uphold the fine sportsmanship, hustle, and desire which is symbolic of Madison's Maroon and White.

The letterman club is made up of all boys receiving varsity letters for their participation in a sport. All letters awarded at the varsity level are considered "major" letters and as each boy is eligible to receive a letter he is automatically accepted into the club.

The functions of the club during the year are:

1. Sponsoring a Grade School basketball festival.
2. Sponsoring a Grade School basketball tournament.
3. Sponsoring a class B Wrestling tournament.
4. Sponsoring two Socials.

The club officers are:

School On Saturday?

Fantasy of Fun at the Prom

Couples in their best find happiness in a seaworthy atmosphere.

DuBray provided a mixture of orchestral and pop music for an enjoyable evening at the prom.

People on the Way Up

Class of '69 Selects

THERESA SKAFF
Most Intellectual

Homework to some, seems like endless hours of just plain work, but to Tess Skaff and Charlie Schultz, it came naturally. Years of working hard and doing their best resulted in honors and awards for above the average student. So it seems natural that the seniors voted Charlie the Most Likely to Succeed and Theresa the Most Intellectual.

CHARLIE SCHULTZ
Most Likely to Succeed

SUE AMERT
Friendliest

Personality is sometimes believed to be something someone is born with. Some also believe the personality is a reward for many hours of hard work. Georgia Hegdahl seems to have proved both these statements. During the past year, Georgia was voted head cheerleader and Sweetheart Queen. With Georgia's outgoing personality and general friendliness toward all, she is undoubtedly, Most Popular.

GEORGIA HEGDAHL
Most Popular

MIKE SULLIVAN
Best Dancer

Known by everyone for her outgoing personality and charm, it was not surprising when the poll showed Sue Amert had been voted Friendliest of the Senior Class. Sue was not only friendly with the seniors but also with the entire student body.

Music conscious Mike Sullivan enjoys today's pop music and latest dances. At all the socials and big dances he is seen groovin it on the dance floor and he has become quite an expert according to the seniors who voted him Best Dancer in '69.

Outstanding Seniors

KELLY MEEHAN

Kelly Meehan and Paula Alfson were selected as Mr. and Miss Senior. Both seniors were an asset to their class and to our school. An outstanding couple, they were chosen as Homecoming Royalty and helped the seniors prove their power. Paula participated in GAA and Interlakes Staff while Kelly won letters in football and Wrestling.

PAULA ALFSON

Without humor the world would be pretty dull and this is especially true in the classroom. Two typical humorists are Deb Saufley and Gary Kessler. They and other seniors with a sense of humor can always be counted on to make the dullest class come alive, sometimes to the dismay of the teacher.

JERILYN CHALCRAFT

There was certainly no doubt in the minds of the seniors as to who should be selected Most Attractive Senior and Most Handsome Senior. Jerilyn Chalcraft and Allan Crane topped the poll and as can be seen the senior class knew who they were voting for.

Moment of Anticipation

It's all over!

Nancy Josephson and her Father have a double graduation day. Nancy from High School and her father from College.

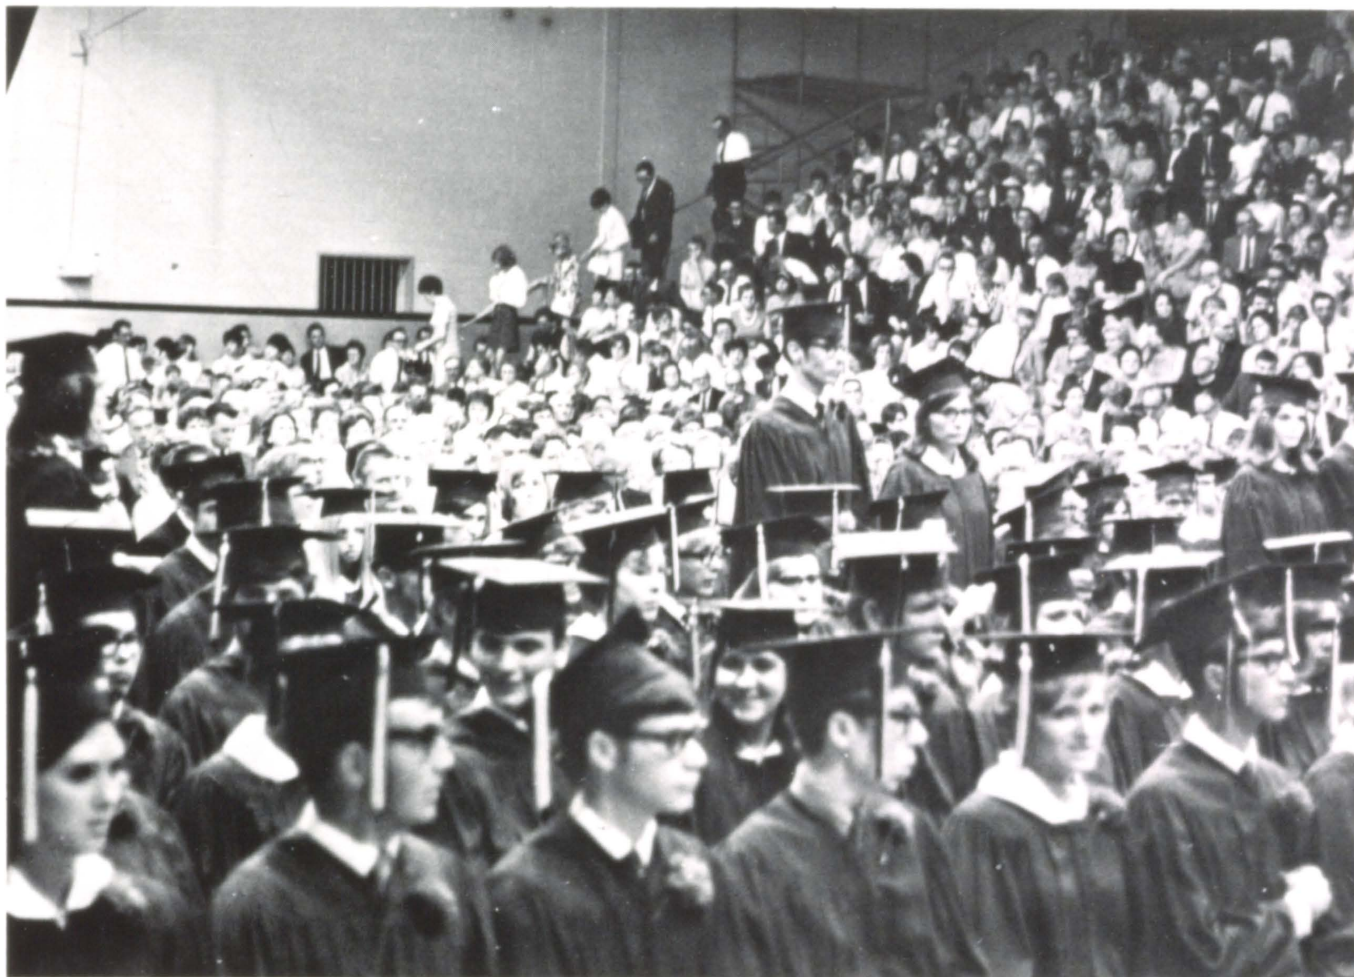

The first formal event to mark the graduation of the Class of 1969 was Baccalaureate Services which were held on May 25. A solemn occasion, the Concert Choir, directed by Mr. Ted Hollan, sang three appropriate numbers, "Prayer of St. Francis," "The Road Not Taken" and a "Choral Benediction." Rev. Vangerud of Trinity Lutheran Church gave the Invocation and Benediction while Rev. Zimmerman of the United Methodist Church gave the sermon.

Juniors Kevin Karlson and Geraldine Draper lead the Seniors at Baccalaureate Services.

Aware of Things to Come

Capacity crowd fills Armory to watch Class of 1969 take final steps.

Commencement Exercises marked the beginning of the end for 143 seniors. The Concert Choir sang "Climb Every Mountain" which was the theme used by guest speaker Dr. J. Howard Kramer in his presentation "To Climb a Mountain." The senior girls sextet sang the traditional numbers "Graduation Day" and "Loyalty." Chairman of the Board of Education, Dr. Howard R. Wold presented the diplomas and Principal Glen Wilbur gave awards to the Honor Students. The M.H.S. band directed by Virgil French conducted the processional led by Senior escorts Tom Dockendorf and Nancy Meyer.

Recognition should also be given to Jean Turley, Janet Eich, Cheryl Kinsey, and Heidi Schemmel for their help in handing out programs.

Jeff Page, Craig Wilbur, Dan Crippen, Paul Sterling, Dennis Mette, and Ron Nelson served as ushers.

The wonder of it all.

Dedication to the Youth

Despite today's riots, killings, and wars, there are youth who stand their ground and try not to let the entire nation be taken over by such unrestfulness. Although the hippies, yippies, and draft card burners make the news each day, there is not enough said of the young adults who excel in other fields such as math, science, the arts, music, or athletics. Not enough is mentioned of the youth who defy riots and hippies as a way of life, listen to their parents when they give criticism or praise. They set their goals to such heights as lawyers, doctors, or mechanical engineers. The youth who take interest in government before they are old enough to vote, are the youth who have interest in America and will do anything in their power to preserve its peace and democracy. That is why they believe in education, and religion, and do not shun responsibilities or work.

We dedicate this Interlakes to those youth who believe in these things, in the republic as a way of life, who do not take one nation under God for granted and will strive to preserve liberty and justice for all.

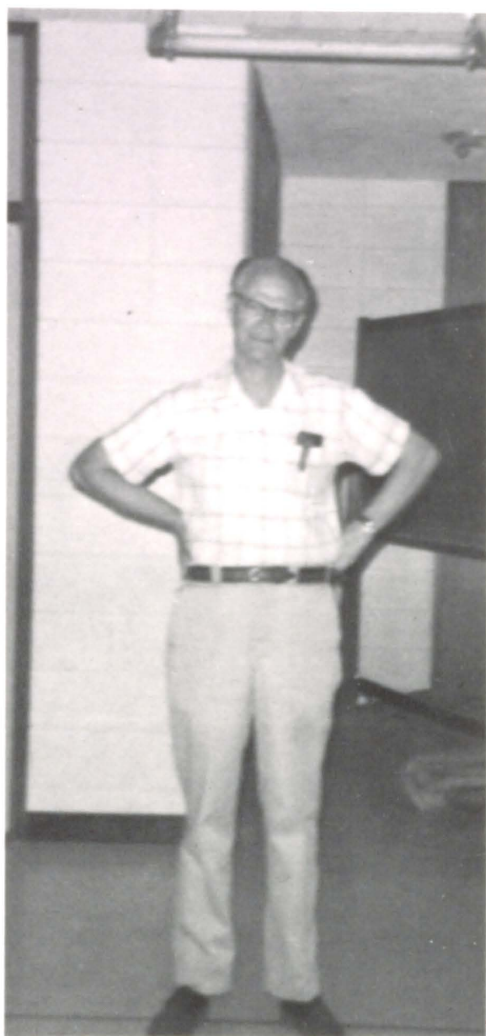

Annual Staff Reviews Year

This year's Interlakes Staff was so busy meeting the deadlines that they didn't take time for a group picture. Instead, they felt that they would devote more time to making this Interlakes the best ever.

Another Smiling Face Departs

Hubert Holter, or better known as Pinkie, is leaving MHS to be in charge of the custodial department at Washington Grade School. Although Pinkie has been with the high school dept. for only four years, his helpfulness and friendliness will always remain a pleasant memory in the hearts of all who know him.

Everyone who has ever spent a day at Madison High during the athletic season has heard of Big Bertha. Bertha, the name given to the bus used to transport teams to athletic meets, is by far an All-School Favorite.
