Homecoming Festivities

Homecoming Week 1975 was September 8—12. Activities during the week included the 3rd annual talent show on Tuesday night, coronation on Thursday night followed by a snake dance downtown, and the tug-of-war and pep rally on Friday afternoon. Festivities concluded with the winning of the football game—the first time since 1969. The Homecoming Dance followed with the music provided by the Apostles.

FRESHMEN: Renae Christensen Kevin Weiland SOPHOMORES: Terri Johnson Dan Foley JUNIORS: Terri Acheson Steve Fawbush SENIORS: Elizabeth Morse Steve Harter

Last Year's King and Queen: Russ Johnson and Lori Wiese

Follies Plays

"Star Baby Sitter"

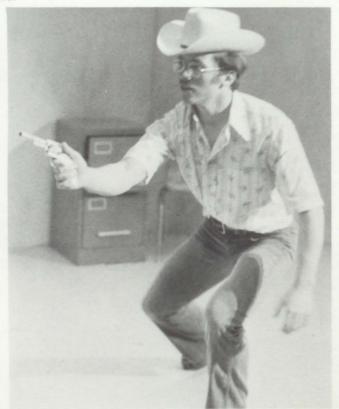

When a football hero is trapped into playing a baby sitter with a nice young girl, together with reporters, kidnapping and a nervous mother, it adds up to a hilarious comedy.

Jim and Jane are perplexed by the problems the Brown children create.

"Run, Robber, Run"

Two crooks thinking that they are robbing a rich home end up in an exclusive school for girls!

Colt Winchester "draws" attention at the Caldwell School.

Spider and Otto try to strike it rich.

"Sure As You're Born" The family is lamenting. Wilbur isn't a girl so he would not be so much trouble. Dad falls asleep and we see Wilbur as a girl. How happy Dad is when he discovers it has been nothing but a bad dream.

Oh Wilbur!

Follies are produced each year by the student body as a means of financing their yearbook, The Interlakes. Each class earns points by means of selling tickets and winning acting awards. The class that earns the most points gets their candidates crowned king and queen.

This year Follies were held on Thursday, January 8, and Saturday, January 10. Mary Bortnem and Dale Spartz were Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. Teresa Klopf provided organ music. On Thursday, the Junior class play, "Run Robber, Run," was awarded the Elks Trophy for giving the best play. Best actor was Dan Foley, from the Sophomore play, "Sure as You're Born". Dan played all-favorite Wilbur Maxwell, whose father's wish that Wilbur was a girl came true. Best actress was Deb DeFonce, who played a spoiled principal's daughter in the Senior class play, "Star Baby Sitter."

On Saturday night there was a tie for best actor between senior Jerry Ihler who portrayed a babysitter who should stick to football; and Bob Burg from the Junior class play, who played a snobbish professor who was awarded a chocolate cream pie in the face. There was also a tie for best actress between junior Harriet Deming, and Shelly Selgestad from the Freshman class play. Harriet played the headmistress of the Caldwell School for Girls and Shelly, the mother of a young girl out on her first date. The highlight of the evening came with the crowning of the 1976 Follies King and Queen, sophomores Terri Johnson and Dan Foley. The new king and queen were crowned by last year's royalty, Lori Wiese and Russ Johnson. Other candidates were Elizabeth Morse and Steve Harter seniors; Terri Acheson and Steve Fawbush juniors; and Renae Christensen and Kevin Weiland — freshmen. Follies was termed a success by many.

Wilbur Mae was the "perfect" daughter.

"Couldn't I Kiss You Goodnight?"

Jane refuses a good night kiss, but her folks hear part of the conversation and misunderstand the meaning. What a hard time the kids have explaining!

Paul can't see why

Jane and Paul have a heart to heart talk about first dates.

Kevin and Barb

Lynn Wolf was crowned 1976 Sweetheart Queen Saturday, February 7, at the semi-formal dance sponsored annually by the Future Homemakers of America.

Candidates and their escorts included Lynn, who was escorted by Gary Reinicke, Peggy Costlow and Steve Harter, Barb Brandes and Kevin Winterton, Denise Hemmelman and Lauren Boer, Cindy Henrickson and Dave Nelson.

Red, white and pink, and Raggedy Ann and Andy motifs were used in carrying out the theme, "Just You and Me." Mary Bortnem acted as mistress of ceremonies for the dance which was held in the high school lunchroom.

Sadie Hawkins

Everything from girls in pajamas to boys in dresses appeared in the halls of MHS during Wing Ding week, March 29-April 2. Monday was designated as "Wake-up Day." Tuesday was everybody's favorite—except for the teachers and custodians— "Hat and Sucker Day." On Wednesday, MHSer's showed their true selves by their participation in "Crazy Day." Patriotism was the watchword on Thursday's "Red, White, and Blue Day." And, much to the despair of the underclassmen, Friday was "Senior Slave Day." The Sadie Hawkins dance on Friday night climaxed the week's activities. King and queen of the dance were Charles Page and Maureen Green.

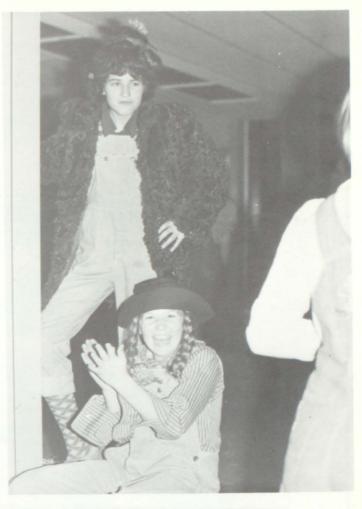

THE GOLDEN CHAIN OF FRIENDSHIP

FRIENDSHIP is a GOLDEN CHAIN The links are friends so dear, And like a rare and precious jewel It's treasured more each year ... It's clasped together firmly' With a love that's deep and true, And it's rich with happy memories And fond recollections, too.. Time can't destroy its beauty For, as long as memory lives, Years can't erase the pleasure That the joy of friendship gives.. For friendship is a priceless gift That can't be bought or sold, But to have an understanding friend Is worth far more than gold ... And the GOLDEN CHAIN OF FRIENDSHIP Is a strong and blessed tie Binding kindred hearts together As the years go passing by.

Life is full of ups and downs Of sunshine and of showers A mixture of exciting times Combined with humdrum hours And yet, it seems quite evident That life is what we make it We mold it daily by our deeds We build it or we break it For life itself can't be sublime Unless we really will it. . . Life just gives us time and space It's up to us to fill it.

The Test

There was a race and all of us ran. The coach said, "Do the best you can." We tried, we lost. One winner claimed the prize at which we all had aimed. Applause rang out, and then we knew that it was meant for the losers, too. The coach said, "Honor is due the man who does the very best he can!"

O God, run with me in life's race, encourage me to seek first place . . . but if I fail, give me grace to see the goal I reach is best for me.

CROSS COUNTRY

Girl's Cross Country Team I to r. Ginny Freitag, Susan Barker, Marcia Telkamp, Lori Meyer, Kathy Felker, Coach Bob Miller.

This year was a difficult one for girls cross country, because many schools don't have a girls team to compete with. Even though this was the case, the girls still took first place at the Watertown Invitational.

The boys team also placed in various meets this year. They finished second in the ESD conference and took first in the Madison Triangular. Seniors that lettered this year are: Tony Bauman, Bruce Keppen, Bill VanDeest, Darwin Gramstad, and Jeff Blanchette.

Gymnastics

Members of the Varsity Squad.

Gymnastics is in its second consecutive year as a competitive sport. Place holdings are captured by taking the top three place winner's score in each event and adding them together to get a team total. "Overall we've had a very successful season," said Ron Erickson, head coach of the gymnastics team. "We had a young team with a lot of potential," said Joyce Farrell, assistant coach. "Everyone can work on their own skill." MHS gymnasts finished fifth out of eight schools in the ESD Conference and sixth out of 14 schools in the Watertown Invitational.

Madison's 1976 track season was described as "outstanding" by Coach Jim Cordts. Outstanding it was, for the combined girls' and boys' squads won many important meets and broke numerous records.

One record, for the 880-yard dash, long held by Jeff Schemmel, at 1:57.5 was broken by Bruce Keppen, at 1:56.8. Keppen was co-captain of the boys' team along with Tony Bauman, while Pam White was the captain of the varsity girls' team.

Madison came out on top of five of their eleven meets. Both boys' and girls' teams won the Madison Invitational, while the boys won the Regional meet and the girls came in second.

In the State meet, to which a total of 24 went, the boys finished eighth and the girls tenth. Overall, the girls' squad placed fourth in the ESD conference and the boys ended the season in sixth place.

YEARBOOK

High school is the whirl of fall leaves swirling across a road at twilight. It's a gold-plated megaphone dangling from a dainty chain. It's buying all the latest fashions, then baby-sitting. It's meeting friends, watching the winning touchdown and experiencing the thrill and sweat of a locker room after the struggle. High school is cramming for an exam that you's rather forget It's a shiny silver ring that catches the light and a charm bracelet with scattered memories. High school is growing up, and growing up is wishing you were young again.

With the final close of the doors, the Madison High School Class of '76 leaves with memories of the times spent here. It was with this in mind that the 1975-76 Interlakes staff recorded to the best of its ability the events of the past year.

The production of a yearbook is dependent on many people. It is to many of these people that I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Reetz for their valuable assistance and photography work. Jill Keiner, Charles Page and Steve Stalzer for their photography work. Liz and Stephene Bowar for their layout work.

To Mr. Bortnem, advisor, for the advice rendered during the course of the year. And a very special thank you to Anne Halverson, whose help was vital in the completion of the Interlakes 1976.

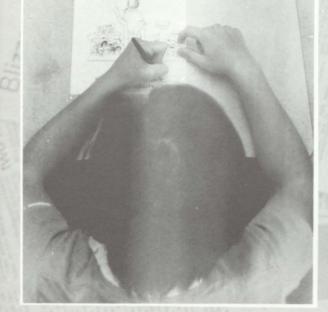

Finally, to the Interlakes staff, a thank you that is proportional to the quality of the 1976 Interlakes.

Class adds "class" to Maroon eva The MHS journalism class made up the Maroon staff for 1975-1976 and wrote all the articles for the school newspaper, compared to a separate staff in past years. Many things in this year's Maroon changed. For example, the mast head was changed from a school facade to a bulldog, and more graphics were used in standing heads and the editorial page. Members of the Maroon staff entered different articles in the State High School Journalism Writing Contest and three entries placed. The journalists took past issues of the Maroon, clipped and filed them to make a reference to aid future Maroon staffs in researching articles. Editors were: Editor-in-Chief Marcia Nelson; Associate Editor-Karla Schaaf; News Editor- Lisa Knox; Sports Editor-Rick Weiland; Arts Editor-Debbie Stacey; Graphics Editor-Doug Menholt; Circulation Editor-Mel Hanson.

All School Play - "Labors of Love

"The Labors of Love," a one-act musical melodrama, was presented April 29-30 at 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The 11-man cast was selected by director Judy Kroll. The melodrama centered on a rather wealthy Victorian family, headed by slightly zany Mrs. Gotrocks who is bored by her "proper life" and privately nips. Meanwhile, family cousins Hattie Hateful and Lawyer Samuel Scrounge plot to acquire the family fortune by foul means. The play underwent long hours of rehearsals and hard work. The cast, with assistance from the Drama Department, constructed flats. Designs for the set, created by art teacher Val Salter, were painted by interested students. Background music was provided by pianist Monty Friedow. Attendance was far above previous years.
