Hoedown Throwdown

Happy Formal Goers

Brady Meinerts, Mackenzie Robson, Tiffany Heeren and Donovan Kullnet are all dressed up and ready to Hoedown Throwdown.

This year's formal theme was Hoedown, Throwdown. The Madison FBLA chapter members were in charge of all the details of putting the dance together. Members met every week during the fall to decide on a theme and create decorations. This year's theme was a country western theme inspired by Dakota State University's gala. Students in grades 9 through 12 are encouraged to attend. Proceeds from the dance are used for members to attend national conferences and to be able to give a donation to the March of Dimes.

I Love Argument, I Love Debate

-- Margaret Thatcher

By: Rebecca Froehlich

Debate Team

Hannah Lynch, Amy Shan, Mona El Gayar and Rebecca Froehlich are part of the debate team.

Debate Partners

Mona El Gayar and Amy Shan made the quarter finals at the State Debate Tournament.

Do you like a good fight? Are you assertive, outspoken or just looking to have some good argumentative fun? Debate just might be for you! Madison, hometown of Karl E. Mundt, has a great history of debate and speech, making high school debate a natural fit for academic activities. Mrs. Nills is the school's debate coach once again this year, assisted by Spencer Daniels. The program is looking for new enlisters. So why join debate? Meeting other people from other schools and sharing and debating ideas are two reasons Amy Shan says for being in debate. "It's a lot of fun," she says. It's also an educational experience as well as an activity colleges especially search for on applications

With oral interpretation ending, debate season has just begun, with December's topic being prepared for and researched. Topics ranging from plea bargaining to cyber bullying were covered last year, and this year promises to guarantee more topics for discussion that will expand your mind and surprise you. High school debate runs from November through February. Meetings are in Mrs. Nills' room on Mondays after school.

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) Win at State Leadership Conference

By: Rush Milne

At the beginning of this month, Mrs. Olson and her husband, Steve, took 14 MHS students to Sioux Falls for the annual Future Business Leaders of America State Conference. Those students included Aric Olson, James Clarke, Bailey Johnson, Brandon Booth, Tyler Wiebe, Jacob Ricke, Hannah Lynch, Rush Milne, Jacob Giles, Corbin Gunderson, Jordan Unterbrunner, Brandon Burg, Courtney Ebsen, and Rayann Larson. Each of us took part in either taking business related tests or presenting various business plans or ideas. If we placed within the top two or, in some events, three in the state, we qualified for nationals in San Antonio, Texas. Madison had 5 people qualify for nationals. Place winners were: Aric Olson, 1st, Accounting 1 and 4th, Personal Finance; James Clarke, 1st, Accounting 2, 2nd, Personal Finance, 5th, Business Procedures and 5th Business Law; Bailey Johnson, 2nd, Accounting II; Brandon Booth, 3rd, Business Law; Tyler Wiebe, 3rd, Accounting II; and Rayann Larson, 4th Accounting 1. The Banking and Financial Systems team of Bailey, James and Aric also placed 5th.

I know a weekend of taking tests sounds like a ton of fun, but they threw in enjoyable things, too. There was a dance, a comedian, movies, a spelling relay and we got to take part in electing next year's state officers. All in all, the weekend was an awesome experience. It forced me and other members to step out of our comfort zones and try new things. I'm so happy that I chose to go and I can't wait for next year's conference!

Family Career and Community Leaders of America

FCCLA, which stands for Family Career and Community Leaders of America, centers on building strong leaders for America's future. It is the only National organization with family as its focus. The organization has been in existence since 1945 and has over 220,000 members nationwide.

Four members of the Madison FCCLA Chapter traveled to Dell Rapids on February 1, 2012, to participate in the District III FCCLA Meeting. Competing this year with an Illustrated Talk was Chelsea Welbon. Chelsea received a Gold rating and will move on to compete at the State Leadership Meeting in Sioux Falls. Chelsea also was a District Officer candidate. After testing and interviews, Chelsea was elected District III Secretary for the 2012-2013 school year.

The State Meeting of the South Dakota FCCLA association was held April 22-24, 2012 in Sioux Falls. Four members attended from Madison High School. Students attending were Trevor Clark Chrissy Parsley, Chelsea Welbon and Heather Lee. Chelsea Welbon competed with her Illustrated Talk and received a Gold rating. Students attended various workshops and meetings during the 3-day event.

The Madison FCCLA chapter would like to give a special thank you to Joyce Welbon and Anna Garza for judging and chaperoning both meetings. Thank you to everyone who supported our fund-raising efforts this year! The FCCLA chapter raised money for State Meeting expense, Cystic Fibrosis and the Children's Miracle Network.²

Heartland and KJAM Students of the Month

Heartland Consumers Power District and KJAM Radio have teamed up to offer an exceptional student in one of five area school districts the designation of "Student of the Month." Heartland provides wholesale power to the cities of Colman, Arlington, Volga, Madison and Howard, all of which are in the KJAM listening area. Each month of the school year, Heartland will recognize an outstanding student from one of these schools. The student will be presented a recognition certificate and a small token from Heartland. Advertisements announcing the winning student will air on KJAM the last week of each month. Each participating school nominates students for the award.

November, Aric Olson

"Aric is a hardworking student with good leadership skills," said Madison High School Principal Sharon Knowlton. "He gets his work done in class and inspires others to do the same. He is a great role model and motivator for our younger students." Aric served as team captain of the football team and is active in Future Business Leaders of America, National Honor Society, band, track and field, and church projects. He also participates in boy scouts and recently achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. Aric is the son of Steve and Kristie Olson. He has three brothers, Andy, Aaron and Austin. He plans to attend the University of South Dakota next fall and major in Business Administration.

February, Clare Schubert

According to Madison High School Principal Sharon Knowlton, Clare is a dedicated, diligent and responsible student who strives for excellence in her daily practices as well as her performance. Clare is also a serious musician with whom her instructors enjoy working. "Clare works to improve and strengthen her musical skills each day with a passion for learning while encouraging others to do the same for themselves," added Knowlton. Clare is the daughter of Daryl and Jane Schubert. She is active in show choir as well as color guard and school plays. She also works part-time at Second Street Diner and is involved in her church's youth group. After high school, she plans to attend college and is considering majoring in either Business or Education.

Honors and Awards

Amy Shan Named Distinguished Finalist in Spirit of Community Award

Amy Shan, junior, was named one of the top runners-up in the 2012 Prudential Spirit of Community Award in South Dakota. This nationwide program honors young people for outstanding acts of volunteerism. The Prudential Spirit of Community Award, now in its 17th year, is conducted by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Second School Principals (NASSP). Amy implemented a recycling program at MHS and has educated both faculty and students about the importance of recycling. Amy, shocked by the number of items the school threw in the garbage that could be recycled, partnered with a local recycling company to pick up recyclables, produced an educational video and has been coordinating the program for more than two years. "Through their selfless acts of service, these award recipients have greatly improved the lives of others," said Prudential Chair and CEO John Strangfeld. "It's important to highlight them as powerful examples of how young people can make a difference."

Business Students Keep Busy with Business Idea Competition

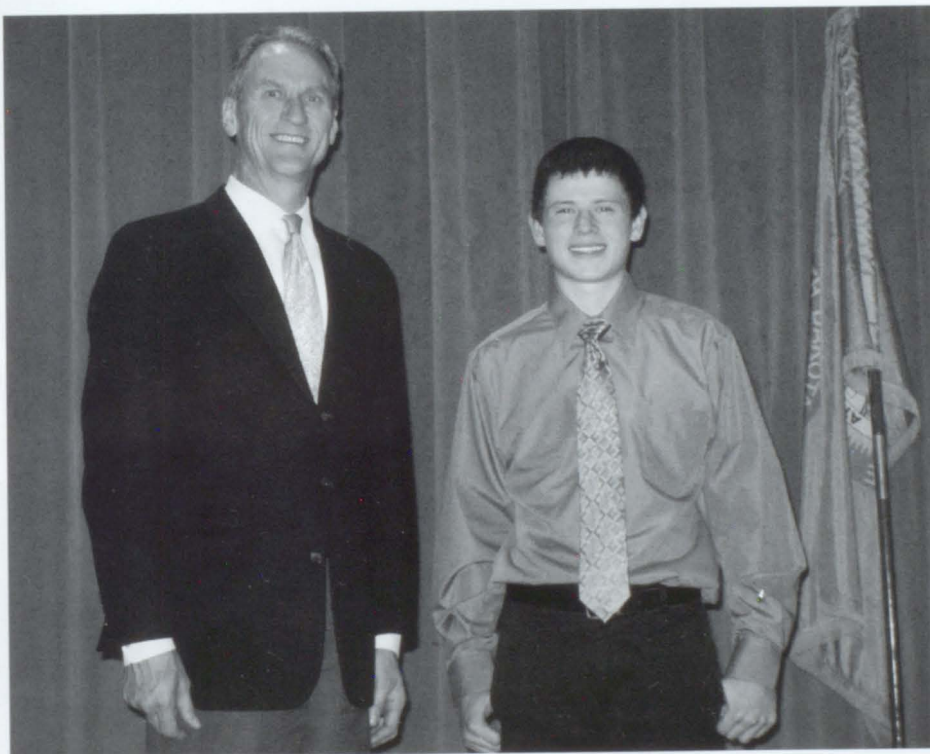

Sixteen Entrepreneurship students have been busy 1st semester creating innovative business ideas and putting those ideas into business plans. The students submitted their best business ideas to the 2011 BIG Idea Competition, a competition for high school students sponsored by Northern State University, Presentation College, Aberdeen Development Corporation, Tom & Danielle Aman Foundation and Absolutely!Aberdeen and South Dakota Small Business Development Center. Out of the 169 entries from 21 different schools, Hayden Namken was chosen as one of the 8 finalists (pictured above, third from left, back row). Jason Williams, Forrest Fawbush and Kara Pederson were named as Honorable Mentions.

SD Banker's Association Business Plan Winner

Tom Rowland was a finalist in the 22nd Annual Business Plan Competition for high school students. The contest is sponsored annually by the South Dakota Bankers Foundation and the Governor's Office of Economic Development. As a finalist, he was awarded $300 at the South Dakota Bankers Association State Legislative Reception in Pierre. Governor Dennis Daugaard presented Tom with his prize.

iPOD Winner in DOE Contest

Earlier this year Madison students completed a project on SDMyLife, a computerized career search program where they were able to identify and learn about business networks throughout the state. All students completing the exercise by saving three careers of interest to their portfolio were entered in a state-wide competition. Freshman Hunter Robson was selected as the winner of an iPod Touch and iTunes cards. This contest was sponsored by the Department of Education.

The Corners Are Up

Having made newspaper columns for the supports, Kyle Roemen and James Clarke try to figure out their next step in building a newspaper shelter.

Everyone in the Shelter

Danny Bendt, Forrest Fawbush and Hayden Namken complete their project-build a free standing shelter your whole team can fit in using only newspaper and tape.

Time to Build

With only 30 minutes to build a freestanding shelter that the whole team can fit in, Tom Rowland, Orion Hawes, D'Artist Williams and Leo Farfan get busy with the newspaper and tape.

Planning Time

Given 10 minutes to come up with a plan to build a shelter out of newspaper and tape, Hayden Namken, Matt DeBilzan and Kyle Roemen brain storm together.

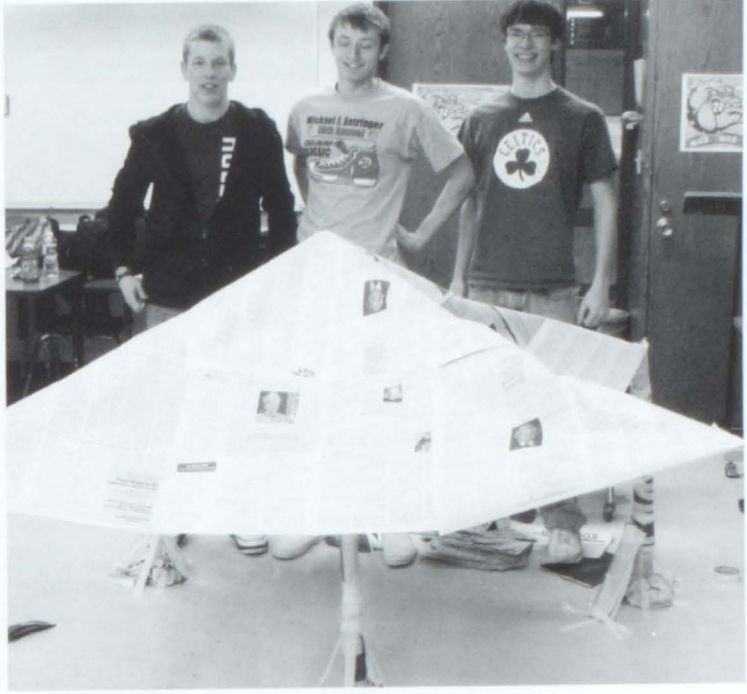

Busy Hands, Busy Minds

Bailey Johnson, Morgan Wiseman, Kara Pederson and Katie Gum draw up plans and then try to follow them while building their newspaper and tape shelter.

Winners!!!

The team of Forrest Fawbush, Hayden Namken and Danny Bendt stand by their completed and still standing shelter that all three of them can fit in.

Does This Count?

With their shelter falling down all around them, Orion Hawes, Tom Rowland, D'Artist Williams and Leo Farfan hope this shelter makes the grade.

What Is That?

Stretching the rules as far as they will go, Jason Williams, Kyle Roemen and James Clarke proclaim they are all under a newspaper and tape shelter with no other supports.

Colophon

The 2012 yearbook was produced by a staff of two students and one advisor using Windows Version 5.1 and Adobe InDesign CS3 Version 5.0.3. The books were printed by the Leader Printing Company and the press run was 130 books of 116 pages each. Books were sold for $60. Kristie Olson was the advisor. Special thanks to Jill Johnson, Mike Black, Lori Waldner, Doug Nielsen, Connie Currey and Scott Voigt for sharing their photos and all others who helped with the production.

All changes, even the most longed for, have their melancholy; for what we leave behind us is a part of ourselves; we must die to one life before we can enter another -- Anatole France

Goodbye Old High School

Through the summer and the next few years, the old school will become an improved school. We are ready for the construction.

Last To Roam These Halls

Hailey Wire, alone in the halls, will miss the school that will never be the same again.

Class of 2012

The last graduating class from the current building we call Madison High School. Good luck in the future!
