TALENT SHOW

"Student Council Skit of Candid Camera" Placed 3rd — L to R: Michael Glanzer, Mark Bender, Brent Bender and Brett Carlson.

"Senior Girls" Placed 2nd — Heidi Steffen Tracy Sommars, Kim Keffler and Kristy Polzen.

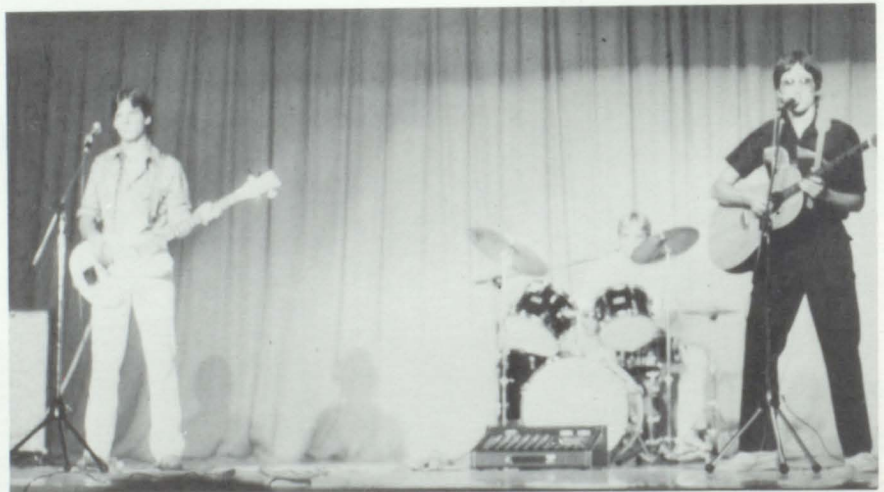

"Senior Girls" Placed 2nd — Kristy Polzen

"Varsity Football Cheerleaders" Title of skit, "The Longest Time" L to R: Peggy Bulick, Stacey Strom, Cheryl Nordling and Peggy Langner.

"Keep Right" A Musical Group — Placed 1st — L to R: Jon Connors, Bob Appelwick, and Scott Grayson.

Homecoming at MHS was celebrated September 12-16 with a week of special activities.

Monday was set aside as hat, sucker, and shades day. Students were allowed to wear any hats they wanted, eat suckers, and don their shades for a day. Hats ranged from conservatives to outrageous straw concoctions.

Hawaiian outfits were the rage as Tuesday was designated as Hawaiian Day. A few Crazy people went as far as to wear grass skirts. Most students sported their colorful shirts and leis.

The Talent Show dominated Tuesday night as four worthy acts entertained the audience. Winning the competition was Keep Right, a musical group consisting of Bob Appelwick, Jon Conner, and Scott Grayson. Second place went to a comical skit by the representatives of the senior girls. A student council skit entitled Candid Camera took third place. Rounding out the night was the Varsity football cheerleaders skit to the song "The Longest Time." As emcees, Rocky O'Loughlen and Bill Alfson kept the show going between numbers.

Wednesday marked Occupation Day at MHS as students dressed in accordance to their career plans. Among the doctors, pastors, business executives, lawyers, secretaries, and future CPA's were the unsavory occupations like the call girl and pimp.

On Thursday craziness once again swept the halls as togas and punk styles, and combinations of both were the norm. Togas came this year in various stripe, floral, and plaid patterns along with standard white ones.

Let Nothing Hold Us Back was the theme for Coronation this year. Sandy Lee conducted the ceremony from a stage decorated in white, turquoise and silver, this year's chosen colors. Ron Mader escorted the queen candidates on stage as Kim Keffeler played background music on the piano. Later in the evening, Keffler was joined by Kristen Hauge on flute as Wendy Johnson sang "We've Only Just Begun."

The highlight of the evening was when the 1982 Royalty, Bruce Barrick and Pam Oldre, crowned Kevin Hoff, King and Kelli Sheffield, Queen. Other Homecoming Royalty included Peggy Langner, Brad Hodne, Tammy Bamsey, Bob Cordt, Karen Maroon, Chuck Stroud, Cheryl Nordling, Shawn Potts, Beth Tyc, Bill Cole, Wendy Johnson, and Bill Alfson.

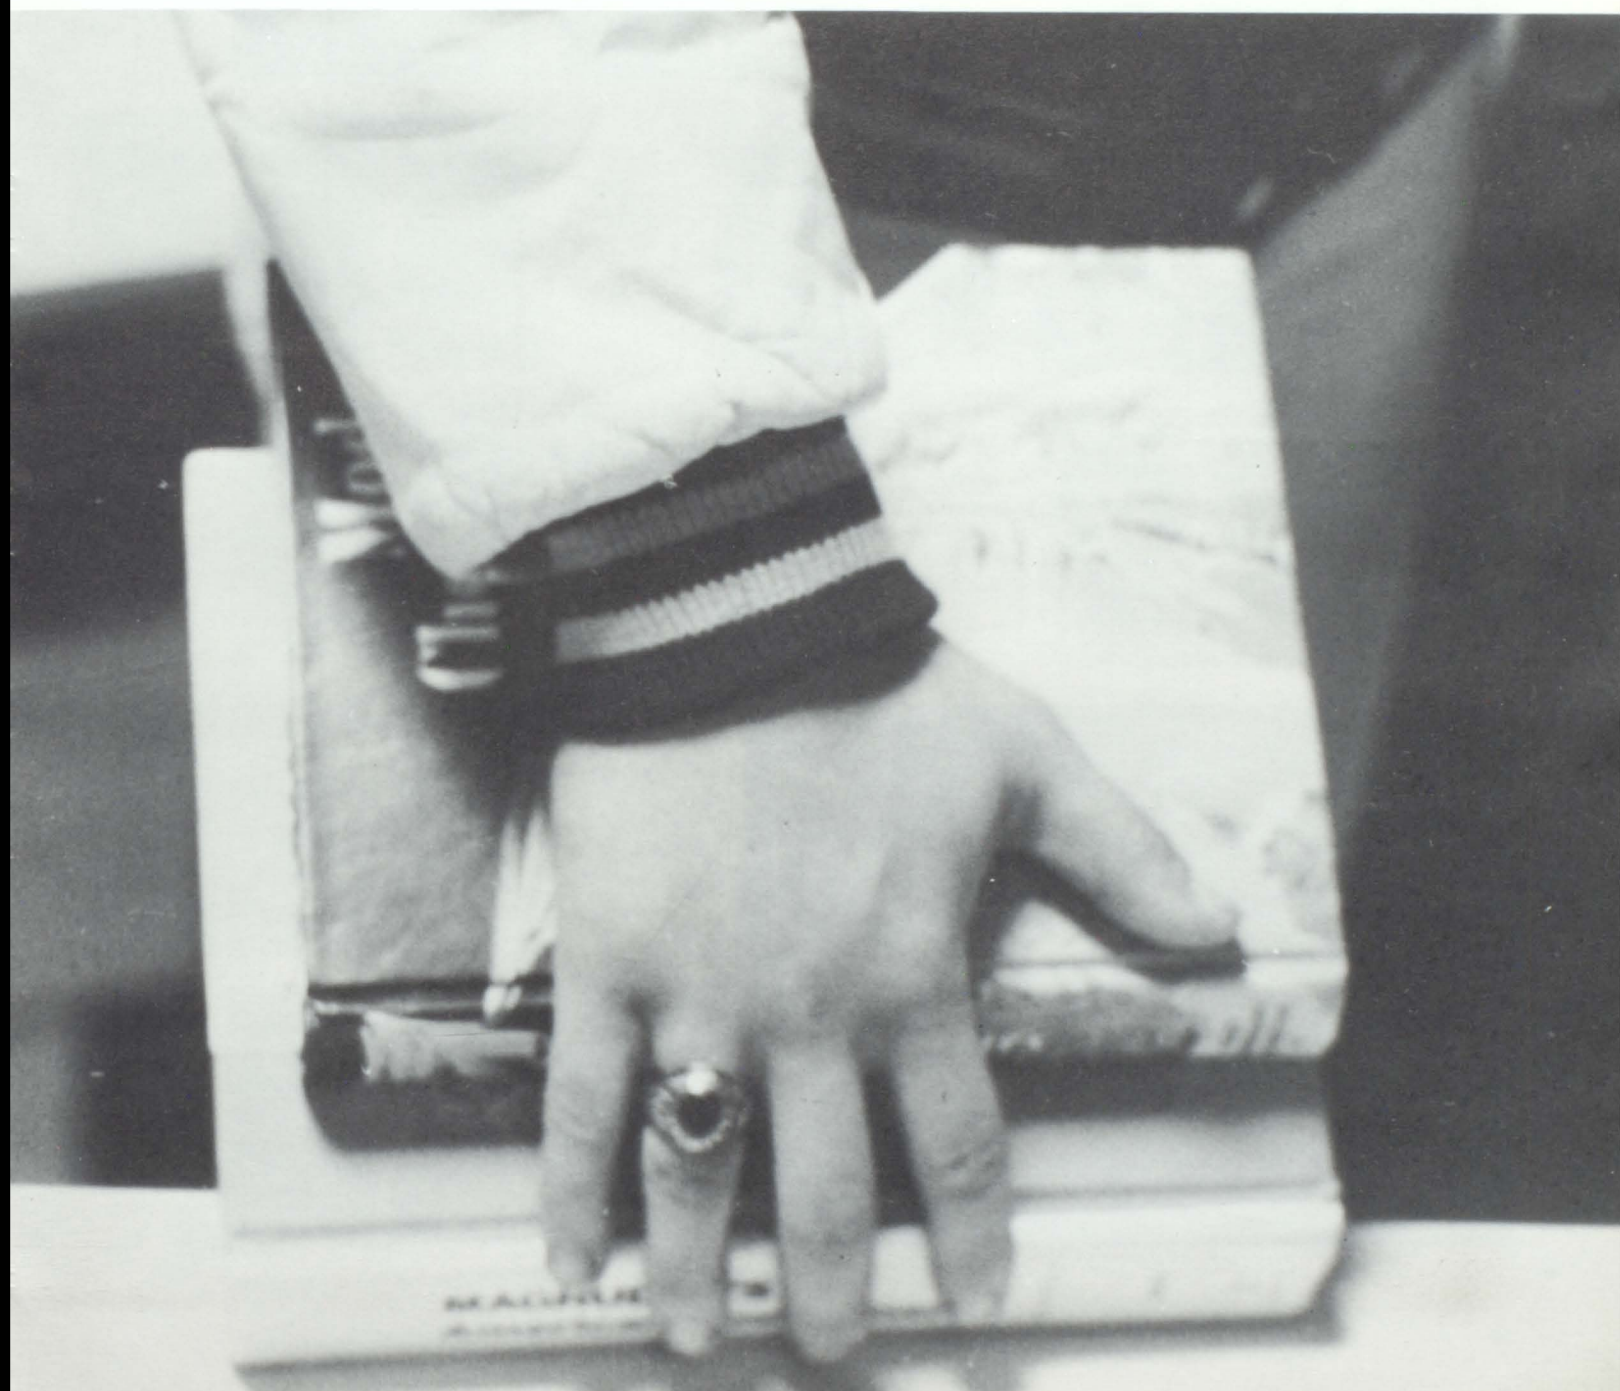

After the coronation ceremony, students gathered around the bonfire and then went to the snake dance down Egan Avenue, which was a wet experience for some.

On Friday school was dismissed at 1:27 for the pep rally, tug-of-war, and powder puff football game. The pep rally featured freshmen, sophomore, and varsity cheerleaders as well as Keep Right, the winners of the talent show. For freshman initiation, nine freshmen were asked to sing the school song.

On Friday night the Madison Bulldogs took on the Pierre Governors in the Homecoming game. The Bulldogs lost a hard fought game 16-0. After the game a Homecoming social was held in the gym with Music-On-Wheels providing the music.

BILL ALFSON

I've done the school a credit, and they know it.

DAN AMERT

Wake me up when the bell rings.

TAMMY BAMSEY

Blondes always have a sunny disposition.

KIM BAUMAN

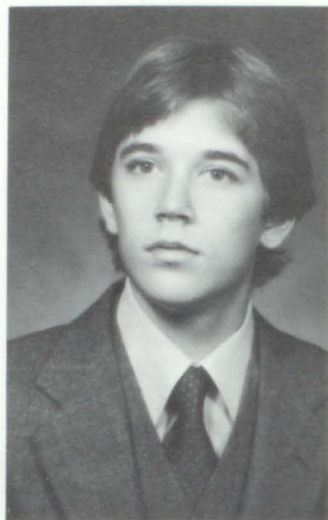

A girl of few words never needs to take any back.

RAE BECKER

Blushing is better than turning pale.

BRENT BENDER

The trouble with getting to school on time is that it makes the day so long.

HARLA BERGHEIM

You can hear her before you see her.

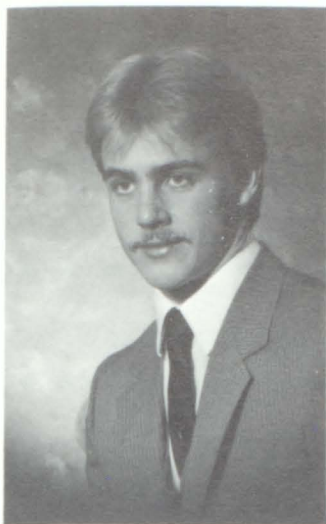

MARGARET BORTNEM

Why should I agree with the rest of the class, when I know I'm right?

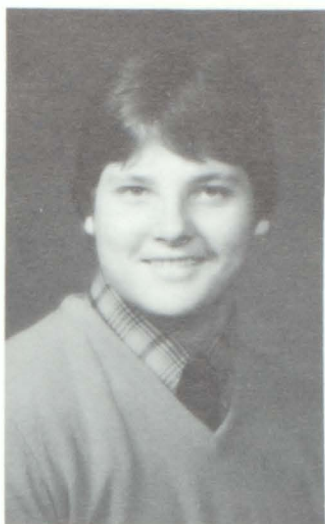

MICHELE BRACE

Why let the others have all the good times?

JEFFREY BROWN
Quiet and modest

KEITH BURRELL
I'm in favor of 7-day weekends.

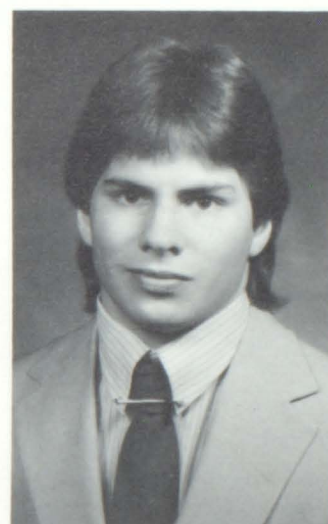

SCOTT BURTON
I'd quit school if I lost my books.

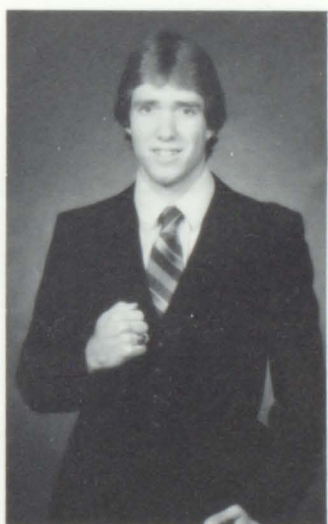

TRISH CLANCY
Why worry about tomorrow? This is today.

WILLIAM COLE
Perfect persons are rare; many come close.

ROBERT CORDTS
Men of few words are the best men.

GLADYS DUTTON
She lives in a world of wisdom.

STEVE DREW
He doesn't say much but thinks a lot.

LAYNE DYETT
He says little but to the point.

CURT EBSEN

I like three things about school: vacations, holidays, and the last day.

DALE EBBINGAR

I'd rather address a thousand men than one woman.

ANNA ERIKSSON

With vim and snap to make things go, and worth that makes you like her so.

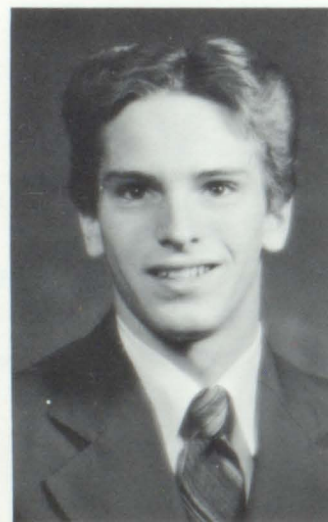

JUDY GARWOOD
She's still in her teens. Why act dignified?

SCOTT GRAYSON
He never lets his studies interfere with his education.

TERESA GREENWALT
I'm not bashful; you just don't know me.

MARY HAMMER
I prefer to seem good than be good.

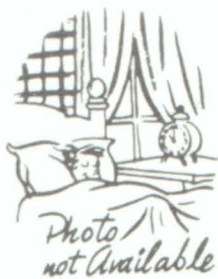

ERIC HARE
I'm telling you, there should be more men like me.

KRISTEN HAUGE
Her hair is too dark to be a good little angel.

DAN HAYES

Whoever said school was important?

TALEESIA HEPPLER

I'd never make it through the week without the weekends.

DIANE HERR

It's not what you do. It's what you get away with.

BRAD HODNE

The shortest distance between two dates is a good line.

DALLAS HOFEMAN

Though high school days have their delight, nothing compares with Friday nights.

KEVIN HOFF

You don't have to study agriculture to raise cane.

KRISTI HOFFMAN

She quietly does her share in life.

RICHARD JOHNSON

A more willing worker is hard to find.

WENDY JOHNSON

With her ability, success has an easy path.

SCOTT JONES
Step aside adolescence; I'm a man.

JANE JUNG
Says little but does much.

TERESA JUNG
A merry heart both good and kind, a truer friend is hard to find.

KIM KEFFELER
Small but that doesn't hinder her any.

JON KRUCKENBERG
There's a little bit of bad in every good little boy.

JILL LANGE
She's little and wise; she is a terror for her size.

PEGGY LANGNER
It takes a blonde to handle'em.

JARRETT LEE
I'm going to be a gentleman farmer — raise nothing but my hat.

SANDRA LEE
Dynamite comes in small packages, too.

MATTHEW LEIGHTON
You'll never regret knowing him.

JIM LENZ
The age of innocence is hard on a guy.

CYNTHIA LIMMER
She's a timid thing, but she's really got swing.

KATHERINE LINGBECK
A blonde with a smile is a blonde worth while.

JOEL MACZIEWSKI
He may look quiet but look again.

RON MADER
All great men are dead or dying. I don't feel so well myself.

TIM MADER
Why teachers get gray.

KAREN MAROON
She's a friend we all enjoy.

SCOTT MAROON
Girls go for big strong men like me.

SALLY MATHIEU
Quiet! She's going to speak.

HARVEY MEHLUM
Just wait, I'll be famous someday.

LORI MINNAERT
A quiet disposition reflects a heart of fun.

JERRY MOHR
His motto: Rest, then work.

TAMMY MORGAN
Her manner is quiet, but don't judge her by that.

JEFF NELSON
Easy to get along with.

CHERYL NORLDING
When it comes to pep, she's right in step.

JEFF ODENBRETT
If study were the only cause of death, I'd live forever.

ROCKY O'LOUGHLLEN
Who cares about the week, the weekends are more fun.

JON OLSON

A leader of men. A follower of women.

RICKY OLSON

Lead him not into temptation, but show him where it is.

BRAD PALMATIER

He believes in a two-party system: one on Friday, one on Saturday.

JENNIFER PARDY
She loves but one — at a time.

RODNEY PETERSON
Tall, dark, and well, two out of three isn't bad.

KRISTY POLZEN
If silence were golden, she'd be poverty stricken.

SHAWN POTTS
Who'll entertain the class when I'm gone?

KELLY QUAM
Bashful, shy, and oh what a lie!

PAM RAASTAD
When I have nothing better to do, I come to school.

EDWARD RHINE
He smiled and said — Just don't rush me.

JANET RILEY
A pins drop would make more noise than she does.

JERRY ROBSON
I go my way and bother no one.

RANDY SAMPLE
Quiet ones are, at time, most surprising.

KELLI SHEFFIELD
Her friends are many, and her faults are few.

TERESA SOMMARS
Unpredictable — like a hiccup.

HEIDI STEFFEN
She is always a friend to those who know her.

MICHELLE STERUD
The more you know her, the better you like her.

TODD STERZINGER
In my desk my books do lie; they are at rest and so am I.

DARRYN STRANG

I'll do my living now, and make sure it gets done.

STEVE STROM

I'll judge anything: cattle, girls, . . .

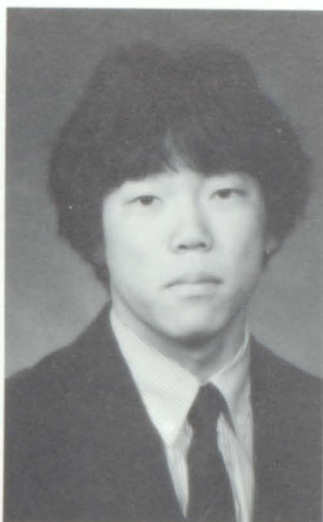

CHUCK STROUD

Oh no, I'm not up early. I'm just getting in late.

MARTY TAKAGI
Send me a kiss by wire.

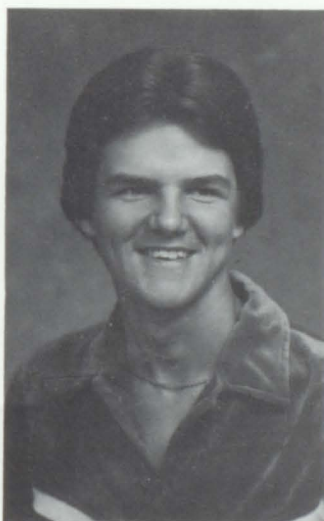

JOSEPH TAYLOR
His kind is uncommon.

PEGGY THOMPSON
Her friends know her true worth.

JIM THOMPSON

He doesn't mind school; it's the studying.

JAM TIEMAN

How lovely school would be without lessons.

BETH TYC

Is there anything she can't do?

DANI WEBER

If wind were electricity, she'd be a power plant.

BILL WEISBECKER

How do they expect me to learn? They give me a different lesson everyday.

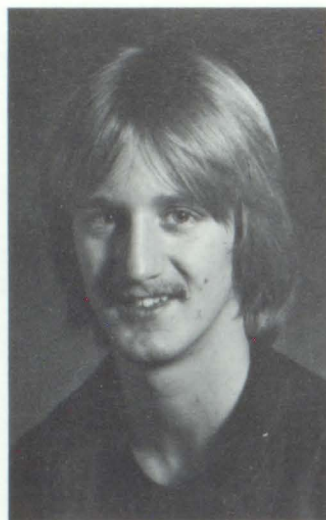

LISA WERNISCH

Blondes can be manufactured, but red-heads come natural.

PATRICK WILLIAMS
Take it easy or not at all.

ROBERT WOLF
The shy ones will do it every time.

KELLY YUNKER
She has her own definition of fun.

The Madison High School Girls Basketball Team ended the season with a 9 win 13 loss record. In sectional play the Lady Bulldogs defeated the Flandreau Indians and Chamberlain to earn a berth in the State Tournament. Many consider this year's team to be the best in the school's history as they were competing in the tough ESD Conference against schools two and three times their size. Kelli Sheffield, MHS Senior, was named to the All State Team.

The Lake Central FFA Chapter has been active in numerous projects and activities during the past year. The members started the year by planting a test plot of soybeans and then they constructed a picnic shelter at the Northwest City Park with money received from a federal grant. Chapter members are involved in numerous judging schools and contests in the areas of agribusiness and production agriculture. The Lake Central Chapter had two state farmers, Rod Peterson and Kevin Hoff. Richard Johnson was selected as a State Agribusinessman. Rod Peterson received a State proficiency award in Home and Farmstead improvement. The highlight of the year is the Chapter Banquet and State Convention.

DEBATE

The MHS Debate Squad demonstrated another successful season even though the squad was relatively a young group. The squad traveled to Sioux Falls, Aberdeen, Huron, Mitchell, Mitchell, Brooking and Watertown throughout the season. Many students found success in competition at the three Central Forensics Tournaments which were held in Mitchell. The Championship Team of Ken Meyer and Carmen Means were the only advanced team squad members that competed this year. Leslie Lienemann, Ken Meyer, Carmen Means and Gladys Dutton demonstrated successful proficiency at the level of Lincoln-Douglas Debate. The remainder of the squad the JV level and Novice level had many successes in competitive rounds. The Novice Debaters composed mostly of sophomore and freshmen had good experiences breaking into the areas of forensic competition. As the season came to an end the students enjoyed a fine trip to Pierre to participate in the NFL Student Congress and SDFCA Model Legislature.

Trophies won in Debate, Declam and I Act Play Competition.

The 1983-84 Declam season began with the Clear Lake Contest on October 8th and ended with the State Oral Interp Festival in Mitchell on November 18th and 19th. Carmen Means brought home four awards in memorized oratory, taking 3rd place at Aberdeen, Watertown, and Sioux Falls Lincoln and 1st place at the division contest in Brookings. Winners at the local contest were: Shannon Dyce in humor, Becky Johnson in poetry, Margaret Bortnem in prose, Susan Muller in dramatics and Carmen Means in oratory. This years' competitors in each division were as follows: Humor — Dani Weber, Scott Burton, Shannon Dyce, Colleen Lang and Becky Johnson. Poetry — Becky Johnson, Kelly Calmus, Ken Meyer and Valorie Ross. Prose — Margaret Bortnem and Brett Carlson. Oratory — Carmen Means and Max Richter. Drama Susan Muller, Carmen Means and Duet Acting — Robin Riedel, Marie Kostboth, Becky Johnson and Colleen Lang. This year's declam season was lots of fun, but undoubtedly, the highlight of the year was the luxurious splendor of the Alonzo Ward — right, declamers?

The MHS Band started the season in marching competition at the Dakota Dome in Vermillion. They were judged 1st in Parade and Field competition and won 1st. place trophies in Drum Major and Flag Corps Competition. The Band was also named Over-All winners in the Dakota State Homecoming marching contest and received a 1st place in Class A at the Optitmist Field Competition in Brookings. There were 21 students who auditioned for All-State Band this year. Mark Glanzer and Melanie Junker were selected as All-State Alternates. In region competition in Sioux Falls 41 events were entered. Superior awards were earned in 25 of these events. At the Large Group Contest held in Madison the Concert Band and Jazz Band both received superior ratings. The Concert Band and Jazz Band presented a winter concert at the high school for parents, students and friends of the Band. In March the Jazz Band I will travel to Vermillion to participate in the Coyote Jazz Festival. On June 1st the entire band will be traveling to Colorado Springs to participate in the Pikes Peak Music Festival. Because of the interest that has been generated in the band program Mr. Haenfler will be directing two separate bands at the high school next year.

Though the numbers are down in the MHS Concert Choir, the quality is not. This is proven by the high ratings the choir has received in contests along with the quality of their public performances during the year. Two major concerts are given, as well as performances at various church and community events. The choir is under the new direction of Miss Nancy Edwards. She stated, "I am very impressed with the talent I see here at MHS — not only in chorus, but in all areas of fine arts. Now that chorus has a regular daily rehearsal time, its future looks very promising.

OF THE EM A IR NY S A G N I R T A Y R D

This year's drama entry in the One-Act Play Contest was "The Insanity of Mary Girard" by Lanie Robertson. The cast under the direction of Mr. Jim Miller competed at Wauertown on the Division I level and received a superior trophy. The play was then produced at NSC in Aberdeen for state competition and received an excellent rating. The story of the play focuses on Mary who has been conveniently placed in an asylum by her husband to be rid of her. The time is 1790 and the place was the Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia. As the events unfold to tell us Mary's story, we slowly watch her realize her solution is to be "truly and happily insane . . ."
