Property of _____

This Interlakes is gratefully dedicated to Lewis V. Bogue.

He commands our respect, both from the standpoint of urging students to recognize their potential and strive to achieve the best scholastically through self discipline and effort, and from the standpoint of every day conduct in general.

We have become very conscious of the fact that there is no substitute for a challenging and mentally stimulating classroom from which the student emerges a better person.

The 1972 Homecoming Festivities began Thursday, September 15, with coronation. After a pep talk from Mr. Erickson, Queen, Karen Stanford, and King, Mike Sullivan, began their duties by leading the student body to the bonfire and snakedance. The school spirit rose with a pep rally held by the varsity cheerleaders with different organizations presenting skits. The Honor Band led the students to a competitive tug-of-war, and then to the football game. The festivities ended with the Homecoming Dance Friday night with "Gus" playing from 8:30 to 12:00. All in all, Homecoming was a big success.

Bulldogs--The Deadliest Animals

Football is a game of skill, power, and teamwork. The Madison Bulldogs, with the help of their coaches, have displayed these qualities this past year. In order to learn the skill, power, and teamwork, the Bulldogs had to dedicate themselves to the game. The boys could be seen practicing and working hard in the hot summer, before and after school. Is this DEDICATION? We all know it is.

After a hard lose at homecoming, Bulldog enthusiasm overpowered with a victory over both of the ESD powers-Yankton and Mitchell. Again teamwork of the six man defense filled the holes while offense went to work, too. As the season continued, the Bulldogs improved with it, and our Cinderella team rated tenth in the state. Top honors were given by the Sioux Falls Argus Leader to four of the boys. Ed Keever, selected most valuable player by his teammates, was elected to All-State Linebacker. Steve Robson, Bob Muth, and Randy Faehn were each given honorable mention as offensive tackle, defensive tackle, and offensive split end, respectively.

As we look over the season, we find that the Bulldogs may have started off in a follie, but we sure ended off in a BANG!!

The Freshmen Bullpups also had a victorious season this year. They won four out of their six games. Watertown 14-0, Brookings 6-0, Dell Rapids 26-6, Howard 30-14, Huron 0-12, and Mitchell 16-24. The Bullpups consisted of 35 boys this year- the most in 7 years. Although the Bullpups were small this year, they made up for every inch in determination and hustle.

"Now go out and do it right this time."

"Here we go."

"I don't think I'm going to make it."

"Ah, I missed it."

"Button, Button, who's got the button?"

Sherrie Newcomb, Madison's mascot, helped cheer the bulldogs to victory.

CROSS COUNTRY

Front row from left-Jeffrey Hermann, Reynold Meyer, Jeff Blanchette, Rick Boer, Bill Stone, Chuck Johnson, Lauren Boer, Bill VanDeest, and Marty Warns. Back row from left-Coach Bob Miller, Mike Rensch, Bruce Ramm, Scott Weber, Bruce Keppen, Bob VanDeest, Larry Beesley, Mark VanKat, Bob Halverson, Tony Bauman, Les Bulick, and manager Monty Friedow.

Coach Bob Miller and his cross country team ended a successful season with ESD Champion Larry Beesley and Jeff Hermann placing second in the State. The Madison striders have increased in size and strength from previous years and seem to keep growing. Of the nineteen boys on the team this year Miller will lose only two seniors, Jeff Hermann and Mark VanKat, for next year's running.

Seniors receiving the Elk's Trophy.

"Maybe when you're older."

Follies Candidates

The 1972-73 Follies were presented November 16 and 17 to finance the year-book. Each class presented a one-act play. This year the Elk's traveling trophy went to the Seniors for their play, "Hercules Night Out."

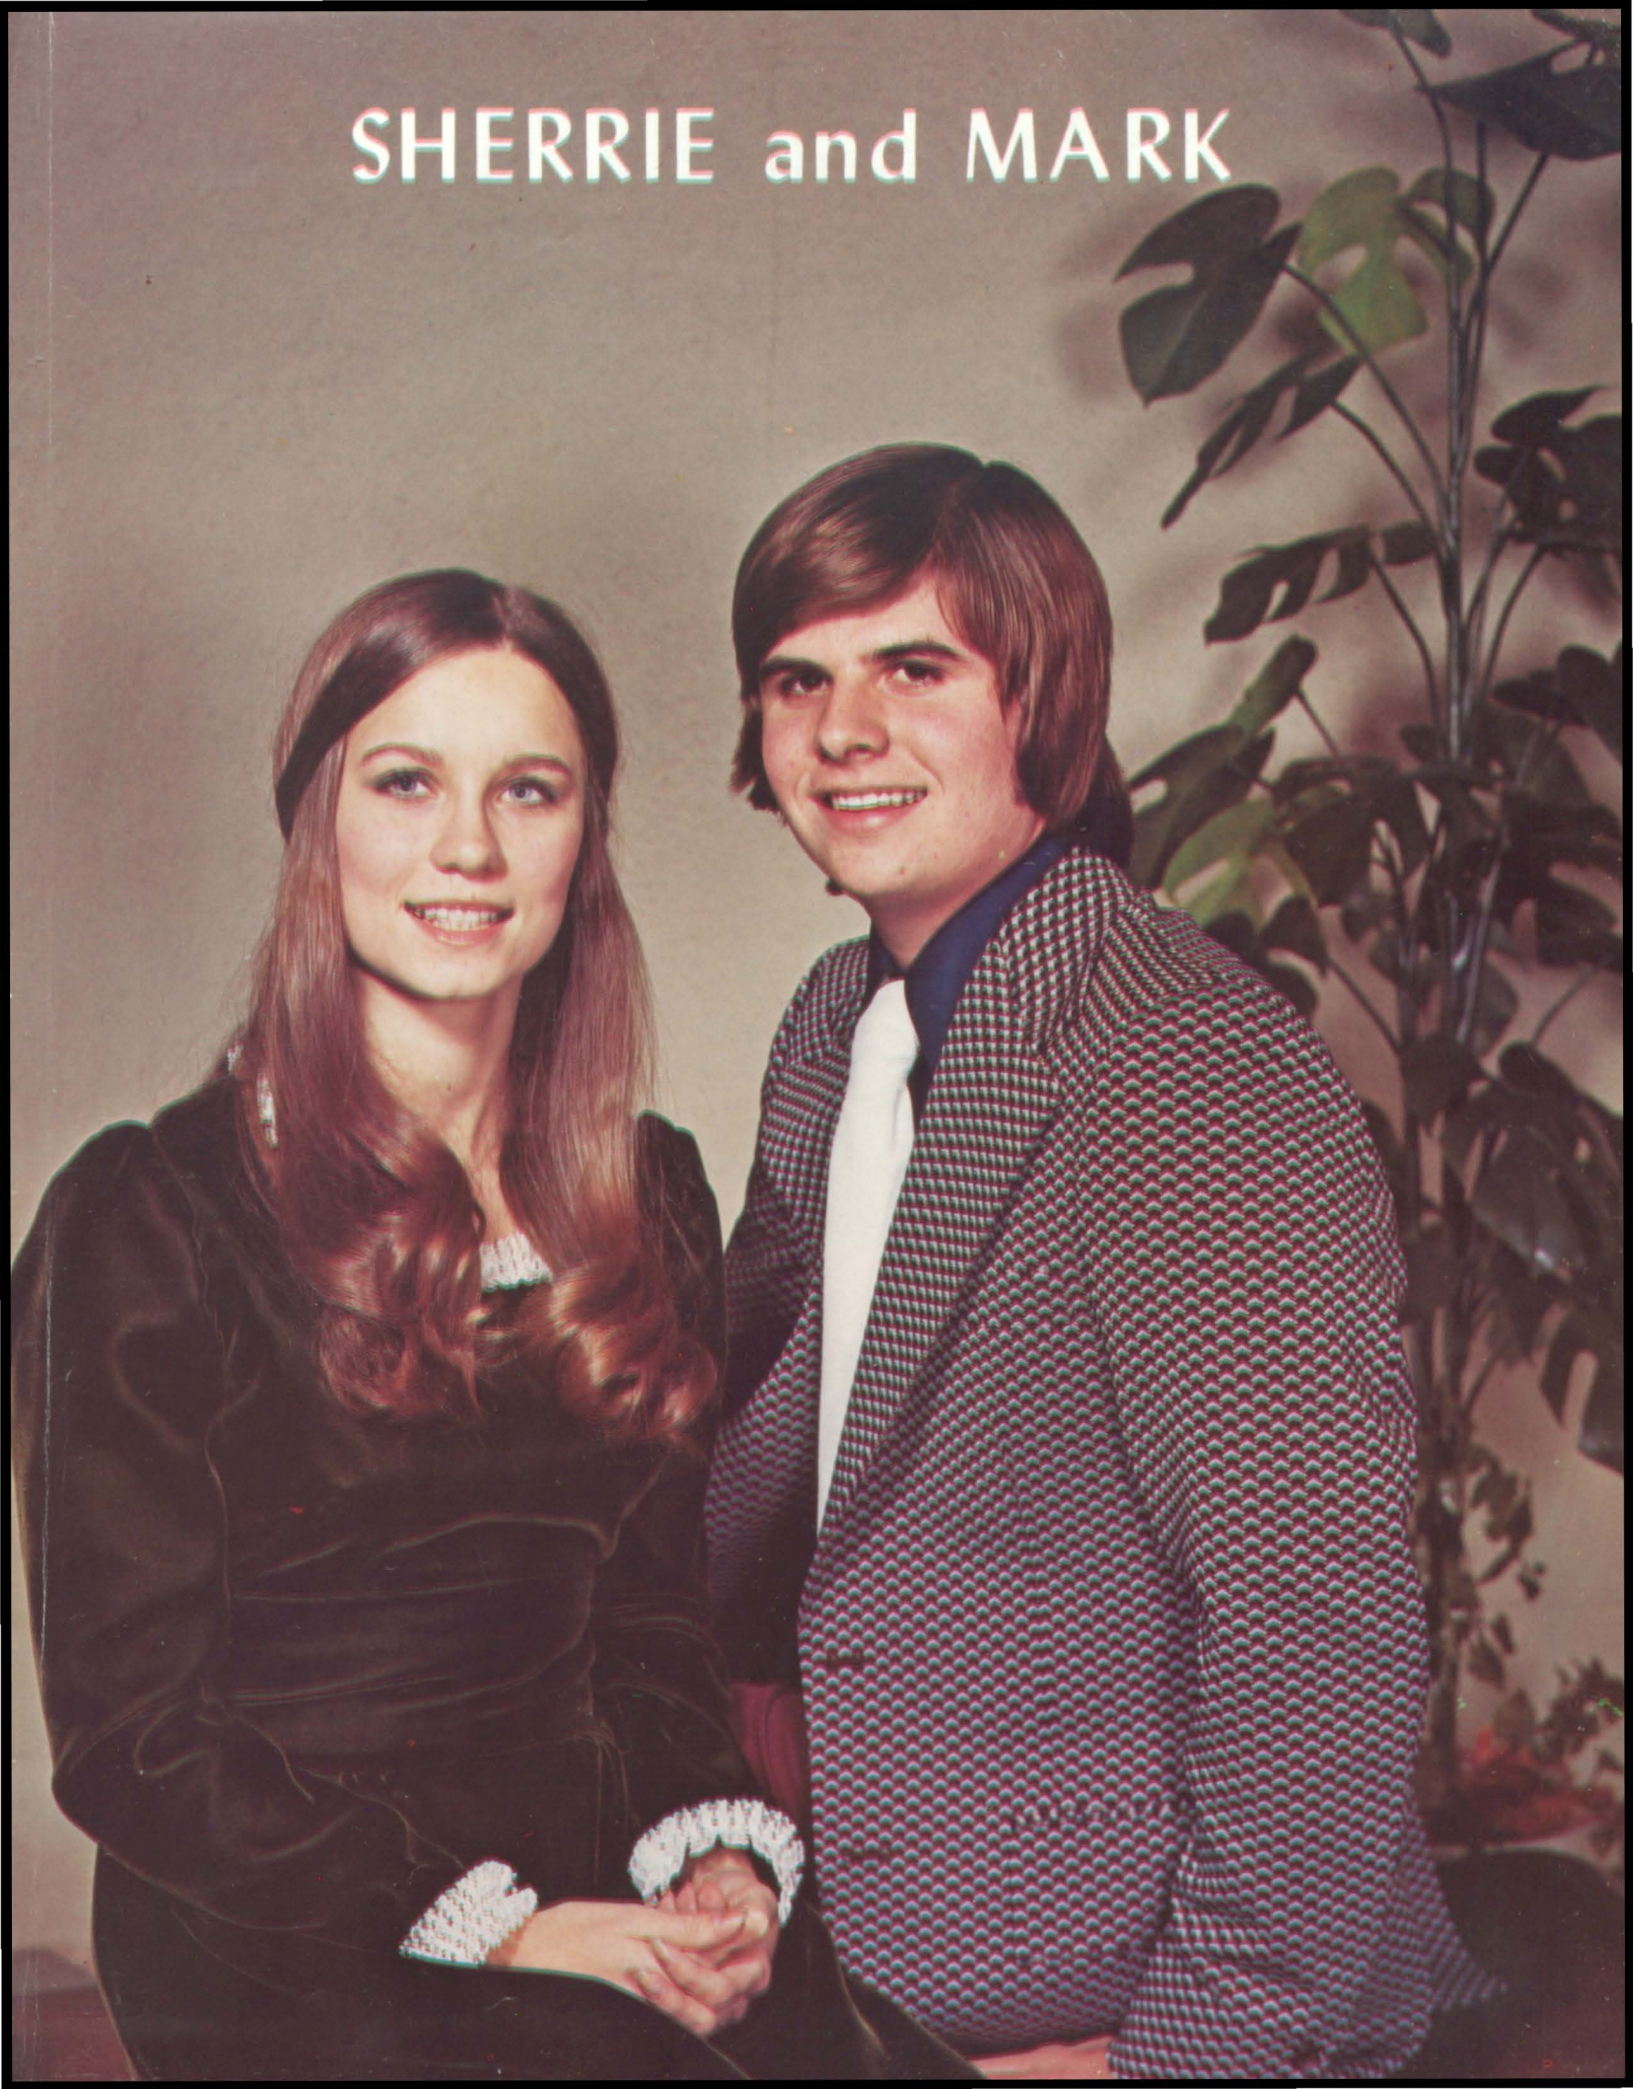

Each class chose candidates for king and queen. It was up to the members of the classes to sell tickets and present point-winning plays so their candidates would reign over the Follies. This year the Juniors won the contest. Sherrie Newcomb and Mark O'Brien were crowned King and Queen by last years royalty, Vickie Reichert and Cal Christianson.

Outstanding actor and actress were chosen for their performances each night. Thursday night the best actor was Senior, Kelly Casper. Karen Fawbush was chosen best actress. On Friday the best actor was Monty Friedow. Debbie Nelson was chosen best actress.

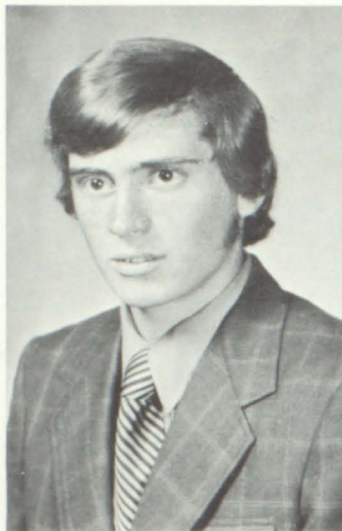

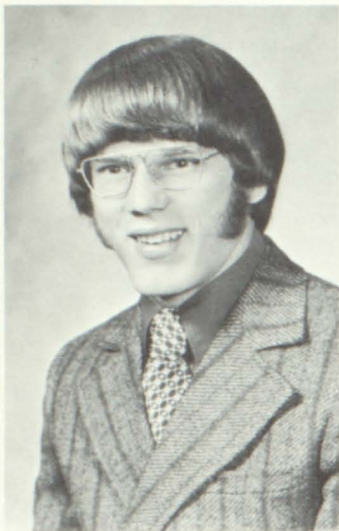

Georgeanne Burke and Tim Turner were mistress and master of ceremonies.

WINTER

GYMNASTICS CLUB

GYMNASTICS CLUB Back row: Diane Kinsella, Mrs. Farrell, advisor; Beth Balling, Melanie Hanson, Janice Feyder, Julie Hodgson, Audrey Larson, Eileen Kent and Carolyn Van Rosendale. Front row: Karen VanKat, Ardana Van Rosendale, Ranae Van Pelt, April Lingle and Jolynn Peterson. Bottom: Darla Van Rosendale. Not pictured: Paula Johnson, Annis Neville and Melanie Olson.

The Gymnastics Club, made up of 17 girls, performed on January 26 and February 24 at the half-time periods of two basketball games.

They performed on the mini-tramp, horse, mats, and balance beam. The routines consisted of hand and head springs, flips, cartwheels, straddles, rolls, head and hand stands, back-hand springs, and many other stunts.

Mrs. Farrell was the advisor.

SWEETHEART

Queen Holly Tommeraasen

Ann Belatti was Mistress of Ceremonies.

Susan Krake and Glynis Johnson served punch.

The Apostles provided the music while the kids had a great time dancing.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS of AMERICA

The FHA Girls made this quilt for an Indian child.

This throne for the Sweetheart Queen took many hours of work.

GIRLS WORKING FOR THE FUTURE

Many of the activities that the FHA have done this year were fun. Yet I'm sure, most of the girls got something out of them.

We had a Style Review that caught everyones eye, and also a nice big roller skating party. Many of the girls came out with bumps and bruises. Before Christmas vacation, all the girls brought little "goodies" that we sent to the old folks in the homes. We also sent book markers that the girls made.

All of this was great, but no one could wait for the Sweetheart dance that was held in February. The theme for the dance was "Love is. . ." Holly Tommeraason was crowned queen. The day of the dance, everyone was real busy decorating. The place looked beautiful when we were all done.

Other events of the year were Daddy Date night and the Mother-Daughter Tea.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1972-73 Student Council, headed by Chris Englehorn, provided a media through which the students could express their ideas and feelings toward school policies. This year's Student Council provided such things as open noon hour for the seniors, assemblies, and a Christmas movie. The council also annually sponsors the Homecoming and Sadie Hawkins Dances. The proceeds from these dances go for a foster child overseas.

Pin Their Shoulders To The Mat

The 1972-73 Wrestling Team was again rebuilding this year with mostly underclassmen and the experience of only four seniors. Even though the wrestlers didn't have a winning season, they put in long hours of practice and competed the best they could.

At the Mitchell Tournament, Madison placed second with the fine performances of both A and B wrestlers. The team then finished the season with four wrestlers qualifying for the state meet in Rapid City. They were Steve Walker, 126; Gary Kroger, 132; Randy Olson, 138; and Matt Johnson, 155.

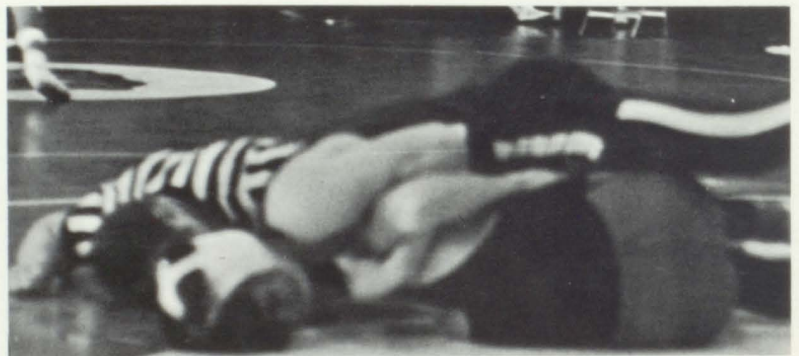

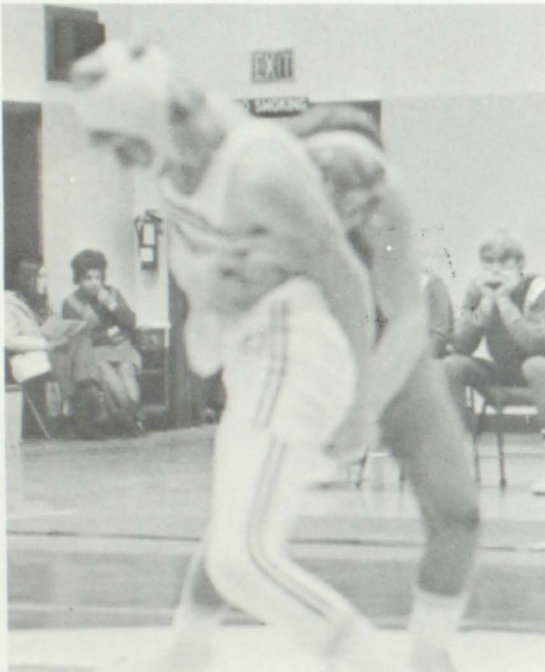

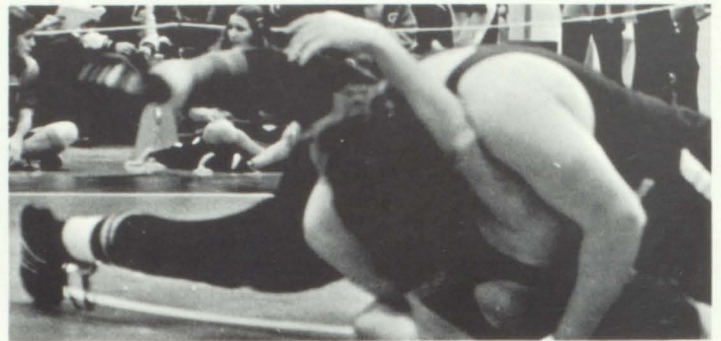

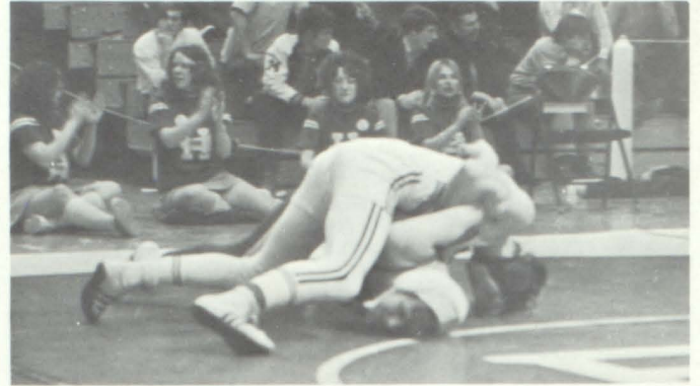

After the season, medals were given to the wrestlers by their coaches for their performances throughout the year. Gary Kroger received medals for the most take downs, most reversals, and most near falls. Randy Olson received a medal for the most wins, Chuck Langer for the most escapes, and Bob Gregorson for most pins. Plaques were given to Bob Gregorson for the most outstanding A wrestler and to Mark Barger for the most outstanding B wrestler.

SPARK A VICTORY

The Bulldog spirit was boosted this year by four lively cheerleading squads. The Freshman Cheerleaders sparked their players into a 2nd place victory in the Big Four Basketball Tournament. Cheering the Bullpups on to a 14-6 record were the four lively Sophomore Cheerleaders. The Wrestling Cheerleaders cheered a successful season promoting 3 boys to the State Wrestling Meet in Rapid City. They aroused their team by putting on pep rallies and putting up signs.

The varsity cheerleaders started out with a very successful season in football. The Homecoming pep rally created much enthusiasm for the crowd at the game that afternoon. Skits performed by the Drill Team, F.H.A., F.F.A., and the Varsity Cheerleaders helped to build spirit that day. The highlight of the day was the sign "Win Bulldogs" supported by helium balloons which was released above the tug of war prior to the beginning of the game. Both the Varsity and the Wrestling Cheerleaders helped cheer them on to a sad-denying defeat that afternoon.

The basketball season was received with the same joy. They were busy planning skits which the Freshmen and Sophomore Cheerleaders also participated in. Although the team wasn't very successful at the beginning; the cheerleaders riled up their spirits and gave them the confidence they needed to beat the team that is now the State A Champion. Throughout the year the cheerleaders were kept busy putting up signs that relayed the message: "Just Keep On Truckin Bulldogs".

ALL-STATE CHORUS

EXTEMP

Vince Heer, Head Debate Coach

Debate Mascot

Bonnie Sorenson, Ass't Coach

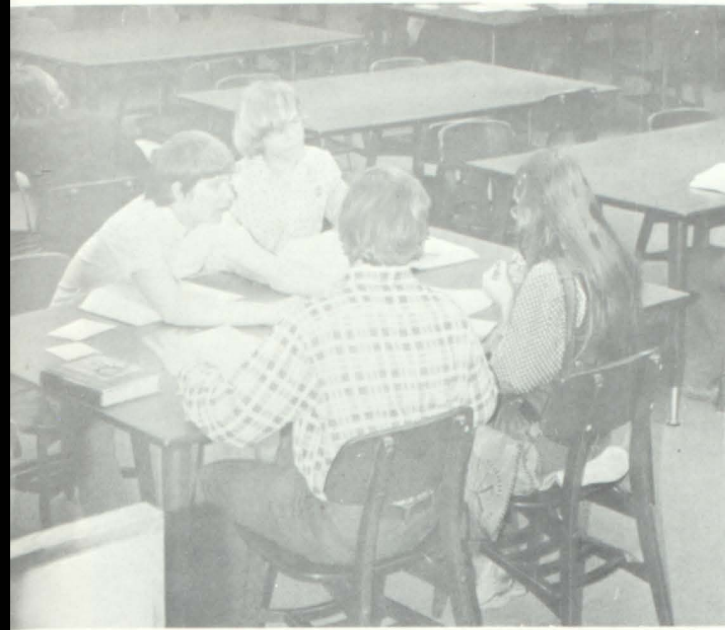

Forensics at Madison High School has provided a wide variety of opportunity for students, through tough competition and meeting new people, to earn the profits of winning and losing, and learn some of the more basic human values that are essential in life. We would like especially to thank Mr. Heer, who will be leaving us, for his years of dedicated service in making us what we are.

Debate takes many hours of research and practice in order to have a successful season.

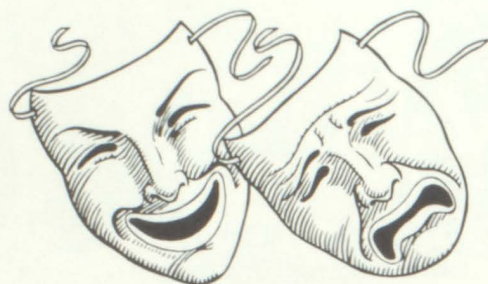

The true values of debate are the knowledge gained about our society's problems and the leadership obtained so the problems may be solved.

F.F.A.

The 1972-1973 President, Keith Nelson, hands the gavel over to the new president, Alan Randall.

The first activity of the year for the FFA was the Land Judging Contest at Sioux Falls in late September. Chuck Langer, Merlon Lebahn, and Curtis Lofswold were in the top eight and will represent South Dakota next spring in the National Land Judging Contest in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

On October 10th, Keith Nelson, Steve Walker, Chuck Langer, Kelly Casper, Merlon Lebahn, and Royce Pearson left for Kansas City as chapter delegates to the National FFA Convention. They returned after a delightful time on Saturday the 14th.

October 24th marked the date of the much awaited for Roller Skating Party at Pipestone. This year the FFA provided the arrangements for the annual FFA-FHA roller skating party.

In late October and the first part of November, orders were taken for FFA-Texas grown citrus fruit. With a lot of work the chapter managed to sell 650 boxes. On December 13th the long-awaited fruit arrived. Again this year the chapter brokered over 15,000 boxes for the state of S.D.

On December 6th, Mr. Murphy returned home after being chosen president of the National Vocational Agricultural Teachers Association. This is a well-deserved honor for Mr. Murphy.

February 3rd, Lake Central traveled out to Rapid City for a Livestock judging contest. They returned having tied for second. With Martin, S.D. having taken first.

This year girls for the first time, are in the FFA at Lake Central. Marcie Dick and Linda Schut finally broke the ranks this year. FFA week is February 17-24th.
