TALENT SHOW

SCOTT GRAYSON, singing "Sheila" and "Battle of New Orleans"

SENIOR SKIT. "The Substitute Bride."

JENNY VENEKAMP, MARILYN LANGE, AND JIM BLANCHETT with a moving song, "Old Soldiers".

PAM JOHNSON, comical dance.

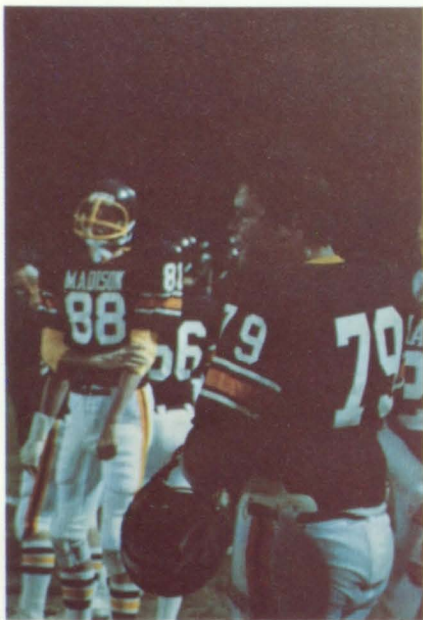

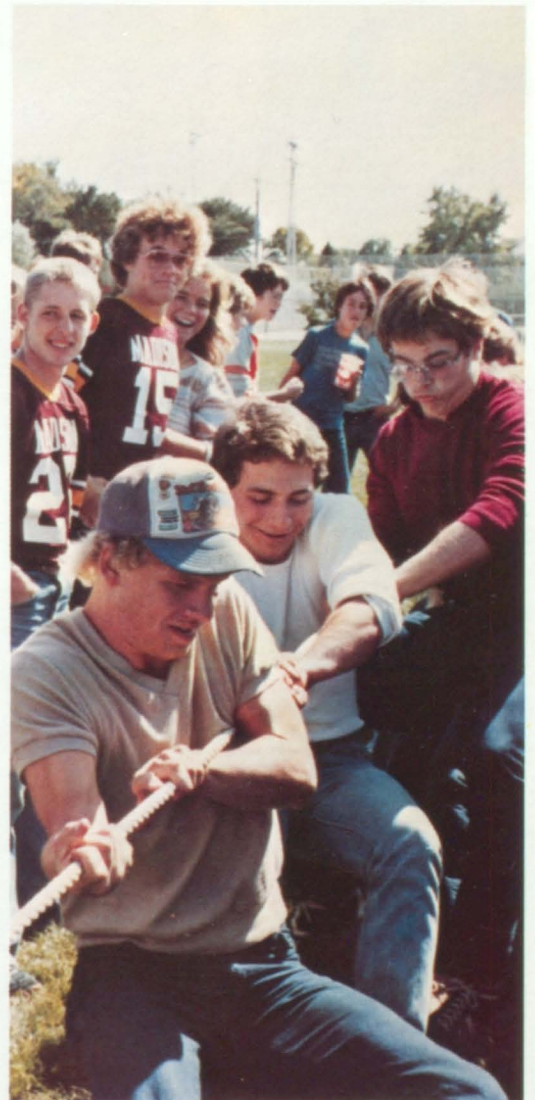

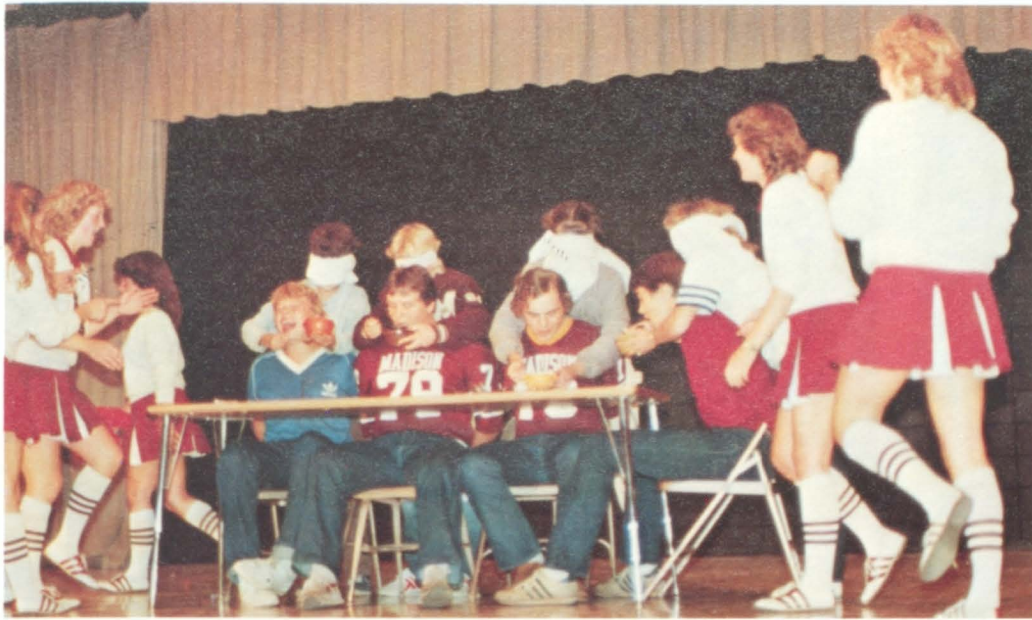

JILL LANGE, accompanied by Tom Reagan.

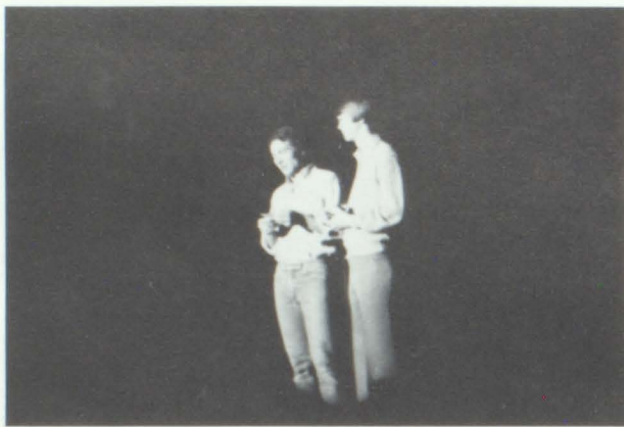

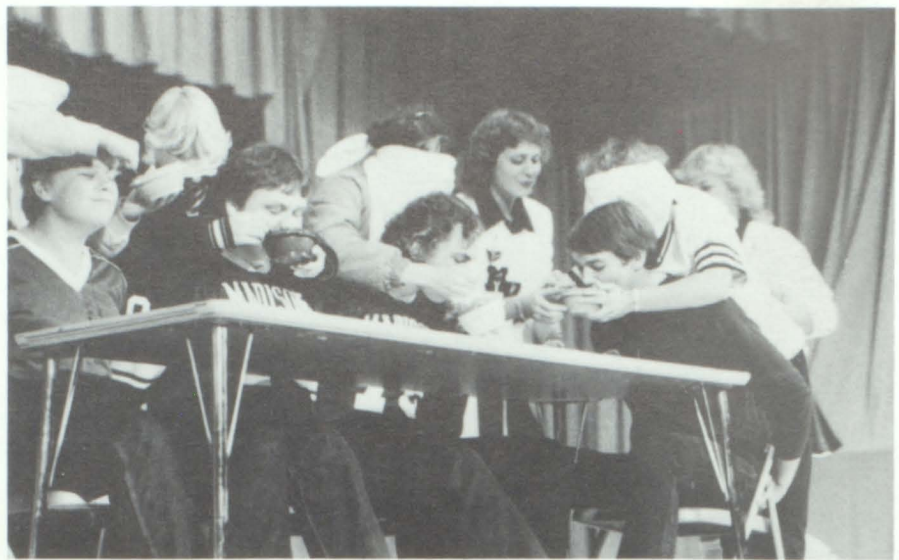

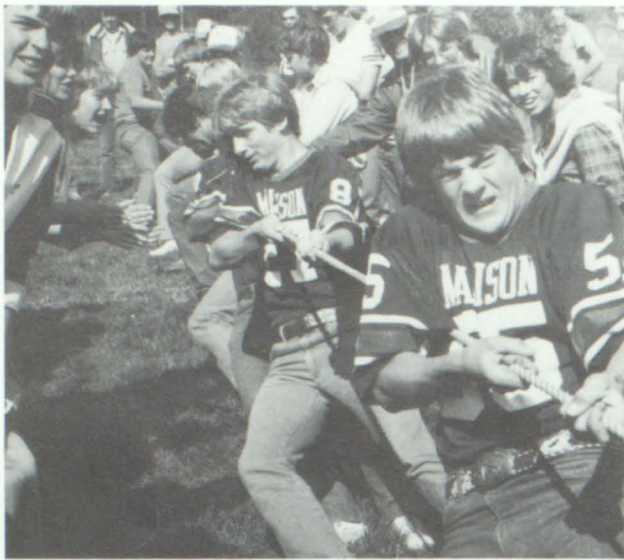

The annual Homecoming talent show was held Tuesday evening. Of the five acts in the show, three captured prizes. Scott Grayson took first place as he sang "Sheila" and "Battle of New Orleans" and accompanied himself on the guitar. Marilyn Lange and Jim Blanchette, accompanied by Jenny Venekamp on the piano, won second place with a very moving song, "Old Soldier," which Jim composed himself. Falling into the third place slot was the senior skit, "The Substitute Bride." The other two worthy acts that rounded out the show were Pam Johnson's comical "Dance to the Loss of Innocence" and a solo sung by Jill Lange called "I Can't Believe It." Jill was accompanied by Tom Reagan on the piano. John Opgaard served as master of ceremonies for the evening.

CANDIDS

Homecoming, a hectic but fun week for most, was celebrated at MHS Sept. 20 through the 24. "Hex Day" ushered in the week. In order to put a "hex" on the Huron Tigers for Friday's football game, students dressed in orange and black apparel.

Tuesday was dubbed "No Sweat Day" and the majority of MHS'ers donned everything from a simple sweatshirt and jeans to complete running outfits in a rainbow of colors. The annual Homecoming talent show, which was fairly small compared to those of other years, capped off the day.

All of the "art work" and other decorative efforts of each class were judged on Wednesday. The seniors emerged as this year's winners with their theme "Bulldog Magic." Wednesday was also designated as Maroon and White Day.

The pace of the week really started to pick up on Thursday. "Penny per Player" was held over the noon hour as students put money on their favorite football player. Kirk Pearson won the honor of being the favorite player along with the grand prize — a gourmet chocolate cake.

Coronation ceremonies began at 7:30 Thursday night with the theme "Never Let the Magic End" and purple, lavender, and pink as the colors. Bruce Barrick and Pam Oldre were crowned king and queen. Other candidates were Melanie Diaz, Paula Olson, Theresa Green, Robin Van Rosendale, Monica Ritzman, Ron Kappenman, Todd Freemeyer, Todd Koster, Scott Seitz, and Jeff Larsen. Others involved in the coronation were Janet Randall, who was mistress of ceremonies, and Tom Seitz, the escort. Marilyn Lange sang "The Way We Were" and was accompanied by Janelle Cole on the flute. Deb Cleveland played the piano for the parade of candidates. After the coronation, everyone took part in the snake dance down to the bonfire at Trojan Field.

At last Friday arrived. Classes were dismissed at 1:10 for the pep rally, the powderpuff football game, and the tug-of-war. The seniors were the victors in this year's rope pull.

At 7:30 the Bulldogs met the Huron Tigers in the homecoming clash. The MHS band provided half-time entertainment with a nothing less than a dazzling display of flag-twirling, marching, and, of course, musical talent. After the game, Disco on Wheels palyed for the Homecoming social, which topped off the week's festivities.

The MHS Chorus consists of various large and small groups. Boys Vocal Ensemble, Mixed Vocal Ensemble, Mixed Quartet and individual Soloists help to make the Chorus both educational and fun. The MHS Singers sang for numerous civic and community programs such as: Veteran's Day, Winter Concert, Kiwanis, Bethel Home, and Baccalaureate. The entire Chorus performed at the Winter Concert. The Mixed Quartet was warmly received as they sang the National Anthem at numerous athletic events. At the District 11 Vocal Music Contest the Boys Vocal Ensemble and Mixed Vocal Ensemble earned superiors. Soloists Jim Blanchette, Marilyn Lange, Matt Kussow, John Opgaard, Wendy Johnson, and Jenny Venekamp all earned Superiors at the District 11 Contest.

FBLA is the national vocational education organization for high school students enrolled in business and office education classes or programs. The activities of FBLA provide students with educational, vocational, and leadership opportunities and experiences. It also provides an opportunity for members to learn the value of competition on local, regional, and national levels through competitive events that develop occupational skills as well as character and leadership abilities. There are a number of events included in the state and national leadership conference activities for members to participate in. The first place winners at the state level are eligible to advance to national competition to compete for scholarships available to various events winners at each year's National Leadership Conference.

The purpose of the Student Council is to give the student body a voice in school activities, events and policy. The process involved allows the students to exercise democratic self-government under practical conditions. This creates an atmosphere of interest in the welfare of the school and a pride in the school's objectives and achievements. At present, the Student Council is involved in various activities. Recognition of scholastic excellence by the Student Council is reflected in its sponsorship of the National Honor Society. The National Honor Society is also dedicated to serving the community as well as the school.

MADISON HIGH THEATRE PRESENTS "THE LION IN WINTER"

The play takes place in Chinon, France in 1183 A.D. Chinon is part of Europe now under English rule. King Henry II, the first of the Plantagenet dynasty is in power. Henry had ascended to the throne by way of war and marriage. He became Duke of Normandy in 1150, Count of Anjou in 1151 and in 1152, by marrying Eleanor of Aquitaine, after her marriage to Louis VII of France was annulled, Duke of Aquitaine. By 1153, he became King of England. Henry's reign brought about a working judicial system but was still under his anarchy. In an attempt to gain more control, he made his best friend, Thomas Beckett, Archbishop of Canterbury. A quarrel developed between them which led to Thomas' murder (1170) by four knights who thought they were acting on Henry's orders. In 1173-1174 Henry put down a rebellion led by his and Eleanor's sons — Richard, Geoffrey and John but it was not to be the end of it all. Henry's reign ended tragically. Eleanor resented the fact that Henry treated her inheritance as his own and encouraged her sons to revolt at every opportunity. The King of France, Phillip, helped them and in 1189 they had Henry at their mercy. Heartbroken at the discovery that even his youngest son John had betrayed him. Henry died at Chinon on July 6, 1189 muttering "Shame, shame on an anointed King."

Doris . . . DORIS?

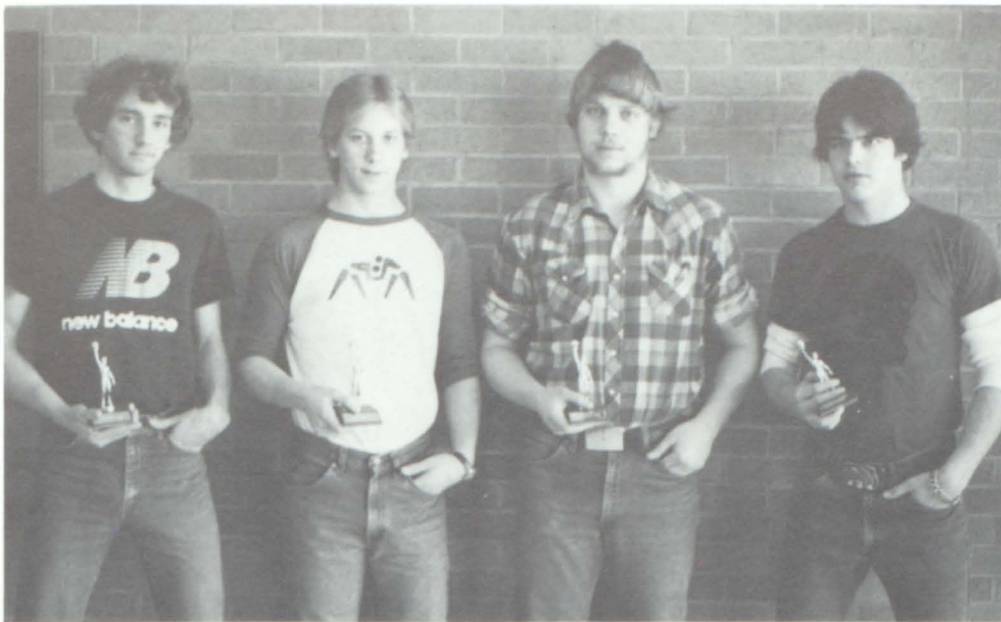

And that's all folks . . .

Madison High School's Division 1 one-act play entry, "Breaking up is Hard to Do," received a superior rating in Watertown Jan. 27, which qualified the play as one of the top 12 "A" school productions to advance to the finals. The play, directed by Doc Miller, focused upon the human comedy found when people attempt to deal with terminating a relationship. The cast members include Matt Kussow, Robin Hojnacke, Jim Blanchette, Todd Freemeyer, Pam Johnson, Chad Gilbert, Tracey Wipf and Bob Appelwick. Assisting the director and supervising the technical work were John Opgaard and Beth Tyc. Working the running crew was Mary Johnson, Melanie Junker, Shari Martin and Melani Johnson. The play was presented to the public at the state one-act finals Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Jeschke Fine Arts Center on the campus of Sioux Falls College.

JR. SR. BANQUET

Excuse my manners!

The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was held on Saturday evening, May 14th. The theme of this year's banquet and prom was, "The Best of Times." The banquet was held at Nicheys' Supper Club. Brent Bender, Junior Class President, welcomed the seniors. Marilyn Lange and Robin VanRosendale read the Senior Class Will and prophesy. After the banquet a dance was held at the high school. Students danced to the music of "The Fact." The dance area was decorated with blue and silver streamers and balloons.

TOM REAGAN: I predict that Todd Freemyer will win the annual "2001" Hobi Cat "Nacra" sailing regatta on the newly dredged jungle of Lake Madison. He'll later go back to his home in Austria and be satisfied the rest of his 120 years.

MONICA RITZMAN: I predict: Pam Oldre will marry Brad Dodds and he will get a black eye while trying to wake her up in the morning, Cathy Draper will be the personal secretary to the president of the United States, and Barb Aker will become a judo expert so when she is walking home and some guy grabs her she will know what to do besides screaming.

LISA ROBBINS: Pam's taxi service will pay off! (Really big bucks!)

ED ROLING: I predict that 20 years down the road Craig Shoemaker will be happily tied and his kids will be drinking flip by the gallon.

TAMMY ROOK: I predict that Bill Nieman will have a steady girlfriend and soon forget about ME! (Just joshin' Bill).

STEVE SCHLIESMAN: Mark Johnson will be a big game hunter in Africa, where he is kidnapped by a tribe of Pigmie women. At last report he was being worshipped as the great white bamboo God.

LARRY SCHWEBACH: I predict that Steve Schliesman will take 50 years to get out of the army then reenlist as a ranger.

SCOTT SEITZ: Scientists will discover a cure for Brad Hodne; Steve Hegdahl will form a new underground rescue team named the "B" team and star as G.A. (Good Attitude).

TOM SEITZ: Craig Showmaker will still be taking road trips with his brother in the 4x4 and/or the Blue Hornet.

CRAIG SHOEMAKER: In 5 years I win my $25 bet.

RITA SOMMARS: I predict that Jaci will become an owner of a homemade mailbox shop, selling only those that are dented.

DOUG SORENSON: Kelly Jung will be racing his Dart at the NHRA National Championship and lose.

PAM STANFORD: I predict Craig Showmaker will become a priest and help Doug Sorenson achieve his lifelong dream of becoming a body builder.

TAMMY THOMAS: Kathy and Donna will be sitting in rocking chairs watching their ten kids. Tracey (Benetar) will be singing in a rock band.

JILL THOMPSON: I predict that Jill B. will be making plans to wed a young unsuspecting intern that she met while working as a nurse in Sioux Valley Hospital. Jenny V. will be working as a head executive for a very prestigious business. Lisa Jung will be opening a day care center.

JACI TURNER: Tammy will be married to "Howard" and be sewing clothes for their 10 kids on her "Singer" machine and I will have $5 coming from Robin cuz she'll be married first.

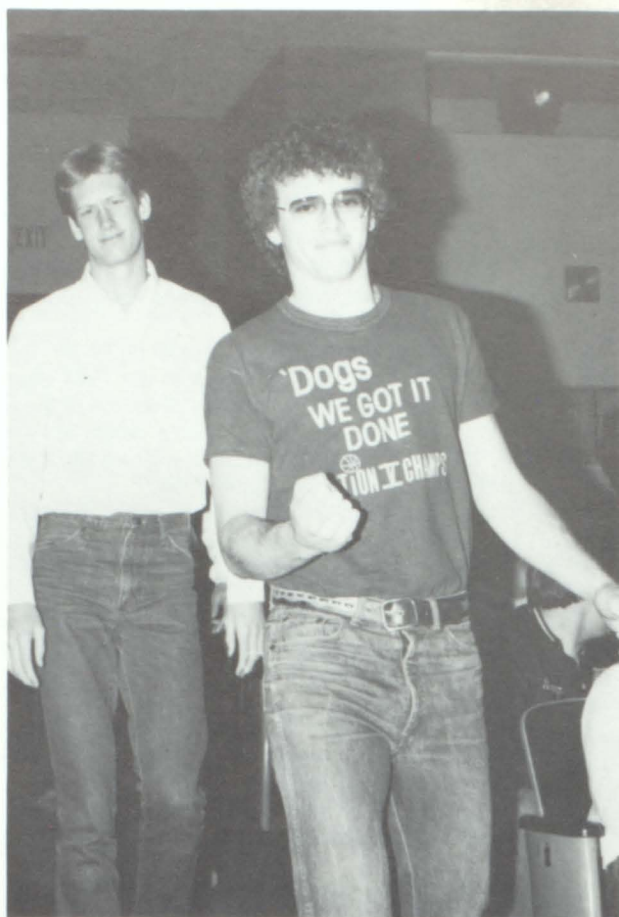

JENNY VENEKAMP: I predict that Jim Blanchette will be in a Broadway musical.

KEVIN WILCOX: Wayne Larsen, living the life of a true bum, eating popcorn, and driving the junkiest cars.

STEVE WILLIAMS: I predict that Bill Niemann and Tammy Rook will get married and they will live in Bill's '72 Impala.

TRACEY WIPF: I predict that Tammy T. will finally enjoy the big time "97".

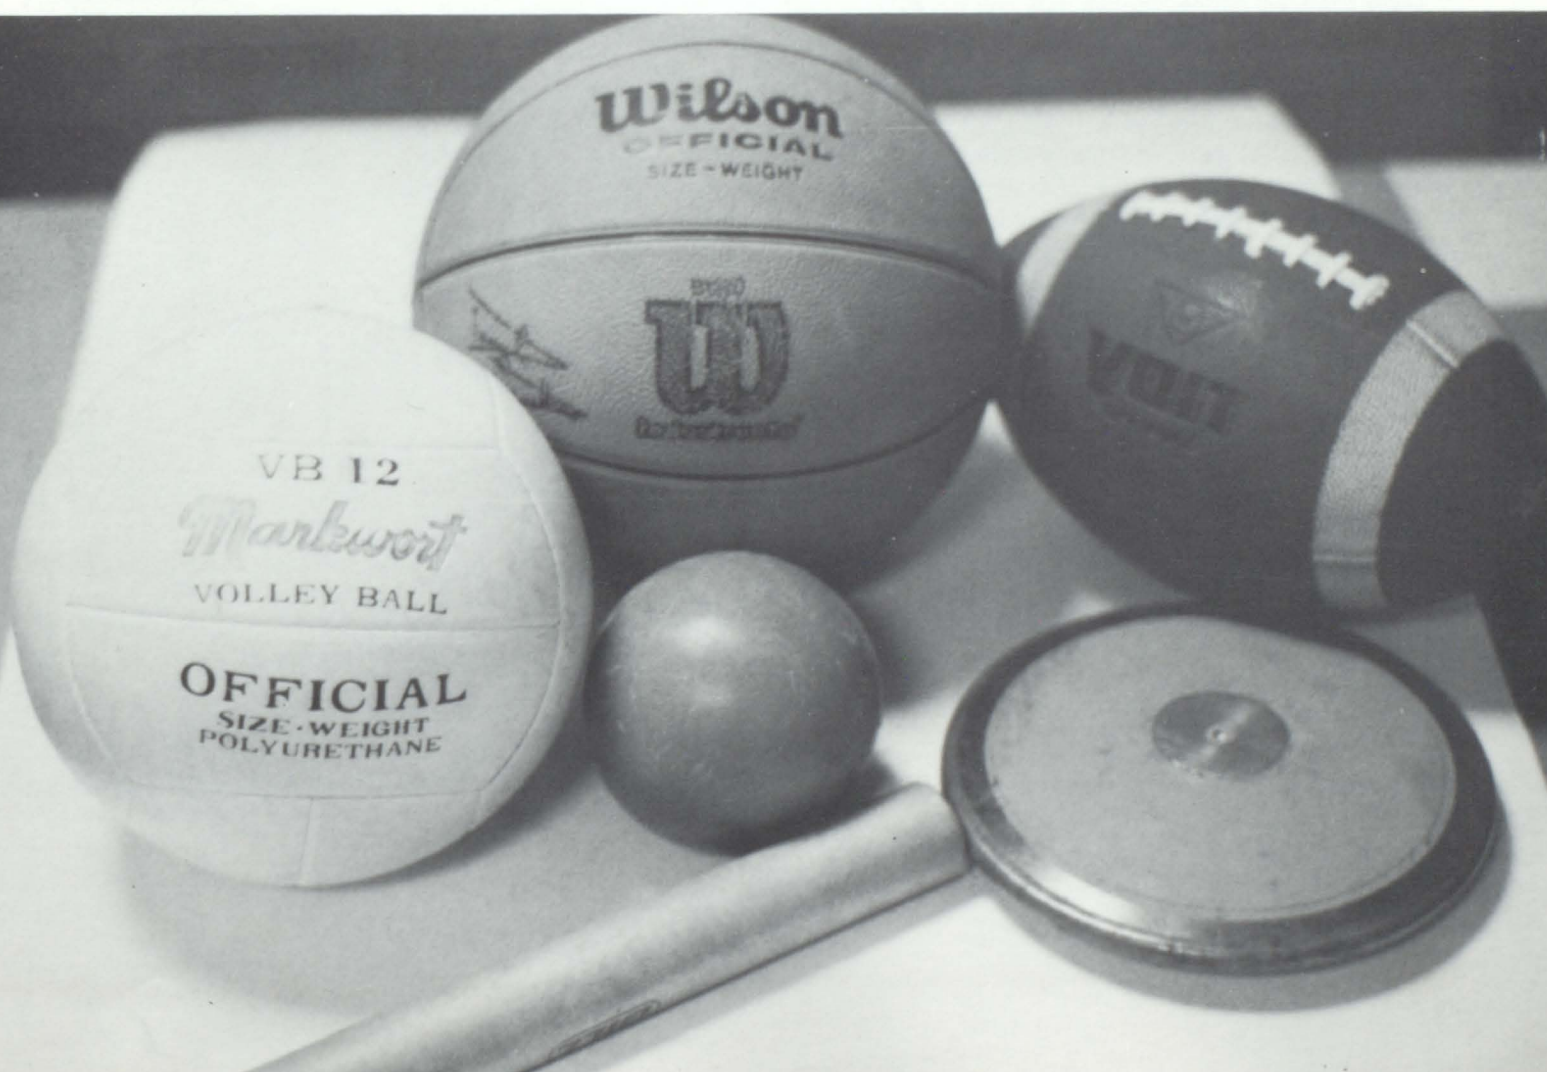

MARK ZERFAS: Cheryl Nordling will still be sending Tom Seitz roses.

The MHS Bulldogs playing in the strong ESD Conference learned again what it is like to have to play teams from schools with enrollments two and three times their size. After last year's 3rd place finish in the ESD and heavy losses to graduation the "Bulldogs" had to settle for a year of just good hard football and steady improvement as the season progressed. Todd Koster, quarterback, for the Bulldogs was named to the All State 11AA 1st team.
