Homecoming at M.H.S. was scheduled a bit differently this year than it had been in the past. Monday was Occupation Day (which included the usual doctors, judges, and even a few pro ball players) and the Talent Show. The Talent Show consisted of thirteen acts. Tuesday the school was "cool" or "punk", at its best with Hat, Sucker and Shades Day. The Girls Basketball team also got into the scene with a pep rally and a game. On Thursday night coronation ceremonies, bonfire and the snake dance were held. Thursday was also appointed the official Punk, Toga and Hawaiian Day. Jeff Kirstein and Roxy Bamsey were crowned 1984 Homecoming King and Queen. Carmen Means was Mistress of Ceremonies for Homecoming and Kris Kappenman escorted the candidates. Melanie Junker sang "The Rose" and "Rainbow Connection" accompanied by Barb Davidson on the piano. As the football team prepared for their big game the entire school was dismissed early for the pep rally and tug-o-war. The football game ended with the Mitchell Kernals downing the Bulldogs 34-0. A Homecoming Social was held after the game with Music on Wheels providing the entertainment.

TALENT SHOW BEGINS HOMECOMING WEEK

One tradition that has been maintained for years during Homecoming Week is the Talent Show. Masters of Ceremonies for this year's Talent Show were Kris Kappenman and Rob Haug. They introduced twelve acts while trying to keep the crowd entertained with their "???" jokes. Placing 1st in the skits was the "Dirty Dozen", performed by the Flag Corps. They sang a mother's advice to the tune of the "Twelve Days of Christmas". Participants were Rachel Lambert, Deb Olson, Peggy Bulick, Melanie Junker, Marlee Venekamp, Karen Brace, Gigi Coates, Michelle Bauman, Jody Hoff, Heidi Lange, Robin Riedel and Cathy Sample. — 2nd place was "Karizma"! This dynamic young rock group sang and played "Never Take Your Love Away", and "Hit Me With Your Best Shot". Participants were Jodi Williams, Mark Glanzer, Michael Glanzer, Daron Sckerl and Michelle Avery. — 3rd place went to the skit, "Definitely Not the News". It was put on by the debate team: Max Richter, Becky Johnson, Richard Konkell, Heather Means, Elizabeth Haar, Jeanelle Robson, Suellen Hageman and Laura Meyer. — Other skits were: Michele Leigh performed a beautiful piano solo, "Lady". She was assisted by Kristi Hughes. — A Crowded movie theatre became a barrier between two young people on a date, "At the Movies". Participants were Becky Johnson, Colleen Lang, Tracy Issenhuth, Jodi Williams, Kathleen Kappenman, Heidi Lange, Nikki Blanchette, Sara Simpson and Rhonda Hopf. — Leslie Lienemann and Margaret McQueen resurrected a scene from the off Broadway Comedy, "Scuba, Duba". In this scene we saw the reaction of the former husband when his ex-wife came to get his things. — In "The Big Story" a reporter threatened suicide and tricked six celebrities into killing themselves so that he could get a big scoop. — Rhonda Hopf got together the courage to do a solo skit. It was a very creative story entitled "Mistaken Identity", about a teapot that turned out to be a sugar bowl. — "The Old School House" skit was presented by the Student Council members; Jeff Kirstein, Ken Meyer, Monica Nelson, Mark Bender, Leslie Lienemann, Dean Eimers, Carmen Means, Sam Kirstein, Becky Johnson, Dawn Balogh, Colleen Lang and Karen Klingbale. — "Late Night With the Vo-Ag Boys", ended up in the audience. Participants were Bill O'Loughlen, Alan Maas, Tim Dixon, Gerald Bergheim, Brian Harmdierks and Steve Langner. — "School Daze", portrayed the way freshmen behave in school. Participants were Adam Palmquist, Steve Sample, Todd Balogh, Gary Pitts, Jim Peterson and Brian Hodne. — "If I were not a Junior", was very original. It encouraged more enthusiasm for the game on Friday.

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT
Ken Meyer

The MHS student body is served efficiently by a student council. Every year three officers are elected in each class. These are a president, a vice president, and a class representative. A student body president is a senior elected by the entire school.

All of these officers including a secretary and, as of this year, a parliamentarian attend the Student Council meetings approximately once a month. At these meetings such events as Homecoming, Sweetheart, and Prom are planned. Any problems that need to be dealt with are also discussed. For example, a few of the items debated this year were: What movie to have for Christmas? Who will decorate for Prom? What should be done to clean up our halls? How can we stop the bombing of our toilets?

These are just a few of the responsibilities of our student council. These are the people our students depend on for organization and representation.

Madison High's Class "A" comedy one-act entry this year was "Twain by the Tale." On the Division 1 level, the play received a superior rating and qualified as one of the top twelve "A" school productions in South Dakota. At the division level, in Watertown Jan. 11, David Bice, Carmen Means, Ken Meyer, Leslie Lienemann, Margaret McQueen and Becky Johnson received superior acting awards. The play was presented again at the University of South Dakota on Feb. 1 at the "State A" final competition. The play was awarded an excellent rating. Superior acting awards presented to us at "State" went to Sue Muller, Margaret McQueen, Richard Konkell, Ladd McCluskey, Ken Meyer, Leslie Lienemann, Becky Johnson and Shayne Hawkins. The production was staged and directed by Mr. Jim Miller.

Madison High Theater '85 presented a musical production involving seventy-two students. The play was called "... boys and girls together ...". Directed by Mr. Jim Miller, musical direction by Ms. Nancy Edwards and technical assistance from Stuart Lickteig rounded out the helm. The story was set in 1899 and centered around sweet young Daisy. She leaves her home in Montezuma, Indiana, to go to New York to learn to become a stenographer. Her life becomes complicated when she falls for Casey and after that the problems seem to multiply. While Ida and Jimmy, two young friends confuse and complicate the plot, they help bring about a final solution to the story that makes it "... the only game in town."

The MHS Band opened the season by performing on Sept. 15th at the Dakota Dome for a University of S. D. football game. The MHS Homecoming performance on Sept. 21st brought a standing ovation from the spectators. On Sept. 29th the band performed in Aberdeen and earned a 1st place in street competition, 1st place in field competition, and the sweepstakes award. Drum majors Ladd McClusky, Dana Hagen and Brett Carlson received the best drum majors trophy. On Oct. 13th the band repeated their winning routine as they captured 1st place in both street and field competition and took home the sweepstakes trophy at the Trojan Day Band competition in Madison.

Band students received 32 superior ratings at the Region 11 Music Contest which included 13 ensembles and 19 soloists. The annual winter concert was presented by the Concert and Symphonic Band on Feb. 26th. On March 26th Jazz Band 1 and 2 traveled to Vermillion for the Coyote Jazz Festival. Jazz Band 1 received a superior rating. Then on March 30th both Jazz bands received superior ratings at the large group music contest. The Symphonic Band also received a superior rating at this contest.

Melanie Junker, Barb Davidson and Dori Hanson were selected to the All-State Band at the contest that was held in Mitchell. During the year the band also performed at numerous athletic, school and civic functions. Mr. Haenfler said that he is enthusiastic about the performance of the bands and is expecting even greater accomplishments next year.

The MHS Mixed Chorus has grown during the past year from 13 to 38 members. During the year, they performed at 2 major concerts, sang at Baccalaureate, and participated in the All-State Chorus, solo and ensemble contests, and large group contest. The Choir received 16 superior and 12 excellent ratings at the solo and ensemble contest in Sioux Falls. At the large group contest held in Madison, the choir received unanimous superior ratings. This year the choir held 2 fund raising campaigns to pay for a trip to the Chanhassen Dinner Theatre near Minneapolis, Minnesota. The choir members are to be congratulated for their accomplishments. Through hard work, a superior choral organization has once again been established at Madison High School.

After it's all been said and written about, not much is left but the memories. And the two students most responsible for capturing these memories and locking them in forever are Tim Connor and Rhonda Hopf. Tim and Rhonda have spent their first period study hall during the year assembling the pages of this year's annual. Richard Westall has assisted in the photography department. Other staff members have also contributed numerous hours to the production of the annual. With a year of learning under their belts, Tim and Rhonda hope to add additional features to the 1986 yearbook. A great "thank you" goes to Tim and Rhonda for all of their hard work and devotion in a job where few thanks and rewards are available.

Three of the FBLA students placed in several categories at the state Future Business Leaders of America competition in Mitchell April 21-23. Danean Hulm was first in stenography 11 (Shorthand) and third in word processing. Her first place entitles her to represent South Dakota at the national FBLA event in Houston in July. Lisa Hodne placed second in accounting 1. Karen Brace won third in office procedures, which carries with it a $1000 scholarship from National College of Business. Danean also won first place recently in the state in the Olympia National Scholastic Typing Contest, which entitles her to go on to the Nationals. She also received a portable Olympia typewriter.

The 1984-85 oral interpretation season began in Madison at the DSC Invitational with a resounding success. Becky Johnson won 1st in poetry, Carmen Means won 1st in poetry, Carmen Means won 1st in dramatics, Sue Muller won 3rd in Humor, Patty Mauf placed 5th in Prose, and the duet team of Carmen Means and Becky Johnson won 1st in duet acting. Madison brought home the sweepstakes trophy. At an after-school tournament in Milbank, Becky Johnson and Patty Mauf received superior-plus ratings. The next invitational was in Clear Lake, where Becky Johnson placed 5th in prose. The last invitational tournament was in Aberdeen, with Becky Johnson winning 2nd in poetry and Sue Muller placing 5th in Humor. The local contest was judged by Miss Nancy Wheeler, an instructor at SDSU. Winners of the local contest, advancing to the regional contest in Brookings, were: Becky Johnson, Poetry; Ken Meyer, Humor; Carmen Means, Drama; John Hojnacke, Prose and Heather Means, Oratory. At the regional contest, Ken, Heather, and John received excellents. Carmen and Becky received superiors which earned them the right to compete at the State Oral Interpretation Contest in Aberdeen. At the State Tournament, Carmen received an excellent rating and Becky received a superior rating. With only 2 seniors graduating, the future of the MHS Oral Interpretation Squad is bright indeed!

The 1984-85 debate season was very successful, with many people advancing to final rounds of competition and a total of 39 trophies won. The season of invitational tournaments got off to a good start at Beresford. The Junior Varsity debate team of Laura Meyer, Jeanelle Robson, Erich Gilbert and Brett Carlson took 2nd place, and Brett won a superior speaker award. The next contest, at Aberdeen saw the J.V. team (with Max Richter in place of Erich Gilbert) with a 3rd, Suellen Hageman with a second in novice extemp, and Carmen Means with a second in Lincoln-Douglas debate and 3rd in Oratory. At the Brookings Bell Special, the final tournament of 1984, the J.V. team won 3rd place, and Carmen placed 1st in L.D., 2nd in International Extemp, and won a speaker award.

The first invitational tournament of 1985 was the Lincoln H.S. Silverbowl. Ken Meyer won 6th in Domestic extemp, Heather Means won 4th in Novice Oratory, and Carmen Means won 5th in International Extemp and 1st in Lincoln Douglas. At the Pi Kappa Delta tournament at NSC in January, Carmen again won 1st place in L-D. At the Karl E. Mundt Tournament held in Madison, Ken placed 3rd in Domestic Extemp, and Carmen won second in international Extemp and 1st in Lincoln-Douglas.

Madison debated at 3 Central Forensic Conference Tournaments in Mitchell during the 1984-85 season. The trophies won at these tournaments were: Elizabeth Haar - 1st in novice extemp, Max Richter - 2nd Varsity Oratory, Ken Meyer - 1st - LD and 1st Varsity Extemp, Heather Means - 2 seconds in Novice Oratory, Carmen Means - 2 seconds in LD, 2 firsts in Varsity Oratory, 1 first and 1 second in Varsity Extemp, the JV team (Jeanelle, Laura, Erich, Brett) 2 firsts, and the debate team of Mike Benning, Elizabeth Haar, Ryan Gienapp and Max Richter - 1st place in novice debate. All debaters won speakers awards. Madison won the debate sweepstakes trophy, and the travelling trophy for total sweepstakes points.

The culmination of the debate season was the 2 national-qualifying tournaments - N.F.L. and state debate. At the National Forensic Tournament in Sioux Falls, Ken Meyer placed 8th in Domestic Extemp and Carmen Means won second in International Extemp and first in LD, earning her the right to compete at Nationals in Eau Claire in June.

After being co-champions in the Regional debate contest in Huron, the champ team of Ken Meyer and Tim Ewald advanced to the State Debate Tournament. They were quarter-finalists, tying for 4th place in the state.

The National Forensic League, an esteemed nationwide organization, is made up of students who participate in Speech tournaments. Forensics at Madison High School has provided a wide variety of opportunities for students, through tough competition and meeting new people and to earn the profits of winning and losing, and learn some of the more basic human values that are essential in life.

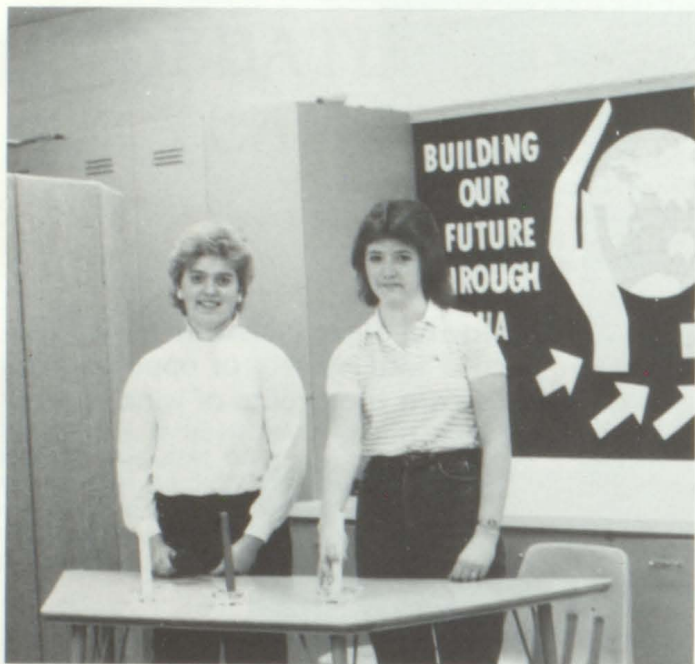

A sampling of the trophies earned by the debate team this past year.

"BUILDING OUR FUTURE" was the theme for the monthly 1984-85 FHA meetings. Special emphasis was given to developing leadership skills and decision making skills. Monetary contributions were made to the state scholarship fund, statue of liberty fund, and the March of Dimes. A community project involved helping with the CROP city-wide jog-a-thon, which was a world hunger relief drive.

BULLDOGS LEAVE ESD CONFERENCE

The Madison Bulldogs played their first season of non-ESD Conference football in sixty years. It was in 1924 that Madison entered the Eastern South Dakota Football Conference. Because of declining enrollment at Madison High School and the increased size of the other ESD Schools the decision to drop out of the EDS Conference was made by the Board of Education. Recommendations of the coaching staff, school faculty and community sports fans influenced the decision. Some local ESD fans decried the decision saying that Madison was able to compete in the ESD, but records indicate that in sixty years Madison's only conference championship was a three-way tie in 1965. Most years the Bulldogs ended up in the bottom half of the conference standings. This year the Bulldogs played an independent schedule. In 1986 they will be competing in the reorganized Big Eight Conference with Brandon, West Central, Lennox, Canton and Vermillion. This should give the Bulldogs a better chance of bringing home the spoils. Increased school loyalty and support is expected. Hopefully, there will be less injuries such as have plagued the team in former years because of being outnumbered and outsized.

The Boys Cross Country Team completed a successful season by placing 1st in the Arlington Inv., 1st in the Regional and 12th in the State Meet. Coach, Bob Miller feels that his boys performed outstandingly well considering that they ran most of their meets without a complete team.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

The Girls Cross Country Team, not to be outdone by the Boys, placed 1st in the Arlington Inv., Madison Inv. and Regional Meet. They also earned themselves a 3rd in the Tri-State Inv. and a 4th in the Pipestone Inv. Then to complete a very successful season, they earned themselves a 5th in the State Track Meet.

The Madison High School Gymnastic Team completed a very successful season. The team earned themselves a first in the Milbank Quadrangular, placed first in a dual meet with Pipestone, placed second in the Watertown Invitational in a field of twelve teams and scored 117.3 points in the Regional Meet. Five girls earned the right to compete in state competition. They were: Melanie Junker, Jeni Wenk, Shani Johnson, Leslie Stout and Denise Ziebarth. Melanie placed 4th on floor competition and 6th all around and Jeni placed 7th on the beam and 8th all around.

The MHS girls volleyball team ended the season with 7 wins and 17 losses. Coach Frank Guenther started the season with an inexperienced squad, having no returning lettermen. The early season goals was to show steady improvement. Coming from a 2 win - 10 loss 1st half season, the team finished the 2nd half with a 5 win - 7 loss record. The highlight of the season was a 2nd place finish in the Huron Invitational Tournament. The Bulldogs defeated Gregory and then last year's State "B" Champions, Webster, before losing to Todd County in the finals. Hopes are high for next year's team as a fine nucleus of returning lettermen will be back from which to build a winning team.

JR. SR. BANQUET

"Night in Heaven" was the theme for the 1985 Prom and Banquet. The theme was carried out by decorating the school lunch room in the colors of blue and silver. To add to the theme a stairway leading to the heavens was constructed. The evening commenced with a banquet at Nicky's. Dawn Balogh, Junior Class President, welcomed the seniors with Jeff Kirstein, Senior Class President responding. Following the banquet the Junior and Senior students and guests danced to the music of "Rysk." The Highlight of the evening was the crowning of King and Queen Carol Thompson and Delon Mork.
